

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

ANNO VICESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 14

An Ordinance to provide for the Extension of the Boundaries of the Town of Newcastle.

[Assented to 12th December, 1860.]

WHEREAS by a proclamation bearing date on or about the first day of October, 1860, under the hand of the Governor and the public seal, it is declared that certain lands therein mentioned and described situate in the Avon District shall form and be a town to be called the town of Newcastle; and whereas it is expedient to extend the boundaries of such town so as to include the piece or parcel of land specified in the Schedule to this Ordinance annexed, marked A, heretofore granted by the Crown in fee simple to one Charles Harper, and which will be materially benefited thereby: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:—

Preamble

1. That the piece or parcel of land specified in Schedule A annexed to this Ordinance shall form and be a part and portion of the said town of Newcastle for all local purposes connected with police, rating, assessments and town trusts, including the right of voting as town trustees and all other rights, privileges, obligations and liabilities usually appertaining, belonging or incident to towns in the said Colony; and the district comprehended within such piece or parcel of land shall cease to belong to or form a part of the country lands of the Colony in which it is situated; and the boundaries and description specified in the Schedule B to this Ordinance annexed which include the said first mentioned piece or parcel of land shall henceforth be and become the boundaries and description of the said town of Newcastle.

Land described in Schedule A to form part of Newcastle

Land in Schedule B to form town of Newcastle

2. That as regarding the lands specified in Schedule A and declared by this Ordinance to form a part and portion of the said town of Newcastle, the said Charles Harper, his heirs or assigns or any other person or persons claiming or to claim through, under or in trust for him,

No compensation to be claimed therefor

Streets

---

them or any or either of them, shall not claim or be entitled to any compensation on account or in consequence of such extension of boundaries as aforesaid or the obligations and liabilities arising therefrom and incident thereto.

A. E. KENNEDY,
GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

---

SCHEDULE A

All that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the Avon District containing ten acres, more or less, known as 'Avon Location No. 111,' bounded on the east by a line about two chains in length, extending south south-east from the left bank of the Avon River in a line with and towards the western boundary of Avon Location No. 110; on the south by a line about fifteen chains thirty-seven links in length, extending west south-west along the northern side of a public highway; on the west by a north north-west line about ten chains in length; on the north by a line about three chains thirty-eight links in length, extending east north-east to left bank aforesaid, and on the north-east by said left bank, all bearings and boundaries being magnetic or thereabouts; and a squared boundary mark being placed at each of the five corners of the location in the angle of meeting of short trenches dug in the ground in the direction of adjoining boundary lines.

---

SCHEDULE B

All that piece or parcel of land containing three hundred and eighty acres, more or less, known as the town of Newcastle, bounded on the west by a south south-east line along and in continuation of the east boundary of Avon Location No. 3; on the south by the north boundary of Avon Location V., the same being an east north-east line about seventy-three chains fifty links in length; on the east and north by the centre of the last run of the Avon River between the east end of the south boundary and the north end of the west boundary above described, all bearings here given being magnetic.

---