

Western Australia.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XXV.

AN ACT to amend the Cemeteries Act, 1897.

[Assented to, 28th October, 1898.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THE trustees of any public cemetery may borrow money on security of any property vested in them as such trustees, and which is for the time being unused for the purposes of burial, and upon the fees received by them as such trustees for the purposes of the Cemeteries Act, 1897, and for that purpose may execute such liens, mortgages, or assurances over the premises as may be necessary.

Power to borrow money.

62° VICTORIÆ, No. 25.

Cemeteries Act—Amendment.

Provided that any security given by such trustees as aforesaid shall not involve any trustee in personal liability, and provided also the consent of the Governor be first had and obtained.

Short title.

2. THIS Act may be cited as the Cemeteries Act, 1897, Amendment Act, 1898.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

ALEX. C. ONSLOW, Governor's Deputy.
