

WORKERS' HOMES.

12° GEO. V., No. XXXV.

No. 1 of 1922.

AN ACT to further amend the Workers' Homes Act, 1911.

[Assented to 31st January, 1922.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Workers' Homes Act Amendment Act, 1921, and shall be read as one with the Workers' Homes Act, 1911, hereinafter referred to as the principal Act. Short title.

2. Section three of the principal Act is hereby amended, by inserting in the interpretation of the term "Holding" before the word "held," in line 4, the words "or endowment lands of the University of Western Australia, the trustees of the Public Education Endowment or any Municipal Corporation, of which the subdivision allotments are not less than a quarter of an acre." Amendment of section 3.

3. Paragraph (b) of section eleven of the principal Act is amended, by inserting after the words "per annum" the words "or such other rate per annum as may be prescribed." Amendment of section 11.

4. Section twenty-four of the principal Act is amended, by inserting after the word "Minister," in subsection (1), the words "erect and dispose of dwelling-houses to workers and," and the section is further amended by adding at the end of the section:— Amendment of section 24.

"Provided no provision of this section shall be applied to or affect or govern or alter the provisions of Part III. of this Act."

Rate of interest.

5. A section is inserted in Part IV. of the principal Act, as follows:—

44A. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part of this Act to the contrary, the interest on any advance made after the passing of the amending Act, 1921, may be at such rate per centum per annum as prescribed for the time being.
