ANNO NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

---

No. IX.

An Ordinance for the remission of Duties on Wines, for the consumption of Regimental Officers, serving in Western Australia.

dated 23rd April 1848

WHEREAS certain Duties are imposed by Law upon all wines imported into this colony, and it is expedient to relieve Regimental Officers of her Majesty's Troops from the payment of such duties in certain cases;—Be it therefore enacted, by His Excellency, the Governor of Western Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof; that from and after the passing of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Governor, upon proof to His Excellency's satisfaction that any wines are imported into this colony, or purchased in bond, by or on behalf of Regimental Officers of Her Majesty's Troops serving in Western Australia, to remit or return, subject to such regulations as His Excellency may from time to time appoint, the duties payable or paid on such wines by any law in force within the colony. Provided that such wines be for the actual consumption of the said Officers, whether living in mess or otherwise; and provided also that the quantity of wine upon which a remission of duty shall be allowed, do not exceed in the whole the quantity of one pint per diem for each Officer.

ANDREW CLARKE,
GOVERNOR.
