

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO PRIMO

GEORGII QUINTI REGIS,

LIV.

No. 43 of 1911.

AN ACT to amend "The District Fire
Brigades Act, 1909."

[Assented to 16th February, 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the District Fire Brigades Act Amendment Act, 1911, and shall be read as one with the District Fire Brigades Act, 1909, hereinafter referred to as the principal Act. Short title.

2. Section forty-three of the principal Act is amended as follows:— Amendment of sec. 43.

(a.) By omitting the words "and by such order the liability to contribute may be restricted to a prescribed area of the road district," and inserting in place thereof the following words, "Provided also that, if the Governor so orders, the liability of any local authority to contribute may be restricted to a prescribed area of the district of such local authority for such time as the Governor may think fit."

(b.) By omitting the word "municipalities" in subsection two and inserting "local authorities" in place thereof.

Amendment of sec.
45.

3. Section forty-five of the principal Act is amended by omitting the words "road board" and inserting "local authority" in place thereof, and by omitting the word "board" and inserting "municipal council or road board, as the case may be," in place thereof.

Power to annul regulations, etc.

4. If either House of Parliament, within thirty days next after any regulations or by-laws have been so laid before it, resolves that such regulations or by-laws ought to be annulled, the same shall after the date of such resolution be of no effect without prejudice to the validity of anything done in the meantime under the same.

Proclamations to be laid before Parliament.

5. Any proclamation made by the Governor under the principal Act or this Amendment Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after such publication if Parliament is then sitting, and if Parliament is not then sitting, within fourteen days after its next sitting, and if either House of Parliament, within thirty days after such proclamation has been so laid before it, resolves that such proclamation ought to be annulled, the same shall, after the date of such resolution, be of no effect without prejudice to the validity of anything done in the meantime under the same.
