(2) In this Act the Parliamentary Superannuation Act, 1948-1955,

Act No. 60 of 1948 as reprinted with amendments to and including Act No. 46 of 1955, incorporated pursuant to the Amendments Incorporation Act, 1938, is referred to as the principal Act.

(3) The principal Act as amended by this Act may be cited as the Parliamentary Superannuation Act, 1948-1957.

2. Section fourteen of the principal Act is amended— S. 14 amended.

(a) by adding after the section designation, "14", the subsection designation, "(1)"; and

(b) by adding the following subsections:—

(2) Where payments of any benefit or pension,

to which a person would otherwise be entitled under this Act,

wholly cease for any period

because, during the period, the person holds an office which is under the Crown in right of the State, and in respect of which he receives remuneration out of money of the Crown in right of the State, those payments shall not be cancelled absolutely, but shall be deemed to be suspended during that period, and shall become payable on and from the termination of that period for such further period as is of equal duration to that period.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section shall be deemed to have come into operation on the day on which Act No. 60 of 1948 came into operation, namely the twenty-first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine, and for the purpose of making payments deemed suspended for any period which terminated before the coming into operation of the Parliamentary Superannuation Act, 1957, is modified so that those payments shall become payable on and from the coming into operation of the lastmentioned Act.
