No. 17 of 1913.

AN ACT to amend the Pearling Act, 1912.

[Assented to 30th December, 1913.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Pearling Act Amendment Act, 1913. Short title.
2. Section one hundred and seven of the Pearling Act, 1912, is hereby amended as follows, that is to say:—
Amendment of Section 107.
  - (a.) by the insertion between subsections five and six of a new subsection to stand as subsection (5a), as follows:—
“(5a). Whenever any Court has authority under this Act to impose a sentence of imprisonment, then the Court may direct that such imprisonment shall be with hard labour, and the person on whom the sentence is imposed shall serve it with hard labour accordingly;”
  - (b.) by the insertion of “and subsection (5a)” in subsection six, immediately before the word “thereof.”
