

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO SECUNDO

GEORGHII QUINTI REGIS, XI.

No. 3 of 1912.

AN ACT to amend the Health Act, 1911.

[Assented to 9th January, 1912.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Health Act Amendment Act. Short title.
1911.

2. Section one hundred and sixty one of "The Health Act, 1911" (hereinafter called the principal Act), is hereby amended by the addition of the following paragraph, that is to say:—

Amendment of section 161.

"(18.) The destruction of mosquitoes."

3. Section two hundred and three of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following words, that is to say:— "Provided that no local authority shall be compelled by virtue of any by-law made under this section to exercise any function or power conferred on it by section two hundred and forty-three or two hundred and forty-seven."

Amendment of section 203.

4. Section two hundred and four of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following words, that is to say— "Provided that the Commissioner shall not have any power, by virtue of this section, to compel any local authority to exercise any function or power conferred on it by section two hundred and forty-three or two hundred and forty-seven."

Amendment of section 204.

Amendment of section 247 (1).

5. Subsection one of section two hundred and forty-seven of the principal Act is amended by omitting the words “and when the Commissioner so requires shall.”

Amendment of section 261.

6. Section two hundred and sixty-one of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and a section is inserted in lieu thereof as follows:—

Registration of Midwives registered elsewhere in British Dominions.

“261. (1.) The Midwives' Registration Board may, by resolution published in the Government Gazette, prescribe—

That any specified certificate or diploma issued under statutory authority, in any specified part of the British Dominions, shall exempt the holder of the certificate or diploma from the obligation to pass any examination under this Act, and that any woman producing a certificate or diploma as aforesaid may, on proof to the satisfaction of the Board of her identity and good character, receive a certificate of registration on payment of a fee of five shillings.

(2.) The Board may revoke or amend any such resolution.”

Manner of showing amendments.

7. All copies of the principal Act hereafter printed by the Government Printer shall be printed as amended by this Act, under the supervision of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and reference shall be made in the margin of the principal Act to the sections of this Act by which such amendments are made.
