

EAST PERTH CEMETERIES.23^d GEO. V., No. IX.

No. 9 of 1932.

AN ACT to revest certain lands in His Majesty, and for other purposes relative thereto.

[Assented to 7th November, 1932].

WHEREAS the lands described in the first and second columns of the schedule hereto are vested in various religious bodies or trustees as set out in the third column of the said schedule for the purposes set out in the fourth column of the said schedule: And whereas the said lands have not for some time past been required or used for the said purposes, and it is therefore deemed expedient to revest the said lands in His Majesty: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. This Act may be cited as the East Perth Cemeteries Act, 1932.

Short title.

2. From and after the commencement of this Act, all rights of property which may have at any time been vested by statute or otherwise in the persons or corporations mentioned in the third column of the schedule to this Act or in any other person or persons or corporation whatsoever in any part of the lands described in the first and second columns of the said schedule shall absolutely cease and determine, and the whole of the said lands and all the right and title in law or in equity thereto shall be and the same are hereby vested in His Majesty freed and released from all and every trusts or trust affecting the same.

Lands revested in His Majesty.

Lands re-vested to be deemed to be a disused burial ground and to be placed under control of a board.

3. (1.) Notwithstanding that the said lands shall have become vested in His Majesty as aforesaid, the said lands shall be deemed to be and continue a disused burial ground within the meaning and for the purposes of the Cemeteries Act Amendment Act, 1902, but, instead of being vested in trustees under the provisions of that Act, shall be placed under the management and control of a board appointed under the provisions of the Parks and Reserves Act, 1895, which shall manage and control the said lands as a disused burial ground as aforesaid.

(2.) The board which has the management and control of the said lands as aforesaid shall not be deemed to have any vested estate or interest therein, but otherwise shall have in respect to the said lands all the rights, powers, authorities, duties and obligations of the trustees of a disused burial ground which has been vested in such trustees under the provisions of the said Cemeteries Act Amendment Act, 1902.
