

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO OCTAVO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 10

An Act to authorise the Transfer or Removal of Colonial Prisoners from any one Gaol to any other Gaol.

[Assented to 1st November, 1894.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as 'The Colonial Prisoners Removal Act, Short title 1894.'

2. In this Act the word 'prisoner' shall mean and include any person lawfully confined or detained within any gaol. The word 'gaol' shall mean and include prison, lock-up, reformatory, industrial school, or other lawful place of confinement.

3. From and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, to order and direct that any prisoner who now is or at any time hereafter may be confined or detained within any gaol shall be removed from any such gaol to any other gaol, as occasion may require; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Sheriff to cause such prisoner to be taken and removed from any such gaol to any such other gaol as shall be mentioned in such order; and such prisoner so removed to such other gaol shall, subject to this Act, there be imprisoned for and undergo in all respects the then unexpired residue of his sentence.

ALEX. C. ONSLOW,
GOVERNOR'S DEPUTY.
