ANNO QUADRAGESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 21

An Act to enable the Police or Resident Magistrate of a District to issue a Certificate for a License to the Keeper of a Railway Refreshment Room in the District of such Police or Resident Magistrate at any time between any two Quarterly Licensing Meetings.

[Assented to 7th April, 1881.]

WHEREAS certain provision is made by the 37th Section of 'The Railways Act, 1878' for the licensing of Railway Refreshment Rooms by the Licensing Magistrates for the district within which such Refreshment Room is situate; And whereas it may become necessary, for the convenience of the public, to issue a license for a Railway Refreshment Room at a time when the said Licensing Magistrates are not in session; And whereas it is expedient to vest in the Police or Resident Magistrate, as the case may be, the powers at present vested in such Licensing Magistrates in respect of such licenses: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Preamble

1. It shall be lawful for the Police or Resident Magistrate of any district at any time when the Licensing Magistrates of such district are not in session to grant or transfer any certificate required by 'The Wines, Beer, and Spirit Sale Act, 1880,' to any person to whom the Commissioner of Railways may, with the approval of the Governor, let a Railway Refreshment Room in such district, under the provisions of the 37th Section of 'The Railways Act, 1878,' notwithstanding anything contained in either of the hereinbefore recited Acts.

Police or Resident Magistrate may grant certificate for issue or transfer of license to Lessee of Refreshment Rooms at any time

2. The short title of this Act shall be 'The Railway Refreshment Room Licensing Act, 1881.'
