

BUNBURY ROAD DISTRICT RATES VALIDATION.

15° GEO. V., No. IV.

No. 4 of 1924.

AN ACT to validate Rates imposed or purporting to have been imposed by the Bunbury Road Board.

[Assented to 5th November, 1924.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Bunbury Road District Rates Validation Act, 1924. Short title.

2. (1) All rates heretofore imposed by the Bunbury Road Board, or purporting or appearing from the minute book of the said Board to have been so imposed, shall be deemed to have been lawfully imposed, and all things necessary for imposing such rates or rendering the same recoverable shall be deemed to have been duly performed, notwithstanding any failure to comply with any of the relative provisions of the Road Districts Act, 1919, or any prior Act, and the said rates shall be recoverable accordingly by the Board as if the relative enactments had been complied with in all respects. Validation of Rates.

(2) This section shall extend to any rates purporting or appearing to have been imposed at a meeting of the Board, notwithstanding that no quorum may have been present on the occasion.

(3) This section shall also extend to the rates for the financial year ending the 30th June, 1924, which shall be deemed to have been duly imposed in the month of July, 1923, notwithstanding that no meeting of the Board was held for the purpose during that month.
