ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XIII.

AN ACT to amend "The Scab Act, 1891."

[Assented to, 13th January, 1893.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. THE words "in the absence of a quarantine boundary defined by an Inspector in his declaration" occurring in the interpretation of the term "Run" in the third section of "The Scab Act, 1891," hereinafter called the Principal Act, are hereby repealed.

Repeal of part of interpretation of "Run."

2. NOTWITHSTANDING anything in the Principal Act, from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person to introduce by land or sea any sheep from an infected district, or which or any one or more of which shall have been within the boundaries of an infected district within the then last preceding six months, into any district situate to the North of the Central Scab District; and every person offending against this

No sheep to be introduced into any district North of Victoria Scab District from or through an infected district.

56° VICTORIÆ, No. 13.

Scab Act—Amendment.

provision shall be liable to the like penalties as provided by section forty-four of the Principal Act for the offence therein mentioned.

3. AFTER the first day of March, 1893, all sheep before passing out of an infected district into any clean district shall be legibly branded by the owner with the letter V at least three inches in length, and shall be kept so branded by him and every other owner for the space of six calendar months from the time such sheep leave the said infected district. And every owner neglecting the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

Sheep before passing out of an infected district into a clean district to be branded with the letter V.

Incorporation and short title.

4. THIS Act shall be read with the Principal Act as one Act, and may be cited as "The Scab Act, 1891, Amendment Act, 1893."

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

W. C. F. ROBINSON, Governor.
