

WESTERN AUSTRALIA
ANNO QUADRAGESIMO NONO
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 11

An Act to secure an Annuity to Dame Jane Barlee, for life. [Assented to 18th September, 1885.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to recognise the long and meritorious services, as Colonial Secretary of the Colony of Western Australia, of the late Sir Frederick Palgrave Barlee, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, by an Annuity of One hundred and fifty pounds sterling to be granted to his widow, Dame Jane Barlee, for her life; And whereas it is expedient that such Annuity be secured in manner hereinafter provided: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. That a yearly sum of One hundred and fifty pounds sterling shall be paid out of the General Revenue of the said Colony to the said Dame Jane Barlee, for the term of her natural life, in equal monthly instalments, commencing from the first day of January in the present year.

Annuity to be paid to Dame
Barlee

2. That the Warrants of His Excellency the Governor of the said Colony, directed to the Colonial Treasurer, for the payment of the said annuity in manner aforesaid, as the same shall from time to time become due and payable, shall be sufficient authority to the said Treasurer for making such payments; and the receipt of the said Dame Jane Barlee or of her appointee in writing shall be a full discharge to the said Treasurer in respect of any sum thereby acknowledged to have been received, and the amount thereof shall be passed to his credit in account accordingly.

Authority to Treasurer to pay the annuity

F. NAPIER BROOME,
GOVERNOR.
