ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 1

An Ordinance for altering Collie Street, in the Town of Fremantle, and for extending the Limits of the 'Fremantle Building Allotment No. 451.'

[Assented to 18th November, 1861.]

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter the thoroughfare in the town of Fremantle, known as Collie-street, and to extend the boundaries of the piece of land in the said town known as the 'Fremantle Building Allotment No. 451': Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:—

Streets

1. That from and after this Ordinance shall come into operation all estate and right of property vested in the trustees of the town of Fremantle in and to all that part or portion of Collie-street, situate in the said town of Fremantle, described in the Schedule to this Ordinance shall cease and determine, and the extent and boundaries of the said street shall thenceforth be diminished by the said part or portion; and the whole of such part or portion shall be added to the piece of land in the said town of Fremantle, known as the 'Fremantle Building Allotment No. 451.'

A piece of land in Collie-street added to the Fremantle Lot 451

2. That the Surveyor-General shall cause to be entered and recorded in the permanent Record Book of the Survey Office a full and sufficient description of the part or portion of land described in the said Schedule, according to the quantity of land therein set forth, and such description shall be signed by the Governor in Executive Council.

Description to be entered in the Record Book in Survey Office

3. That the boundaries so entered and signed as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to be the true boundaries of the said building allotment, all former description thereof in any title deed or otherwise notwithstanding: And such Record Book or a certified copy of such entry to be made and issued on demand without fee, signed by the Surveyor-General, shall and may be taken in and be evidence of the boundaries of such building allotment in any suit or action affecting the same.

Description so entered to be the boundaries

4. That the owner or occupier of the said 'Fremantle Building Allotment No. 451' shall within six calendar months from the passing hereof erect and build along the outer boundary of the said part or portion of Collie-street adjoining to the said building allotment as aforesaid, a stone wall of the height, thickness and plan of the walls which have been erected in the said street; and if such owner or occupier shall neglect so to do within such time as aforesaid he or she shall be liable to a penalty of thirty pounds.

To erect wall within six months

5. That section A of 'The Shortening Ordinance, 1853,' shall be incorporated with and taken to form a part of this Ordinance to all intents and purposes, and in as full and ample a manner as if the said section had been introduced and fully set forth in this Ordinance.

Section A of Shortening Ordinance referred to

A. E. KENNEDY,
GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.
