ANNO SEXAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. III.

AN ACT to enable certain Warrants for Goods to be transferred by Indorsement and Delivery.

[Assented to, 9th September, 1898.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. WHERE, after the commencement of this Act, any warehousekeeper's certificate, wharfinger's certificate, dock warrant, or other warrant or order for delivery of goods (hereinafter called "the warrant") is indorsed by the person to whom the same has been issued or given, or by his agent duly authorised in that behalf, and is delivered to any person, such last-mentioned person and any subsequent holder of the warrant in good faith shall, as against the Certificate, warrant, or order for delivery of goods may be transferred by indorsement and delivery.

62° VICTORIÆ, No. 3.

Warrants for Goods Indorsement.

person by whom the warrant has been issued or given, be entitled to the goods and the possession thereof to the same extent as if the contract contained in or evidenced by such warrant had been made with the person to whom the warrant is indorsed and delivered as aforesaid, or the said holder thereof, as the case may be.

Short title.

2. THIS Act may be cited as the Warrants for Goods Indorsement Act, 1898.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

GERARD SMITH, Governor.
