ANNO QUADRAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XVII.

AN ACT to extend the provisions of the Shipping and Pilotage Acts 1855 and 1873.

[Assented to, 8th September, 1883.]

WHEREAS by the provisions of the 37th Victoria, No. 14, certain powers are given to the Governor in Council to remit, vary, or alter the scales or lists of dues set forth in the Schedule to the Shipping and Pilotage Consolidation Ordinance, 1855; And whereas it is expedient to extend the said powers: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. IT shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by notice to be published in the Government Gazette, to remit, vary, or alter (but so as never to exceed) for such time or times, and upon such terms and conditions as may be deemed necessary or advisable in that behalf, all or any of the dues in the schedule to the said recited Ordinance of 1855, in favor of any particular ship or vessel or of any number or class of such ships or vessels. And also, by notice as aforesaid, to permit the owners of any ship or vessel, or of any number or class of ships or vessels, for such time and upon such terms and conditions as afore-

Powers of Governor in Council as to the remission, alteration, or compounding for harbor dues.
