

ART GALLERY.

8° Elizabeth II., No. LXII.

No. 62 of 1959.

AN ACT to provide for the control and management of the Western Australian Art Gallery and for other purposes.

[Assented to 10th December, 1959.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Art Gallery Act, 1959.

Commencement.

2. This Act shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Repeal.

3. The Museum and Art Gallery of Western Australia Act, 1911-1955, is repealed.

4. In this Act unless the context requires otherwise— Interpretation.

“Art Gallery” means The Western Australian Art Gallery established at Perth;

“Board” means The Western Australian Art Gallery Board constituted pursuant to the provisions of this Act;

“chairman” means the chairman of the Board;

“member” means a person occupying any of the offices of member of the Board including that of chairman;

“Trustees” means The Trustees of the Museum and Art Gallery of Western Australia appointed under the Museum and Art Gallery of Western Australia Act, 1911.

5. (1) For the purposes of this Act there shall be constituted a board having the name of “The Western Australian Art Gallery Board.” The Western Australian Art Gallery Board.

(2) When constituted the Board—

(a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal; and

(b) is, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of section twenty of this Act, capable in its corporate name of acquiring, holding, leasing, exchanging, mortgaging and disposing of real and personal property and of suing and being sued.

(3) All courts, judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the common seal of the Board affixed to a document and shall presume that it was duly affixed.

6. (1) The Board shall consist of five members including the chairman and vice chairman, all appointed by the Governor. Constitution of Board.

(2) The Minister shall cause notice of appointments to the respective offices of members of the Board to be published in the Gazette.

(3) When the notice is so published the Board is constituted.

Tenure of office.

7. (1) Subject to the succeeding subsections of this section, all persons appointed as members hold office for a term of four years but are eligible for reappointment.

(2) A person appointed to fill a vacancy caused otherwise than by the retirement of a member on the expiration of the term of his office, holds office only for the unexpired portion of the term of the office of the member in whose place he is appointed.

(3) (a) Of the members who are first appointed to the Board at the coming into operation of this Act, two hold office for a term of two years.

(b) The Governor shall designate the two members at the time their appointments as members are made.

Casual vacancies.

8. (1) A casual vacancy in the office of a member occurs in any of the following instances—

(a) he dies;

(b) he tenders resignation from the office in writing under his hand addressed to the Governor in Council and the resignation is accepted;

(c) he absents himself from three consecutive ordinary meetings of the Board, without having obtained leave of absence from the Board;

(d) he is removed from office by the Governor;
or

(e) he is incapable of continuing a member.

(2) The Governor may appoint a member upon the happening of any casual vacancy.

(3) The Board may grant leave of absence to a member upon such terms and conditions as the Board determines.

9. The exercise of a power or the performance of a function by the Board is not invalidated by reason only of there being a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of the Board or by reason of a defect or irregularity in or in connection with the appointment of a member.

Board may act notwithstanding vacancy.

10. (1) The Governor may in respect of each member, appoint a person as deputy of that member and a person so appointed has, in the event of the absence of the member, all the powers of that member during his absence.

Deputies of members.

(2) No appointment of and no act done by a deputy in that capacity shall be questioned on the ground that the occasion for his appointment had not arisen or had ceased.

11. (1) The Governor may appoint one of the members to be chairman and another member to be vice chairman.

Chairman.

(2) (a) The member so appointed holds office as chairman or vice chairman as the case may be for the term of his office as member.

(b) When the member ceases to hold office as chairman or vice chairman as the case may be before the expiration of the term for which his is appointed another member may be appointed chairman or vice chairman by the Governor for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the person in whose place he is appointed.

(c) The chairman or vice chairman may resign his office as chairman or vice chairman by notice in writing addressed to the Governor in Council.

(d) If at any time the chairman or vice chairman ceases to be a member, he ceases to be chairman or vice chairman.

Presiding at meetings.

12. (1) The chairman or the vice chairman in the absence of the chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Board.

(2) When the chairman and vice chairman are absent from any meeting the members present at the meeting shall elect a member from among those present to preside at the meeting and the person so elected has during the absence of the chairman all the powers of the chairman.

Proceedings of Board.

13. The Board shall conduct its proceedings in such manner as may be prescribed and until prescribed, as the Board determines, but in any case—each member including the person presiding at a meeting is entitled to one vote only on the determination of any question;

three members constitute a quorum for the conduct of business;

the majority of the votes of the members present determines all questions, but if the votes in favour equal votes against the motion, the motion shall be deemed lost.

Preservation of existing rights.

14. A member or deputy for a member, in his capacity as member or deputy, is not a public servant under the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1904, but if at the time of his appointment as member or deputy under this Act, he is a public servant, his appointment shall be deemed to be without prejudice to his rights under the Public Service Act, 1904, or any other Act applying to him as a public servant.

Members' expenses.

15. Every member is entitled to such travelling and other expenses as the Governor determines.

Officers.

16. (1) The Board may appoint a Director of the Art Gallery and such other officers as are required for the purposes of carrying this Act into effect.

(2) The Director shall exercise such powers and carry out such duties as may be prescribed.

(3) The Director and other officers although not appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1904, are entitled to such leave of absence under that Act and to such rights prescribed by or pursuant to the provisions of the Superannuation and Family Benefits Act, 1938, as would apply, if they were appointed under the firstmentioned Act.

17. A person who is or has been a member, deputy for a member, or Director appointed under this Act is not personally liable for anything done or omitted in good faith, in, or in connection with the exercise or purported exercise of any power conferred, or the carrying out of any duty imposed, on the Board by this Act. Exempt from personal liability.

18. (1) The Board—

- (a) shall undertake the care and control of the Art Gallery and all lands and premises placed under the care and control of the Board;
- (b) shall undertake the care and control of all works of art, exhibits and other personal property acquired for the purposes of the Art Gallery;

property in respect of which the complaint is preferred or the proceedings are instituted, is the property of the Board.

Reward for information of commission of offence.

25. (1) The Board may offer and pay a reward to any person who gives information to the Board or any of its officers of the commission of an offence against this Act which leads to the conviction of a person for the offence.

(2) When proceedings are taken before a Court in respect of the offence if the person in respect of whom the information was given is convicted of the offence, the Court may in addition to imposing any penalty or ordering an amount to be paid under subsection (2) of section twenty-three of this Act, order that person to pay to the Board on account of any reward which the Board has paid or is liable to pay under this section, the amount of the reward or a sum of twenty pounds whichever is the lesser amount.

Selling or exposing for sale works of art in Art Gallery prohibited.

26. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, no person shall sell, offer for sale or expose for sale or permit or suffer to be sold, offered or exposed for sale, in the Art Gallery any work of art that belongs to him and is being exhibited in the Art Gallery.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

(2) The provisions of this section do not apply to any work of art that is being so exhibited pursuant to an agreement or arrangement made by or on behalf of the State or the Board with the Commonwealth or any other State of the Commonwealth or foreign country or the trustees or governing body of any other art gallery.

Power of officers to represent Board.

27. (1) In proceedings in a Court of Petty Sessions, an officer of the Board appointed for the purpose generally or in a particular case in writing signed by the chairman may represent the Board in all respects as if he were the party concerned.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, any person may make and prosecute a complaint of an offence against this Act.

28. (1) The Board shall on or before the thirtieth ^{Report.} day of September in each year furnish to the Minister a report of the proceedings of the Board during the year ending on the preceding thirtieth day of June and containing a full account of the income and expenditure of the Board audited by the Auditor General.

(2) The Auditor General has, in respect of the account, all powers conferred on him by any law for the time being in force relating to the audit of public accounts.

(3) The Minister shall on receipt of the report cause a copy of it to be laid before each House of Parliament.

29. (1) The Governor may make regulations as ^{Regulations.} he considers necessary, convenient or desirable to enable the Board to carry out its powers and duties under this Act or for better carrying out the objects and purposes of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of this section the regulations may provide

- (a) for the conduct of proceedings at meetings of the Board;
- (b) for the form of the official seal of the Board and the manner in which it shall be kept and used;
- (c) for the management of the affairs of the Art Gallery;
- (d) for the admission to and the exclusion or expulsion from the Art Gallery or any part of it, of the public or any individual;
