

STATE FOREST ACCESS.

10° and 11° GEO. VI., No. XL.

No. 40 of 1946.

AN ACT to authorise the purchase, acquisition, or resumption of certain Lands for the purposes of the Forests Act, 1918-1931.

[Assented to 24th January, 1947.]

WHEREAS it is enacted by section twenty-two of the Forests Act, 1918-1931, that the Governor, subject to the consent of Parliament, may, under the Public Works Act, 1902-1945, purchase, acquire, resume, or appropriate land for the purpose of a State forest, or to provide access thereto, and that such purchase, acquisition, resumption, or appropriation shall be deemed to be an authorised work; And whereas, in pursuance of powers conferred in the said Act, large areas of State forest have recently been released for sawmilling operations and it is necessary to provide access thereto; And whereas, in order to provide such access, it will be necessary for the Governor to purchase, acquire, or resume lands which have been or are in the course of being alienated from the Crown, and it is deemed desirable and expedient that, in accordance with section twenty-two of the said Act, the Parliament consent to the purchase, acquisition, or resumption of the said lands by the Governor for the purpose aforesaid: Be it enacted

Preamble.
