ANNO QUARTO ET QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 16

An Act to repeal certain Acts relating to the Management of Roads, Streets and other Internal Communications, and enabling the Inhabitants of Townships to assess themselves for the Improvement of the Town.

[Assented to 23rd September, 1841.]

WHEREAS in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria an Act was passed intituled 'An Act to provide for the management of Roads, Streets and other internal Communications within the Settlement of Western Australia;' and whereas during the present session an Act was passed intituled 'An Act to continue for a limited time an Act to enable the inhabitants of any Township to assess themselves for the Improvement of the Town;' and whereas the laws relating to these subjects have been found to require alteration and amendment; and it is deemed necessary to provide for the improvement of towns by separate and distinct enactments from those applying to the general internal communications of the Colony; and with a view to the more perfect attainment of this end it has been deemed advisable that the laws now in force relating to these subjects should be repealed: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the Acts hereinbefore recited shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Preamble
1 Vic., No. 2,
and 4 & 5 Vic.,
No. 4, repealed

JOHN HUTT,
GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.
