ANNO QUADRAGESIMO NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. III.

AN ACT to amend the law relating to the Branding of Live Stock.

[Assented to, 18th September, 1885.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Brands Acts of 1881 and 1882, so as to include camels, goats, and pigs within their provisions: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as “The Brands Act, 1881, Amendment Act, 1885.”

Short Title.

2. THIS Act shall come into force on the first day of January, 1886, hereinafter called the commencement of this Act.

Commencement of Act.

3. FROM and after the commencement of this Act the word “cattle” in the third section of “The Brands Act, 1881,” shall include camels in addition to the animals in the said Act defined

Act to apply to camels.

as

49° VICTORIÆ, No. 3.

Brands Act, 1881—Amendment.

as cattle, and all the provisions of the said Act shall apply to camels in as full and ample a manner as if camels had been included by the said Act within the definition of the word "cattle."

Acts to apply to goats and pigs.

4. FROM and after the commencement of this Act all the provisions of "The Brands Act, 1881," and "The Brands Act, 1881, Amendment Act, 1882," relating to earmarks for sheep shall apply to goats and pigs in as full and ample a manner as if the words "goats and pigs" or the words "goats or pigs," as the context may require, were inserted after the word "sheep" in the said Acts.

Alteration of forms.

5. ALL the forms set forth in the schedules to "The Brands Act, 1881," may be altered (if necessary) so as to make them applicable to camels, goats, or pigs.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

F. NAPIER BROOME, Governor.
