Katanning Electricity Supply Undertaking Acquisition Act 1961

An Act relating to an Electricity Supply Undertaking carried on under the provisions of the Katanning Electric Lighting and Power (Private) Act, 1904; and for incidental and other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows: —

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Katanning Electricity Supply Undertaking Acquisition Act 1961.

2. Interpretation

Unless the contrary intention appears in this Act —

“Commission” means The State Electricity Commission of Western Australia established under the State Electricity Commission Act 1945;

“Company” means the Katanning Flour Mills Limited, its successors and assigns;

“property” includes land;

“transfer day” means the fourth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one;

“the Agreement” means the agreement a copy of which is contained in the Schedule to this Act;

“undertaking” means the property comprising the electricity supply undertaking of the Company agreed to be sold by the Company to the Commission under the Agreement.

3. Acquisition by Commission of undertaking

On the transfer day —

- (a) the Company shall be deemed to have sold the undertaking under the provisions of the Agreement and the Commission shall be deemed to have purchased it thereunder;
- (b) the undertaking shall, by force of this Act —
 - (i) become the absolute property of the Commission; and
 - (ii) be freed and discharged from all trusts, obligations, estates, interests, contracts (except the Agreement as affected by this Act), licenses, charges, rates, liens, pledges and easements, except any right of carriageway reserved under the Transfer of Land Act 1893, affecting the undertaking; and
- (c) the Company shall give possession of the undertaking to the Commission and deliver or cause to be delivered to it any certificate, deed or other instrument evidencing title to the undertaking, together with all documents, if any, required to enable the undertaking to be registered under the appropriate Act in the name of the Commission.

4. Apportionment of rates, taxes, outgoings on and satisfaction of interests in the undertaking

- (1) On or before the transfer day the Company shall pay all rates, taxes and outgoings that —
 - (a) will be or are payable on the transfer day;
 - (b) are by an Act a charge on the undertaking; and

- (c) as between the Company and the Commission are payable by the Company.
- (2) On the transfer day the Company shall —
 - (a) apportion between the Company and the Commission, all such rates, taxes and outgoings then accruing; and
 - (b) satisfy the claims of all persons, if any, having any estate or interest in the undertaking, whether legal or equitable, or undertake in writing, to the satisfaction of the Minister, to do so.

5. Payment on account of purchase money of undertaking

- (1) On the transfer day the Commission shall, if the Company has complied with the matters required by this Act to be complied with by the Company on or prior to that day, pay and the Company shall accept the sum of sixty thousand pounds on account of the purchase price of the undertaking as finally determined under the Agreement and section six of this Act.
- (2) If the purchase price of the undertaking, as so finally determined, exceeds the sum of sixty thousand pounds the Commission shall, after such determination and within seven days after receiving a written request from the Company to do so, pay to the Company the amount of such excess together with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum calculated on and from the transfer day to and including the day on which the amount of the excess is so paid.

6. Determination of purchase price

Subject to the provisions of section five of this Act, the amount of the purchase price of the undertaking to which the Company is entitled is such amount —

- (a) as the Company and the Commission agree that the Commission is required to pay to the Company under the Agreement; or

- (b) in default of such agreement between the Company and the Commission, as is properly determined by an award made under the Agreement under the Arbitration Act 1895, and that award is final and is no longer subject to or liable to be subject to an appeal to any court.

7. Civil remedies not affected. Agreement to operate

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section nothing in this Act affects or prejudices the right of the Company or the Commission to have the amount of the purchase price of the undertaking, that is payable under the Agreement, determined by agreement between them or by arbitration or legal proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction and, except where inconsistent with this Act, the Agreement shall continue to operate as between the parties thereto.
- (2) All legal costs as between solicitor and client to an amount approved by the Master of the Supreme court that are incurred after the ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one by the Commission or the Company in respect to any appeal to the Court of Appeal in or about the proper interpretation of the Agreement or the arbitration thereunder shall be borne and paid by the Commission as also shall such costs arising from any appeal by the Commission against any judgment of that Court.

[Section 7 amended by No. 45 of 2004 s. 37.]

8. Penalty

- (1) If the Company or the Commission does not do that which by this Act it is required to do, it is guilty of an offence.
Penalty: One hundred pounds.
- (2) Where any offence is committed by the Company or the Commission by reason of its failure to comply with any provision of this Act by or under which it is required to do anything within a particular period, that offence, for the purposes of this section, shall be deemed to continue so long as the thing required to be done by it remains undone, notwithstanding that such period has elapsed and the Company or the Commission is liable to an additional penalty of twenty pounds for each day during which the offence so continues.

- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any Act, the amount of any penalty incurred by the Commission under this section shall be paid to the Company.
- (4) Nothing in this section takes away or diminishes any remedy, right or obligation that the Company or the Commission has under the foregoing sections of this Act.

9. Repeal of certain Acts

On the transfer day the Katanning Electric Lighting and Power (Private) Act 1904, and the Katanning Electric Lighting and Power Repeal Act 1959, are repealed.
