Western Australia

Justices of the Peace Act 2004

An Act to provide for the appointment of Justices of the Peace and for related purposes.

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Justices of the Peace Act 2004.

2. Commencement

This Act comes into operation on the day on which the Magistrates Court Act 2004 comes into operation.

[Section 2 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141.]

3. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears —

CEO means the chief executive officer of the department that principally assists the Minister with the administration of this Act;

identification number, for a JP, means a number, unique to the JP, that is entered in the register in relation to the JP;

insolvent under administration has the meaning given by section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth;

JP means Justice of the Peace;

register means the register kept under section 15.

Part 2 — Functions of JPs

4. Functions of JPs

- (1) A JP has and may perform —
 - (a) the functions conferred on a JP by laws that apply in Western Australia, including this Act and other written laws; and
 - (b) the functions conferred by the commission appointing the JP.
- (2) A JP may perform his or her functions anywhere in the State unless the commission appointing the JP says otherwise.
- (3) A JP is not disqualified from performing a function of a JP by reason only of being a ratepayer or being interested in common with the public.

5. JP's functions reduced at age 70 and 75

- (1) A JP who has reached 70 years of age must not —
 - (a) constitute, whether alone or with others, the Magistrates Court or the Children's Court; or
 - (b) perform any function of a visiting justice under the Prisons Act 1981,except with the Minister's written permission given under subsection (3).
- (2) A JP who has reached 75 years of age must not —
 - (a) perform any function of a JP under any of the following Acts —
 - (i) Bail Act 1982;
 - (ii) Criminal Investigation (Identifying People) Act 2002;
 - (iii) Criminal Property Confiscation Act 2000;
 - (iv) Misuse of Drugs Act 1981;

s. 6

or

- (b) issue any warrant or other document that authorises, or includes an authorisation for —
 - (i) the arrest, apprehension or detention of a person;
 - (ii) the entry or search of a place;
 - (iii) the apprehension, detention, entry or search of an aircraft, vehicle or vessel; or
 - (iv) the seizure of any thing.
- (3) The Minister may permit a JP who has reached 70 years of age to perform all or some of the functions referred to in subsection (1), until the JP reaches 75 years of age or until an earlier date, in the whole or a part of the State, as the permit specifies.

6. Validity of JP's acts not affected by JP's death etc.

The validity and effect of a warrant, summons or other document issued by a JP, or of an act done by a JP, is not affected by the JP reaching an age referred to in section 5 or ceasing to hold office or dying.

7. Acts done outside WA or limit of jurisdiction, validity of

- (1) An act done outside the State in the performance of a function of a JP by a JP in respect of a document intended to take effect inside the State, including the administration of an oath, is as valid and effectual as if the act were done inside the State, unless the act is required by law to be done in the State.
- (2) If a JP's commission limits where or the circumstances in which the JP may perform the functions of a JP —
 - (a) an act of the JP performed as part of those functions is not invalid only because it was not done at a place where or in circumstances in which the JP may perform those functions;

- (b) a summons issued by the JP may be served, and a warrant issued by the JP may be executed, anywhere in the State; and
- (c) it is not necessary for any document signed by, or recording an act of, the JP to indicate where and in what circumstances it was signed or the act was performed.

Part 3 — Appointing JPs and related matters

Division 1 — Appointing JPs

8. Qualifications for appointment

A person is qualified to be appointed as a JP if the person —

- (a) is an Australian citizen under the Australian Citizenship Act 1948 of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) is enrolled as an elector for the Legislative Assembly in accordance with the Electoral Act 1907 or for the House of Representatives in accordance with the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

9. Minister may recommend appointment to Governor

The Minister may recommend to the Governor that a person who is qualified under section 8 be appointed as a JP.

10. Governor may appoint JPs

- (1) If under section 9 the Minister makes a recommendation in respect of a person, the Governor may appoint the person as a JP.
- (2) The Governor may appoint as many people as JPs as are necessary to assist in the administration of justice and in the maintenance of peace, order and good government in the State.
- (3) A person who ordinarily resides outside the State may be appointed as a JP.
- (4) The appointment of a JP is to be by a commission in the form in Schedule 1 issued under the Public Seal of the State to the appointee.
- (5) The commission appointing a JP may limit where, or the circumstances in which, the JP may perform the functions of a JP.

- (6) Notice of the appointment of a JP is to be published in the Gazette after the JP has complied with section 11.

11. Oath or affirmation of office

Before performing the functions of a JP, a JP must take an oath or affirmation of office, in the form set out in Schedule 2, before the Governor, a judge of the Supreme Court or the District Court, a magistrate, or a person authorised for the purpose by the Governor.

Division 2 — People who are JPs by virtue of an office

12. Judges, magistrates and others to be JPs
