

Western Australia.

ANNO SECUNDO

EDWARDI VII. REGIS.

No. II.

AN ACT to amend the Explosives Act, 1895.

[Assented to, 7th October, 1902.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. THIS Act may be cited as the Explosives Act Amendment Act, 1902, and shall be read as one with the Explosives Act, 1895, hereinafter referred to as the principal Act.

Short title.

2. THE Governor may from time to time appoint and remove sub-inspectors of explosives, and may assign to them their duties.

Government may appoint sub-inspectors.

A notification of every such appointment and removal shall be published in the Government Gazette.

2° EDWARDI VII., No. 2.

Explosives Act—Amendment.

Powers of sub-inspectors.

3. A SUB-INSPECTOR of explosives may, in the performance of the duties assigned to him, exercise all the powers of an inspector of explosives under the principal Act.

Inspectors may attend inquests and examine witnesses. See Explosives Act, 1875 (Impl.), s. 65.

4. ANY inspector or sub-inspector may attend any inquest on the bodies of persons whose death may have been caused by the explosion of any explosive, or by any accident in connection with an explosive, and shall be at liberty at any such inquest to examine any witness.

Amendment of 59 Vict., No. 38, s. 21.

5. SECTION twenty-one of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words "as he may fix from time to time not exceeding those in the Schedule," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "as are set forth in the Schedule."

Amendment of Schedule.

6. SO much of the Schedule to the principal Act as prescribes the maximum fees for licenses granted by the Treasurer is repealed, and the Schedule to this Act is substituted therefor.

In the name and on behalf of the King I hereby assent to this Act.

E. A. STONE, Administrator.
