

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO OCTAVO

EDWARDI SEPTIMI REGIS,

IX.

No. 4 of 1909.

AN ACT relating to the Appropriation of Fines and Penalties imposed for Offences punishable on Summary Conviction.

[Assented to 16th January, 1909.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:--

1. This Act may be cited as the Fines and Penalties Appropriation Act, 1909. Short title.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any Act to the contrary, every fine and penalty imposed by any Court of summary jurisdiction, under any Act passed before or after the passing of this Act, for any offences against or breach of the provisions of such Act, or of any by-law or regulation made under such Act shall, except as hereinafter provided, be paid to the Colonial Treasurer for the public uses of the State. Fines and penalties to be paid to Colonial Treasurer.

Provided that this Act shall not affect the appropriation of fines and penalties—

- (a.) Incurred and recovered under any law in force for the time being relating to the sale of fermented or spirituous liquor; or
- (b.) Incurred under the provisions of any Act or by-law relating to local government; or
- (c.) Incurred under any Act administered by a local authority.
- (d.) Fines and penalties recovered under sub-sections (b.) and (c.) shall be paid to the local authority within whose district the offences are proved to have been committed.

Interpretation.

3. For the purposes of this Act, “Local Authority” means the council of a municipality within the meaning of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906, or the board of a road district within the meaning of the Roads Act, 1902, or a local board within the meaning of the Health Act, 1898, or under any Act amending the same.
