

Western Australia.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

No. IX.

AN ACT to exempt certain persons from serving on Juries.

[Assented to, 13th January, 1893.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. THE following persons shall, in addition to those mentioned in section nine of "The Jury Act, 1871" (hereinafter called the Principal Act), be exempt from serving on Juries, and shall not be inserted on any Jury List to be prepared by virtue of such Act or any amendment thereof, or if inserted may claim exemption, that is to say: town clerks, captains or superintendents of fire brigades, schoolmasters, bank managers, chemists and druggists duly qualified and in actual practice, persons employed solely and exclusively in any department of the Public Service, including all officers and Exemption.

56° VICTORIÆ, No. 9.

---

Jury Exemption.

---

servants of the Commissioner of Railways, and all officers and servants employed upon or in connection with any private railway.

Incorporation and Short Title.

2. THIS Act shall be read with the Principal Act as one Act, and may be cited as "The Jury Exemption Act, 1892."

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

W. C. F. ROBINSON, Governor.