

Western Australia.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XXIII.

AN ACT to confer a Constitution on Western Australia, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty.

[ Reserved, 29th April, 1889. ]

[ Royal Assent Proclaimed, 21st October, 1890. ]

WHEREAS by the thirty-second section of the Imperial Act passed in the session holden in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," it was among other things enacted that, notwithstanding anything thereinbefore contained. it should be lawful for the Governor and Legislative Council of Western Australia, from time to time, by any Act or Acts, to alter the provisions or laws for the time being in force under the said Act or otherwise concerning the election of the elective members of such Legislative Council, and the qualification of electors and elective members, or to establish in the said Colony, instead of the Legislative Council, a Council and a House of Representatives, or other separate Legislative Houses, to consist of such members to be appointed or elected by such persons and in such manner as by such Act or Acts should be determined, and to vest in such Council and House of Representatives, or other separate Legislative Houses, the powers and functions of the Legislative Council for which the same might be substituted; and whereas it is Preamble.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

is expedient that the powers vested by the said Act in the said Governor and Legislative Council should now be exercised, and that a Legislative Council and a Legislative Assembly should be substituted for the present Legislative Council, with the powers and functions hereinafter contained: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Division of Act into Parts. 1. THIS Act is divided into seven Parts, namely:—

- PART I.—Parliamentary.
 PART II.—Electoral.
 PART III.—Elective Council.
 PART IV.—Judicial.
 PART V.—Legal.
 PART VI.—Financial.
 PART VII.—Miscellaneous.

PART I.—PARLIAMENTARY.

Legislature to be constituted in Western Australia. 2. THERE shall be, in place of the Legislative Council now subsisting, a Legislative Council and a Legislative Assembly: and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the said Council and Assembly, to make laws for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony of Western Australia and its Dependencies: and such Council and Assembly shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have all the powers and functions of the now subsisting Legislative Council.

Place and time for holding sessions. Prorogation. Dissolution of Assembly. 3. IT shall be lawful for the Governor to fix the place and time for holding the first and every other session of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, and from time to time to vary the same as he may judge advisable, giving sufficient notice thereof: and also to prorogue the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly from time to time, and to dissolve the Legislative Assembly by Proclamation or otherwise whenever he shall think fit.

A session every year. 4. THERE shall be a session of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly once at least in every year, so that a period of twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting of the said Council and Assembly in one session and the first sitting of the said Council and Assembly in the next session.

First calling together of Legislature. 5. THE Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly shall be called together for the first time at some period not later than six months after the commencement of this Act.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

6. BEFORE the first meeting of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly the Governor in Council may, in Her Majesty's name, by instruments under the Public Seal of the Colony, summon to the Legislative Council such persons, to the number of fifteen, as he shall think fit, and thereafter may from time to time, as vacancies occur, in like manner summon to the Legislative Council such other persons as he shall think fit, and every person so summoned shall thereby become a member of the Legislative Council.

Appointment of members of Council.

No member of the Legislative Council shall hold any office of profit under the Crown other than such as is liable to be vacated on political grounds, or than that of an officer of Her Majesty's sea or land forces on full, half, or retired pay.

One at least of the executive offices liable to be vacated on political grounds shall always be held by a member of the Legislative Council.

7. EVERY member of the Legislative Council shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, hold his seat therein until Part III. of this Act shall come into operation.

Tenure of seats in Council.

8. ANY member of the Legislative Council may resign his seat therein by a letter to the Governor, and upon the receipt of such letter by the Governor the seat of such member shall become vacant.

Resignation of Councillors.

9. THE Governor may from time to time, by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony, appoint one member of the Legislative Council to be President, and may remove him and appoint another in his stead; and the President may at any time take part in any debate or discussion in the said Council.

Appointment of President.

President may take part in debates.

10. THE presence of at least five of the members of the Legislative Council, exclusive of the President or of the member presiding, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the despatch of business; and all questions in the said Council shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present, other than the President or the member presiding, and when the votes are equal the President or the member presiding shall have the casting vote.

Quorum, division, casting vote.

11. THE Legislative Assembly shall consist of thirty members, who shall be elected for the several electoral districts hereinafter named and defined.

Constitution of Legislative Assembly.

12. FOR the purpose of constituting the Legislative Assembly, the Governor, before the time appointed for the first meeting of the Legislative Convoking of Assembly.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, and thereafter from time to time as occasion shall require, may in Her Majesty's name issue writs under the Public Seal of the Colony for the general election of members to serve in the Legislative Assembly.

Assembly may proceed to business although full number of writs shall not have been returned.

13. UPON any general election the Legislative Assembly shall be competent to proceed to the despatch of business, at the time appointed by the Governor for that purpose, notwithstanding that any of the writs of election not exceeding five shall not have been returned, or that in any of the electoral districts the electors shall have failed to elect a member to serve in the said Assembly.

Duration of Assembly.

14. EVERY Legislative Assembly shall continue for four years from the day of the return of the writs for choosing the same and no longer; subject, nevertheless, to be sooner prorogued or dissolved by the Governor.

Election of Speaker.

15. THE members of the Legislative Assembly shall, upon their first assembling after every general election, proceed forthwith to elect one of their number to be Speaker; and in case of his death, resignation, or removal by a vote of the said Assembly, the members shall again elect one of their number to be Speaker. The Speaker so elected shall preside at all meetings of the said Assembly.

Quorum necessary in Legislative Assembly.

16. THE presence of at least ten of the members of the Legislative Assembly, exclusive of the Speaker or of the member presiding, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the despatch of business; and all questions in the said Assembly shall be decided by the majority of votes of the members present, other than the Speaker or the member presiding, and when the votes are equal the Speaker or the member presiding shall have the casting vote.

Resignation of seats in the Assembly.

17. ANY member of the Legislative Assembly may resign his seat therein by writing under his hand, addressed to the Speaker, and upon the receipt of such resignation by the Speaker the seat of such member shall become vacant.

Qualification for a member of either House.

18. NO person shall be qualified to be a member of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly unless he be a natural-born or naturalised subject of Her Majesty of the full age of twenty-one years, nor unless he be seised at law or in equity of an estate of freehold, for his own use and benefit, in lands or tenements within the Colony, of the value of Five hundred pounds, above all charges and incumbrances affecting the same, or of the yearly value of Fifty pounds, and shall have been possessed of such estate for at least one year previous to his election.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

19. EVERY member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, before he shall sit or vote in the said Council or Assembly, shall make and subscribe the following declaration:—

Declaration of Qualification.

“ I, A.B., do declare that I am seised at law or in equity of an estate of freehold for my own use and benefit, in lands or tenements in the Colony of Western Australia, of the value of Five hundred pounds sterling money (or, of the yearly value of Fifty pounds sterling money) above all charges and incumbrances affecting the same; that the said lands and tenements consist of (describing them sufficiently for identification), of which I am seised in fee simple (or as the case may be), that I have been possessed of the said lands and tenements since the            day of            1            , and that I have not collusively or colorably obtained a title to or become possessed of the said lands and tenements, or any part thereof, for the purpose of qualifying or enabling me to be elected a member of the Legislative Council (or Assembly) of Western Australia.”

Every member shall deliver such declaration to the clerk of the said Council or Assembly (as the case may be) during a sitting of the House, and such declarations shall be filed and kept by the Clerk with the other records of his office.

If any member shall in such declaration knowingly and wilfully make any false statement, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be liable to the same punishment as if he had been convicted of perjury.

Every member who, before making such declaration, shall sit and vote in the said Council, or in the said Assembly after the election of a Speaker, shall be liable for every day on which he shall so sit and vote to a penalty of Two hundred pounds, to be recovered by any person who shall sue for the same in the Supreme Court.

20. IF any member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, after making such declaration, shall sell or otherwise dispose of the property described therein, or any part thereof, or shall wish to make any alteration in the description of such property, or to substitute other property for the property so described, he may at any time make and subscribe another similar declaration, and shall deliver the same to the Clerk of the said Council or Assembly (as the case may be), to be by him filed and kept with the other records of his office.

Member may alter or make new declaration.

21. IF any member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, after making any such declaration, shall sell or otherwise dispose

Member selling
qualifying property,

after making declaration, disqualified to sit.

dispose of the property described therein, or any part thereof, so that the remainder is insufficient to constitute the qualification required for a member, he shall be disqualified from holding his seat, and if he shall sit or vote in the said Council or Assembly (as the case may be) after he shall have become so disqualified, he shall for every day on which he shall so offend be liable to a penalty of Two hundred pounds, to be recovered by any person who shall sue for the same in the Supreme Court: Provided always, that if such member, at or before the time of selling or otherwise disposing of such property, be seised of other property sufficient to constitute a qualification, he may hold his seat in the said Council or Assembly (as the case may be) if he shall, previously to sitting or voting, have made and subscribed another such declaration, and shall have delivered the same to the Clerk of the Council or Assembly (as the case may be), to be filed and kept as aforesaid. Provided further that the property qualification mentioned in section eighteen and the provisions of this section and of the two next preceding sections shall not apply to any member of the Legislative Council until Part III. of this Act shall come into operation.

No member of the Legislature allowed to sit or vote, unless and until he be sworn or have affirmed.

22. NO member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly shall sit or vote therein until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath before the Governor, or before some person authorised by the Governor to administer such oath:

“I, A.B., do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Colony of Western Australia. So help me God.”

Affirmation may be made instead of oath.

Provided always, that if the taking of an oath is according to the religious belief of any member unlawful, such member may make and subscribe the following affirmation:

“I, A.B., solemnly declare that the taking of an oath is according to my religious belief unlawful, and I do sincerely promise and affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Colony of Western Australia.”

And whensoever the demise of Her present Majesty (whom may God long preserve), or of any of Her successors, shall be notified by the Governor to the said Council and Assembly respectively, the members of the said Council and Assembly shall, before they shall be permitted to sit and vote therein, take and subscribe the like oath or affirmation of allegiance to the successor for the time being to the Crown.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

23. NO person shall be qualified to be a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, if he:

- (1.) Be a member of the other House of the Legislature ; or,
- (2.) Be a Judge of the Supreme Court ; or,
- (3.) Be the Sheriff of Western Australia ; or,
- (4.) Be a clergyman or minister of religion ; or,
- (5.) Be an undischarged bankrupt or a debtor whose affairs are in course of liquidation or arrangement ; or,
- (6.) Has been in any part of Her Majesty's dominions attainted or convicted of treason or felony.

Disqualification for membership of either House.

24. ANY person who shall directly or indirectly, himself, or by any person whomsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account, undertake, execute, hold, or enjoy in the whole or in part any contract, agreement, or commission made or entered into with, under, or from any person whomsoever, for or on account of the Government of the Colony ;

Persons holding contracts for the public service shall be incapable of being elected or sitting.

Or shall knowingly furnish or provide in pursuance of any such contract, agreement, or commission any money to be remitted abroad, or any goods whatsoever to be used or employed in the service of the public ;

And any member of any company, and any person holding any office or position in any company formed for the construction of any railway or other public work, the payment for which, or the interest on the cost of which has been promised or guaranteed by the Government of the Colony ;

shall be incapable of being a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly during the time he shall execute, hold, or enjoy any such contract, agreement, or commission, or office or position, or any part or share thereof, or any benefit or emolument arising from the same.

25. IF any person, being a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, shall directly or indirectly, himself, or by any person whomsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account, enter into, accept, or agree for, undertake or execute, in the whole or in part, any such contract, agreement, or commission as aforesaid, or if any person being a member of the said Council or Assembly, and having already entered into any such contract, agreement, or commission, or any part or share of any such contract, agreement, or commission, by himself, or by any other person whomsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or upon his account, shall, after the commencement of the next Session of the Legislature, continue to hold, execute, or enjoy the same, or any part thereof, the seat

Any member accepting a contract, or continuing to hold any contract after the commencement of the next session, his seat shall be void.

seat of every such member shall be void. Provided that nothing in this or the last preceding section shall extend to persons contributing towards any loan for public purposes heretofore or hereafter raised by the Colony, or to the holders of any bonds issued for the purpose of any such loan.

Not to extend to incorporated trading companies.

26. THE foregoing provisions shall not extend to any contract, agreement, or commission made, entered into, or accepted by any incorporated company where such company consists of more than twenty persons, and where such contract, agreement, or commission is made, entered into, or accepted for the general benefit of such company, nor to any contract or agreement in respect of any lease, license, or agreement in respect to the sale or occupation of Crown lands.

Not to extend to contracts by descent.

27. THE foregoing provisions shall not extend to any person on whom, after the commencement of this Act, the completion of any contract, agreement, or commission shall devolve by descent, or limitation, or by marriage, or as devisee, or legatee, until twelve months after he shall have been in possession of the same, or to any executor or administrator until three years after he shall have been in possession of the same.

Office holder taking the oath as member thereby to vacate his office.

28. IF any person while holding an office of profit under the Crown, other than that of an officer of Her Majesty's sea or land forces on full, half, or retired pay, be elected a member of the Legislative Assembly, or of the Legislative Council after Part III. of this Act shall be in operation, he shall, if he takes the oath or makes the affirmation hereinbefore prescribed, be held by so doing to vacate his said office.

Chief executive offices excepted.

Provided always that there shall be five principal executive offices of the Government liable to be vacated on political grounds, and that to such offices this section shall not apply.

Such offices to be designated.

The said offices shall be such five offices as shall be designated and declared by the Governor in Council, within one month of the coming into operation of this Act, and thereafter from time to time as may be, to be the five principal executive offices of the Government for the purposes of this Act.

Seats in Parliament vacated in certain cases.

29. IF any member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, after his nomination or election—

- (1.) Ceases to be qualified or becomes disqualified as aforesaid; or,
- (2.) Becomes of unsound mind; or,
- (3.) Takes any oath or makes any declaration or acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to any any foreign Prince or Power, or does, concurs in, or adopts any act whereby he may become a subject or citizen of any foreign State or Power, or whereby he may become entitled to the rights, privileges, or immunities of a subject or citizen of any foreign State or Power; or,

- (4.) Fails to give his attendance in the Legislative Council, or in the Legislative Assembly, as the case may be, for two consecutive months of any session thereof without the permission of the said Council or Assembly, as the case may be, entered upon its journals; or
- (5.) Accepts any pension during pleasure or for term of years, or any office of profit from the Crown, other than that of an officer of Her Majesty's sea or land forces on full, half, or retired pay, his seat shall thereupon become vacant. Provided that members accepting offices liable to be vacated on political grounds shall be eligible for re-election, or, while the Council remains nominated, for re-appointment.

30. WHENEVER any question arises respecting any vacancy in the Legislative Council the same shall be referred by the Governor to the said Council to be by the said Council heard and determined.

Vacancies in the Council.

31. WHENEVER a vacancy occurs in the Legislative Assembly from any cause, upon a resolution by the Assembly declaring such vacancy and the cause thereof, the Speaker shall cause a writ to be issued for supplying such vacancy.

Election to take place on vacancies.

The Speaker may in the case of a vacancy caused by death or resignation, issue such writ without such preceding resolution when the Assembly is not in session.

32. IF any person by this Act disabled or declared to be incapable to sit or vote in the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly shall nevertheless be summoned to the said Council, or elected and returned as a member to serve in the said Assembly (or in the Legislative Council after the coming into operation of Part III. of this Act), such summons, or election and return, may be declared by the said Council or Assembly, as the case may require, to be void, and thereupon the same shall become and be void to all intents and purposes whatsoever; and if any person, under any of the disqualifications mentioned in this Act, shall, whilst so disqualified, presume to sit or vote as a member of the said Council or Assembly, such person shall forfeit the sum of Five hundred pounds, to be recovered by any person who shall sue for the same in the Supreme Court.

Summons or Election of disqualified persons void.

Presence of unqualified persons not to invalidate proceedings.

33. THE proceedings of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly shall not be invalidated by reason of the presence thereof of any person by this Act disabled or declared to be incapable to sit or vote in the said Council or Assembly.

Standing rules and orders.

34. THE Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, in their first session, and from time to time afterwards as there shall be occasion, shall each adopt Standing Rules and Orders, joint as well as otherwise, for the regulation and orderly conduct of their proceedings and the despatch of business, and for the manner in which the said Council and Assembly shall be presided over in the absence of the President or the Speaker, and for the mode in which the said Council and Assembly shall confer, correspond, and communicate with each other, and for the passing, intituling, and numbering of Bills, and for the presentation of the same to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent; and all such Rules and Orders shall by the said Council and Assembly respectively be laid before the Governor, and being by him approved shall become binding and of force.

Salaries of President, Speaker, and officers.

35. THE salary of the President of the Legislative Council shall be at least equal to the salary of the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly; and the salaries and allowances of the various officers of the Legislative Council shall be the same as those of the corresponding officers of the Legislative Assembly; and the chief Clerk for the time being of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly shall respectively be removable from office only in accordance with a vote of the House of which he is an officer.

Privileges of both Houses.

36. IT shall be lawful for the Legislature of the Colony, by any Act to define the privileges, immunities, and powers to be held, enjoyed, and exercised by the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, and by the members thereof respectively. Provided that no such privileges, immunities, or powers shall exceed those for the time being held, enjoyed, and exercised by the Commons House of Parliament, or the members thereof.

PART II.—ELECTORAL.

Electoral Districts.

37. THE Colony shall be divided into thirty electoral districts, each returning one member to serve in the Legislative Assembly, that is to say, the districts of—

East

The Constitution Act, 1889.

East Kimberley	Moore	Bunbury
West Kimberley	Swan	Nelson
Roebourne	Perth	Sussex
De Grey	East Perth	Toodyay
Ashburton	West Perth	Northam
Gascoyne	Fremantle	York
Murchison	North Fremantle	Beverley
Geraldton	South Fremantle	Williams
Greenough	Murray	Plantagenet
Irwin	Wellington	Albany

The boundaries of the said electoral districts shall be those in Schedule A. to this Act.

38. EXCEPT as otherwise provided in this Act, the existing laws relating to the qualification of electors, the mode of election, and all other matters concerning elections, shall be in force, and apply to the election of members to serve in the Legislative Assembly, in the same manner as they are now in force in respect of election to the existing Legislative Council. Electoral laws.

The electoral laws existing at the date of the coming into operation of Part III. of this Act shall, except as otherwise provided in this Act, be in force and apply to the election of members to serve in the Legislative Council for electoral divisions, in the same manner as such laws shall then be in force in respect of election to the Legislative Assembly for electoral districts.

39. EVERY man shall be entitled to be registered as a voter, and when registered to vote for a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly for an electoral district, who is qualified as follows (that is to say):— Qualification of electors.

- (1.) Is of full age and not subject to any legal incapacity; and
- (2.) Is a natural-born or naturalised subject of Her Majesty, or a denizen of Western Australia; and
- (3.) Has possessed for at least one year before being registered, and within the electoral district for which he seeks to be registered:
  - (a.) Either a freehold estate in possession at law or in equity of the clear value of One hundred pounds sterling above all charges or incumbrances affecting the same; or
  - (b.) A leasehold estate in possession of the clear value of Ten pounds sterling per annum; or
  - (c.)

The Constitution Act, 1889.

- (c.) A lease or license from the Crown empowering him, subject to the payment of at least Ten pounds sterling per annum, to depasture, occupy, cultivate, or mine upon Crown lands ; or
- (4.) Has occupied for at least one year before being registered, and within the electoral district for which he seeks to be registered :
- (a.) As householder a dwelling-house of the clear value of Ten pounds sterling per annum ; or
- (b.) As a lodger a room or rooms or lodgings of the clear annual value, unfurnished, of Ten pounds sterling.

No man shall be entitled to vote at any election for the Legislative Assembly, or for the Legislative Council when constituted under Part III. of this Act, who has been attainted or convicted of treason, felony, or any infamous offence in any part of Her Majesty's dominions unless he shall have served his sentence for the same, or have received a free pardon for such offence, or a pardon conditional on his not leaving the Colony.

When joint owners and occupiers shall be entitled to be registered as voters and to vote.

40. WHERE any premises are jointly owned, occupied, or held on lease or license within the meaning of the last preceding section, or of section fifty-three after Part III. of this Act shall be in operation, by more persons than one, each of such joint owners, occupiers, leaseholders, or licensees shall be entitled to be registered as a voter, and to vote in respect of the said premises in case the value of his individual interest therein, separately considered, would, under the provisions of the last preceding section, or of section fifty-three, entitle him to be registered as a voter and to vote.

Electoral lists.

41. THE names of electors under this Act shall be inserted in the electoral lists of the electoral districts, and (when Part III. shall come into operation) in the electoral lists of the electoral divisions, in which they shall be respectively qualified ; and all such lists shall specify the Christian and surnames of all such electors, the nature of the qualification, and the place where they respectively reside ; and all such lists shall be signed, delivered, printed, and hung up for public inspection by the persons and in the way prescribed in the Electoral Acts for the time being in force, and shall be subject to such claims and notice from any person whose name shall have been omitted therein, and to such objections and notice as to the names of any persons inserted therein, and to such modes of altering, amending, or continuing any such lists as are, or shall be, in these said several respects provided for in the said Electoral Acts, as nearly as may be consistently with the rights of such new electors.

Provided

The Constitution Act, 1889.

Provided that it shall be lawful, in order to the convenient holding of the first general election under this Act to the Legislative Assembly, and of the general election, mentioned in Part III. of this Act, to the Legislative Council, for the Governor in Council to make such arrangements, appoint such persons, and fix such dates and periods, as may to him seem under the circumstances to be required for the doing of any matter or thing necessary to be done under any Electoral Act, notifying the same in the Government Gazette. Any Electoral Act affected by such notice shall be deemed to be varied accordingly, for the purposes of the said elections.

PART III.—ELECTIVE COUNCIL.

42. WHEN six years shall have elapsed from the date of the first summoning, under section six of this Act, of persons to the Legislative Council, or when the Registrar General of the Colony shall have certified, by writing under his hand to be published in the Government Gazette, that the population of the Colony has, to the best of his knowledge and belief, exclusive of aboriginal natives, attained to Sixty thousand souls, whichever event shall first happen, this Part shall come into operation, provided that the Governor in Council shall have power, by proclamation in the Government Gazette, to further postpone the operation of this Part for any period not exceeding six months. Operation.

43. ON the coming into operation of this Part, the first paragraph of section six, and sections eight, nine, and thirty of this Act shall, saving validity of things done, cease to have any operation. Certain sections to lapse.

44. FROM and after the coming into operation of this Part, the Legislative Council, as constituted hereunder, shall take the place under this Act and have all the powers and functions of the then subsisting Legislative Council, which shall then cease to exist. Except as provided in the previous section, all the provisions of this Act relating to the Legislative Council shall apply to the Council constituted under this Part. New Legislative Council.

45. THE Legislative Council shall consist of fifteen elected members, who shall be returned and shall sit for electoral divisions, as hereinafter stated and defined. To be elected.

46. FOR the purpose of constituting the Legislative Council, the Governor, before the time appointed for the first meeting of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, after this Part shall be in operation, may, in Her Majesty's name, issue writs under Convoking of elected Council.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

under the Public Seal of the Colony for a general election of members to serve in the Legislative Council.

47. UPON the general or any subsequent election, the Legislative Council shall be competent to proceed to the despatch of business, at the time appointed by the Governor for that purpose, notwithstanding that any of the writs of election not exceeding two shall not have been returned, or that in any of the electoral divisions the electors shall have failed to elect a member to serve in the said Council.

Council may proceed to business although full number of writs shall not have been returned.

48. THE seat of the senior member of the Legislative Council for the time being for each electoral division shall be vacated on the completion of a period of two years from the First day of March following the date on which this Part shall come into operation, and also on the completion of each succeeding period of two years. For the purposes of this section, the seniority of a member of the Legislative Council shall be determined by the date of his election, and, in the event of two or more persons being elected for a division upon the same day, by the alphabetical precedence of their surnames, and, if necessary, of their Christian names.

Members of Council to retire in rotation.

Upon a seat becoming vacant under this section, the Governor may, in Her Majesty's name, issue a writ, under the Public Seal of the Colony, for the election of a member to fill the seat thus vacated.

Writ for new election.

49. THE members of the Legislative Council shall, upon their first assembly after the general election, proceed forthwith to elect one of their number to be President; and in case of his death, resignation, or removal by a vote of the Council, the members shall again elect one of their number to be President. The President so elected shall preside at all meetings of the said Council.

Election of President.

50. ANY member of the Legislative Council may resign his seat therein, by writing under his hand, addressed to the President, and upon the receipt of such resignation by the President the seat of such member shall become vacant.

Resignation of seats in Council.

51. WHENEVER a vacancy, other than under section forty-eight of this Act, occurs in the Legislative Council, from any cause, upon a resolution by the Council declaring such vacancy and the cause thereof the President shall cause a writ to be issued for supplying such vacancy. The President may, in the case of a vacancy caused by death or resignation, issue such writ without such preceding resolution, when the Council is not in session.

President to issue election writ in certain cases.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

52. THE Colony shall be divided into five Electoral Divisions, each returning three members to serve in the Legislative Council, that is to say:—

Electoral divisions.

The Metropolitan Division, comprising Perth, East Perth, West Perth, Fremantle, North Fremantle, and South Fremantle Electoral Districts.

The North Division, comprising the East Kimberley, West Kimberley, Roebourne, De Grey, and Ashburton Electoral Districts.

The Central Division, comprising the Gascoyne, Murchison, Geraldton, Greenough, and Irwin Electoral Districts.

The East Division, comprising the Moore, Swan, Toodyay, Northam, York, and Beverley Electoral Districts.

The South Division, comprising the Murray, Wellington, Bunbury, Nelson, Sussex, Williams, Plantagenet, and Albany Electoral Districts.

53. EVERY man shall be entitled to be registered as a voter, and, when registered, to vote for each of any number of candidates not exceeding the number of members to be elected to serve in the Legislative Council for an electoral division, who is qualified as follows (that is to say):—

Qualification of electors.

- (1.) Is of full age, and not subject to any legal incapacity; and,
- (2.) Is a natural born or naturalised subject of Her Majesty, or a denizen of Western Australia; and,
- (3.) Has possessed for at least one year before being registered, and within the electoral division for which he seeks to be registered:
  - (a) Either a freehold estate in possession at law or in equity of the clear value of Two hundred pounds sterling above all charges or encumbrances affecting the same; or,
  - (b) A leasehold estate in possession of the clear value of Thirty pounds sterling per annum; or,
  - (c) A lease or license from the Crown empowering him, subject to the payment of at least Thirty pounds sterling per annum, to depasture, occupy, cultivate, or mine upon Crown Lands; or,
- (4.) Has occupied, for at least one year before being registered, and within the electoral division for which he seeks to be registered, as a householder a dwelling house of the clear value of Thirty pounds sterling per annum.

PART IV.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

PART IV.—JUDICIAL.

Judges continued in the enjoyment of their offices during good behaviour.

54. THE Commissions of the present Judges of the Supreme Court and of all future Judges thereof shall be, continue, and remain in full force during their good behaviour, notwithstanding the demise of Her Majesty (whom may God long preserve), any law, usage, or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

But they may be removed by the Crown on the address of both Houses.

55. IT shall be lawful nevertheless for Her Majesty to remove any such Judge upon the Address of both Houses of the Legislature of the Colony.

Their salaries continued during the continuance of their commissions.

56. SUCH salaries as are settled upon the Judges for the time being by this or any other Act, and also such salary as shall be voted to any Judge of the Supreme Court, shall in all time coming be paid and payable to every such Judge for the time being, so long as his Patent or Commission continues in force.

PART V.—LEGAL.

Existing law saved.

57. ALL laws, statutes, and ordinances which at the commencement of this Act are in force within the Colony shall until repealed or varied by any Act of the Legislature continue to be of the same force, authority, and effect as if this Act had not been passed, except in so far as the same are repugnant to this Act (in which case they are to that extent hereby amended and repealed as necessary).

Courts of Justice, Commissions, Officers, &c.

58. ALL Courts of Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction, and all legal commissions, powers, and authorities, and all officers, judicial, administrative, or ministerial, within the Colony at the commencement of this Act shall except in so far as they are abolished, altered, or varied by this or any future Act of the Legislature of the Colony or other competent authority, continue to subsist in the same form and with the same effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Custom Duties may be imposed not differential.

59. IT shall be lawful for the Legislature of the Colony, subject to the provisions of this Act, to impose and levy such duties of Customs as to it may seem fit, on the importation into the Colony of any goods whatsoever, whether the produce of or exported from the United Kingdom or any of the Colonies or Dependencies of the United Kingdom or any Foreign Country. Provided always, that, except as authorised by the Imperial Act known as the Australian Colonies Duties Act, 1873, no new duty shall be imposed upon the

the importation into the Colony of any article the produce or manufacture of or imported from any particular country or place which shall not be equally imposed on the importation into the Colony of the like article the produce or manufacture of or exported from all other countries and places whatsoever.

60. IT shall not be lawful for the Legislature of the Colony to levy any duty upon articles imported bonâ fide for the supply of the Governor or of Her Majesty's Land or Sea Forces. nor to levy any duty. impose any prohibition or restriction. or grant any exemption or any drawback or other privilege upon the importation or exportation of any articles. nor to enforce any dues or charges upon shipping. contrary to or at variance with any treaty concluded by Her Majesty with any foreign Power.

Duties not to be levied on supplies for Governor or troops nor any duties inconsistent with treaties.

61. NOTHING in this Act contained shall prevent Her Majesty from dividing the Colony of Western Australia as she may from time to time think fit, by separating therefrom any portion thereof. and either erecting the same or any part thereof into a separate Colony or Colonies under such form of Government as she may think fit, or from sub-dividing any Colony so created, or from re-uniting to the Colony of Western Australia any part of any Colony so created.

Separation of the Colony.

62. IN the event of any such separation or other proceeding as in the last preceding section mentioned, the provisions of this Act shall apply, so far as practicable, to the Colony of Western Australia as for the time being existing.

After separation, Act to apply to remaining part of Colony.

PART VI.—FINANCIAL.

63. WHENEVER any portion of the Colony is about to be separated therefrom the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may if requested by the Governor in Council, on report and accounts furnished by him, declare what portion of the public debt of the Colony has been expended within the territory about to be separated, and the interest and sinking fund, if any, upon the portion of the public debt mentioned in any such declaration shall be a reserved charge payable to the Government of Western Australia by the Government of the separated territory, and due provision for such reserved charge shall be made in any Act regulating the constitution of the separated territory. Provided always, that nothing herein contained, and no declaration or provision as aforesaid, shall in any way prejudice or affect the security Liability of separated portion of Colony for public debt.

The Constitution Act, 1889.

security of any debentures which may have been issued by the Government of Western Australia before the separation of any such territory.

64. ALL taxes, imposts, rates, and duties, and all territorial, casual, and other revenues of the Crown (including royalties) from whatever source arising within the Colony, over which the Legislature has power of appropriation, shall form one Consolidated Revenue Fund to be appropriated to the Public Service of the Colony in the manner and subject to the charges hereinafter mentioned.

All duties and revenues to form Consolidated Revenue Fund.

65. THE Consolidated Revenue Fund shall be permanently charged with all the costs, charges, and expenses incident to the collection, management, and receipt thereof; such costs, charges, and expenses being subject nevertheless to be reviewed and audited in such manner as is directed by "The Audit Act, 1881," or as may from time to time be directed by any Act of the Legislature.

Such fund permanently charged with expenses of collection.

66. ALL Bills for appropriating any part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund or for imposing, altering, or repealing any rate, tax, duty, or impost, shall originate in the Legislative Assembly.

Appropriation and Tax Bills.

67. IT shall not be lawful for the Legislative Assembly to adopt or pass any Vote, Resolution, or Bill for the appropriation of any part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, or of any rate, tax, duty, or impost, to any purpose which has not been first recommended to the Assembly by message of the Governor during the session in which such Vote, Resolution, or Bill is proposed.

No money vote or bill lawful unless recommended by the Governor.

68. NO part of the public revenue of the Colony arising from any of the sources aforesaid shall be issued except in pursuance of warrants under the hand of the Governor directed to the Treasurer.

No part of Public Revenue to be issued except on warrants from Governor.

69. THERE shall be payable to Her Majesty, in every year, out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, sums not exceeding in the whole Nine thousand eight hundred and fifty pounds, for defraying the expenses of the services and purposes set forth in Schedule B. to this Act, and the said several sums shall be issued by the Treasurer in discharge of such warrants as shall from time to time be directed to him under the hand of the Governor.

Civil List.

70. THERE shall be payable to Her Majesty, in every year, out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund the sum of Five thousand pounds mentioned in Schedule C. to this Act to be appropriated to the welfare of the Aboriginal Natives, and expended in providing them with food and clothing when they would otherwise wise be destitute, in promoting the education of Aboriginal children (including half-castes), and in assisting generally to promote the preservation and well-being of the Aborigines. The said annual sum shall be issued to the Aborigines Protection Board by the Treasurer on warrants under the hand of the Governor, and may be expended by the said Board at their discretion, under the sole control of the Governor, anything in "The Aborigines Protection Act, 1886," to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided always, that if and when the gross revenue of the Colony shall exceed Five hundred thousand pounds in any financial year, an amount equal to one per centum on such gross revenue shall, for the purposes of this section, be substituted for the said sum of Five thousand pounds in and for the financial year next ensuing.

If in any year the whole of the said annual sum shall not be expended, the unexpended balance thereof shall be retained by the said Board, and expended in the manner and for the purposes aforesaid in any subsequent year.

71. AND whereas by the operation of this Act certain officers of the Government may lose their offices on political grounds, and it is just to compensate such officers for such loss, be it enacted that the sums set opposite to the names of the persons in Schedule D. to this Act, who at present respectively hold the offices therein mentioned, shall be payable to them annually by way of retiring allowance upon their ceasing to hold office on political grounds after the commencement of this Act; and all such sums shall be paid to such persons out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and the Treasurer shall make such payments accordingly, on warrants under the hand of the Governor. Provided that if after any such annual allowance shall have become payable, the person entitled thereto shall accept any appointment under the Crown in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions, then such allowance shall, during the tenure of such appointment, be suspended or be reduced pro tanto according as the salary of such appointment added to such allowance is greater than the salary of the office vacated in consequence of this Act.

Compensation to Officers.

72. AFTER and subject to the charges hereinbefore mentioned, all the Consolidated Revenue Fund shall be appropriated to such purposes as any Act of the Legislature shall prescribe. Provided that nothing in this Act shall affect the payment of the annual interest or the principal sums mentioned in any outstanding debentures, or of any other charge upon the public revenue; as such interest, principal, or charge becomes due. Nor shall anything in this Act affect any pensions or superannuation allowances which at the commencement of this Act are by law chargeable upon the public revenue of the Colony, but all such pensions and superannuation allowances shall remain and be so chargeable, and shall be Consolidated Revenue to be appropriated by Act of the Legislature.

Debenture or any other charges on Consolidated Revenue Fund not to be affected by such consolidation.

be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and all rights and benefits which at the commencement of this Act are by law claimable by or accruing to any civil servant of the Government are hereby reserved and maintained. Provided nevertheless, that the power to suspend or remove any civil servant from his office shall be vested in the Governor in Council.

PART VII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

73. THE Legislature of the Colony shall have full power and authority, from time to time, by any Act, to repeal or alter any of the provisions of this Act. Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to present to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent any Bill by which any change in the Constitution of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly shall be effected, unless the second and third readings of such Bill shall have been passed with the concurrence of an absolute majority of the whole number of the members for the time being of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly respectively. Provided also, that every Bill which shall be so passed for the election of a Legislative Council at any date earlier than by Part III. of this Act provided, and every Bill which shall interfere with the operation of sections sixty-nine, seventy, seventy-one, or seventy-two of this Act, or of Schedules B., C., or D., or of this section, shall be reserved by the Governor for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

Legislature as constituted by this Act empowered to alter any of its provisions.

74. THE appointment to all public offices under the Government of the Colony hereafter to become vacant or to be created, whether such offices be salaried or not, shall be vested in the Governor in Council, with the exception of the appointments of officers liable to retire from office on political grounds, which appointments shall be vested in the Governor alone. Provided always, that this enactment shall not extend to minor appointments which by Act of the Legislature or by order of the Governor in Council may be vested in heads of departments or other officers or persons within the Colony.

Appointment to Offices under the Government of the Colony to be vested in the Governor.

75. FOR the purposes of this Act—

“Her Majesty” means, when not repugnant to the context, Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

“Governor” means the person for the time being lawfully administering the Government of Western Australia, or the lawfully appointed Deputy of such person.

“Governor in Council” means the Governor acting with the advice of the Executive Council.

“Treasurer” means the Treasurer of the Colony for the time being.

Interpretation.

“Aborigines

The Constitution Act, 1889.

“Aborigines Protection Board” means the Board established under “The Aborigines Protection Act, 1886,” or any Board with similar functions established in its place under any Act adding to, amending, or substituted for the said Act.

“Person” includes a corporation or association of persons.

“Month” means calendar month.

76. THE foregoing provisions of this Act shall have no force or effect until so much and such parts of the following Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, that is to say:—13th and 14th Victoria, chapter 59, intituled An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies; 5th and 6th Victoria, chapter 76, intituled An Act for the better Government of New South Wales and Van Dieman's Land; 7th and 8th Victoria, chapter 74, intituled An Act to explain and amend the Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Dieman's Land; as severally relate to the Colony of Western Australia, and are repugnant to this Act, shall have been repealed.

Operation of Act deferred.

13 & 14 Vict., c. 59.

5 & 6 Vict., c. 76.

7 & 8 Vict., c. 74.

77. THIS Act shall be proclaimed in Western Australia, by the Governor, within three months after he shall have received official information of the Royal Assent thereto, and shall commence and, except as provided in section forty-two, take effect from the date of such Proclamation.

Act to be proclaimed.

78. THIS Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Constitution Act, 1889.”

Short title.

I reserve this Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

F. NAPIER BROOME, Governor.
