

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO PRIMO

GEORGI QUINTI REGIS,

XLIX.

No. 38 of 1911.

AN ACT relating to the administration of certain Acts for the Inspection of Mines and Machinery.

[Assented to 16th February, 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Mines and Machinery Inspection Act, 1911. Short title.

2. The Governor may, by Order-in-Council, confer upon the chief inspector or any inspector appointed under the Mines Regulation Act, 1906, the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1902, or the Inspection of Machinery Act, 1904, all or any of the powers of the chief inspector or of an inspector, as the case may be, under all or any of the said Acts, subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as to the Governor may seem fit; and any such chief inspector or inspector upon whom such powers are conferred shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the said Acts, be deemed to have been duly appointed under such Acts respectively and to have the necessary qualification for appointment, and may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties of a chief inspector or an inspector, as the case may be, under the said Acts accordingly.

Extension of powers and duties of inspectors.
