[Section 24 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.9; No. 36 of 1988 s.5.]

Lump sum compensation for noise induced hearing loss

24A. (1) Subject to Schedule 7 and this section, a worker suffering from noise induced hearing loss shall be entitled to compensation for that loss under item 6 of the table set out in Schedule 2 if the worker so elects as provided by section 24B, but the compensation payable for that hearing loss shall, subject to the provisions of this Act relating to Schedule 2, be in accordance with the percentage ratio of the prescribed amount indicated in column 2 of the table set out in Schedule 2 in respect of item 6 at the date of the audiometric test under Schedule 7 that showed that a loss or diminution of the worker's hearing had been incurred, irrespective of when the worker so elects.

(2) A worker is entitled to compensation under this section only in respect of noise induced hearing loss incurred after the date on which this section comes into operation and —

- (a) in respect of the worker's first election under this section, where that noise induced hearing loss is at least a 10% loss of hearing; and

 - (i) where that noise induced hearing loss is at least a further 5% loss of hearing; or
 - (ii) where the worker has reached the age of 65 years or on the worker's retirement from work before that age, where that noise induced hearing loss is any further percentage of loss of hearing.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) operates to stop a worker who —

- (a) has retired from work before attaining the age of 65 years;
- (b) has made a successful election under subsection (2) (b) (ii); and
- (c) subsequently returns to work, from making an election under subsection (2) (b) in respect of further loss of hearing.

s. 24B

(4) A worker is not entitled to compensation under this section in respect of noise induced hearing loss incurred after the worker has attained the age of 65 years.

(2) A form of election referred to in subsection (1) is not binding upon a worker unless the Registrar is satisfied that it contains a statement in clear terms of the effect the election will have on the worker's future entitlements to compensation under this Act.

(3) If not satisfied in accordance with subsection (2), the Registrar shall within 7 days notify the employer and the worker accordingly.

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

(4) Subject to this Act, a worker who elects as provided by subsection (1) is entitled to continue to receive any weekly payments of compensation to which he or she is entitled until —

- (a) an agreement with respect to the election is registered under section 76; or
- (b) an order of the Board is made with respect to the amount of compensation payable pursuant to the election, whichever is sooner.

(5) Where a worker makes an election under subsection (1) for the purposes of section 24A, this Division shall apply as if the noise induced hearing loss in respect of which the election was made was a compensable personal injury by accident arising out of or in the course of the worker's employment and for that purpose a reference in this Division to the time or date of the personal injury by accident shall, in respect of compensable noise induced hearing loss, be construed as a reference to the date of the audiometric test under Schedule 7 that showed that a loss or diminution of the worker's hearing had been incurred.

[Section 24B inserted by No. 36 of 1988 s.6.]

“Loss of”

25. For the purpose of the table set out in Schedule 2, “loss of” includes — any part or faculty of the body referred to in column 1 of the table set out in Schedule 2 — and by subsequent compensable personal injury by accident suffers further loss of the full efficient use of — that part or faculty of the body —

the compensation payable under the provisions of that table in respect of each such subsequent injury shall be proportionate to any increase (resulting from that subsequent injury) in the percentage of loss of that full and efficient use, and the compensation payable shall be calculated at the rates applicable at the time of occurrence of each subsequent injury.

(2) Where a worker has received compensation payable under the provisions of that table for 100% of the loss of, or the permanent loss of the efficient use of, any part or faculty of the body referred to in column 1 of that table — whether in one payment for permanent total loss of, or permanent total loss of the efficient use of —

that part or faculty of the body — or in several payments, each of which has been made for a permanent partial loss of, or a permanent partial loss of the efficient use of — that part or faculty of the body, then and in such case, the worker is not entitled to any further payment under the provisions of that table in respect of that part or faculty.

Limit on compensation of worker electing

28.¹² A worker who elects under section 24B is not in any case (including the case of a worker suffering by the same accident more than one of the injuries mentioned in Schedule 2) entitled to more than the prescribed amount, in addition to payment of such expenses as are provided for in clauses 9, 17, 18, and 19 which clauses are hereby made applicable to each worker entitled to compensation under this Division until that worker so elects and an agreement is registered or an order of the Board is made with respect to the amount of compensation payable pursuant to the election.

[Section 28 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.13; No. 36 of 1988 s.7.]

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

s. 30

unless the worker elects under section 24B and an agreement is registered or an order of the Board is made with respect to the amount of compensation payable pursuant to the election.

[Section 29 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.14; No. 36 of 1988 s.8.]

When death is deemed disablement

40. The death of the worker is, if there has been no previous period of incapacity in respect of which the employer is or has been liable under this Division, deemed to be the disablement.

Last employer liable but may join others

41. (1) Subject to subsections (2), (3) and (4), the compensation is recoverable from the employer who last employed the worker during the period of one year mentioned in section 32, or, in the case of pneumoconiosis, mesothelioma, or lung cancer, who last employed the worker, in the employment to the nature of which the disease is, or was, due.

(2) The worker or his dependants shall, if so required, furnish that employer with such information as to the names and addresses of all the other employers who employed him in the employment during that period of one year, or in the case of pneumoconiosis, mesothelioma, or lung cancer, at any time previous to the date of disablement, as he or they may possess.

(4) If the disease is of such a nature as to be contracted by a gradual process, any other employers who during that period of one year, or in the case of pneumoconiosis, mesothelioma, or lung cancer, at any time previous to the date of disablement, employed the worker in the employment to the nature of which the disease was due shall be liable to make to the employer from whom compensation is recoverable such contributions as, in default of agreement, may be determined in proceedings under this Act for settling the amount of the compensation.

Employer to whom notice to be given

43. The employer to whom notice of the disablement is to be given is the employer from whom compensation is recoverable under section 41 (1) and that notice may be given notwithstanding that the worker has voluntarily left the employment of that employer.

s. 44

Disease deemed due to nature of employment

44. If the worker at or immediately before the disablement was employed in any process mentioned in column 2 of Schedule 3 and produces a certificate from a medical practitioner that the disease contracted is the disease or one of the diseases in column 1 set opposite the description of the process, such disease shall be deemed to have been due to the nature of the employment, unless the employer proves the contrary.

Additions to Schedule 3

45. (1) The Governor may, by Order in Council published in the Gazette, declare that any other disease or process or disease and process shall be included in Schedule 3.

Compensation limited to prescribed amount

46. (1) Notwithstanding any provisions of the Mine Workers' Relief Act 1932 or any other provisions of this Act, the compensation payable to a worker in respect of any period or periods of total or partial incapacity due, or deemed due, solely to pneumoconiosis, arising, or deemed to arise, out of or in the course of employment in a process, described in column 2 of Schedule 3 as any process entailing exposure to mineral dusts harmful to the lungs, or to that disease in combination with any other disease, shall not in any case exceed the prescribed amount; and the provisions of this section shall apply whether the period or periods of incapacity occur or result while the worker is employed by the same employer or by different, successive employers.

(2) A worker who has received the full amount of compensation — that was the maximum amount of his employer's liability to him under this Act, as it existed at the time of the payment, in respect of pneumoconiosis or that disease in combination with any other disease, and who is subsequently employed in any process entailing exposure to mineral dusts harmful to the lungs, shall not in any circumstances be entitled to further compensation or benefit for any period of incapacity due to pneumoconiosis, or to that disease in combination with any other disease.

and the employer is indemnified by a policy of insurance against his liability to pay the compensation claimed.

(2) Where, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1), an employer fails to make a claim under and in accordance with his policy of insurance before the expiration of 3 full working days of his insurer after the day on which the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1) arose or, where the making of a claim within that time would not be reasonably practicable, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the insurer may, in a Local Court, sue and recover from the employer, as a debt due, any amount that, under the policy of insurance, he is liable to pay by way of indemnity in respect of the first 3 working days for which weekly payments are claimed by the worker and section 192 does not apply in relation to the action.

(6) On an application under subsection (5) the Board in chambers may determine the entitlement that the worker would have but for the operation of subsection (5), and thereupon the entitlement of the worker is as so determined by the Board but without affecting his entitlement under subsection (5) in respect of the period before that determination.

(2) Where the employer liable to pay compensation or his insurer so requests, the worker shall supply particulars of the date he commenced employment, the wage, salary or other remuneration payable to him and any other particulars that may have a bearing upon the worker's right to continue to receive compensation or as to the amount thereof.

(3) The employer liable to pay compensation or his insurer shall notify the worker of his obligations under this section.

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

s. 60

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a worker who fails to comply with his obligations under this section commits an offence.

(5) A person shall not be convicted of an offence against subsection (1) unless it is proven that the employer liable to pay compensation or his insurer has complied with subsection (3) before the alleged offence was committed.

Application for discontinuance or reduction of weekly payments

60. (1) Where weekly payments are made to a worker pursuant to this Division, the employer may apply to the Board at any time for an order that such payments be discontinued or reduced.

(2) If the employer satisfies the Board that there is a genuine dispute as to liability to pay compensation or as to the proper amount of such weekly payments, and in either case of the grounds of the dispute, the Board may order that the payments be suspended for such time as the Board directs or be discontinued or be reduced to such amount as it thinks proper or it may dismiss the application.

(3) Such an application shall be heard and determined as an application in chambers with the right of both parties to be heard.

[Section 60 amended by No. 96 of 1990 s.10.]

Unlawful discontinuance of weekly payments

61.¹⁴ (1) Subject to subsections (7) and section 84, where weekly payments of compensation for total or partial incapacity are made to a worker under this Act, they shall not be discontinued or diminished without the consent of the worker or an order of the Board unless the worker has returned to work or a medical practitioner has certified that the worker has wholly or partially recovered or that the incapacity is no longer a result of the disability and a copy of the certificate (which shall set out the grounds of the opinion of the medical practitioner) together with at least 21 clear days' prior notice of the intention of the employer to discontinue the weekly payments or to diminish them by such amount as is stated in the notice, has been served by the employer upon the worker and unless within that period the worker has not made an application to the Board under subsection (3).

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

(2) Weekly payments of compensation for total or partial incapacity shall not be discontinued or reduced pursuant to subsection (1) unless the notice referred to in that subsection contains a clear statement —

- (a) informing the worker of the effect of failing to make an application under subsection (3) within the time referred to therein;
- (b) informing the worker that he may obtain information from the Commission as to the ways and means available to him to establish or protect his rights in respect of his disability; and
- (c) containing such other information as may be prescribed.

(3) A worker who disputes the right of his employer to discontinue or diminish the weekly payments referred to in subsection (1) may, within the period of notice given under that subsection or, if the employer fails to give the notice required under that subsection, within the period of 21 days or such further time as the Board may allow from the day on which the weekly payments were discontinued or diminished, apply to the Board for an order that the weekly payment shall not be discontinued or diminished and the application shall be heard and determined as an application in chambers with the right of both parties to be heard.

Subst 72/92

- (c) make an order as to weekly payments by the employer to the worker on such terms as it thinks fit.

(4a) Upon the hearing of an application referred to in subsection (3) the Board —

- (a) may, where the case requires, take into account whether reasonable steps to facilitate the rehabilitation of the worker have been taken on the part of the employer and of the worker, and for the purposes of determining the application, accordingly treat the worker's incapacity as being of such degree as it sees fit; and
- (b) shall, where the case requires, take into account matters referred to in clause 8.

(5) Subject to subsections (7), weekly payments shall not be discontinued or diminished otherwise than in accordance with this Act.

Penalty: $500.

(6) A conviction for an offence that is a contravention of subsection (5) shall not affect any liability for the making of weekly payments of compensation under this Act.

(7) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a discontinuance of payments —

- (a) on payment in full of the prescribed amount;

- (b) if section 56 or Schedule 5 clause 2 applies in respect of the incapacity, on the worker reaching the age at which his entitlement to compensation ceases; or
- (c) on suspension of payments in accordance with section 64, 65, 70, or 72; or
- (d) on failure to comply with section 69 by a worker who does not reside in the State.

[Section 61 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.20; No. 96 of 1990 s.11.]

Review of weekly payments

62(i). Any weekly payment may be reviewed by the Board at the request either of the employer or of the worker, and on such review, may be discontinued, reduced, or increased subject to any maximum provided, as from such date as the Board, having regard to the past or present condition of the worker, sees fit.

[Section 62 amended by No. 96 of 1990 s.12.]

No compensation during suspension

63. Where under this Act a right to compensation is lawfully suspended, no compensation is payable in respect of the period of suspension unless the Board otherwise orders.

Medical examinations

64. Where a worker has given notice of a disability he shall, if so required by the employer, submit himself for examination by a medical practitioner provided and paid by the employer, and, if he, without reasonable excuse, proof of which is on him, refuses to submit himself to such an examination, or in any way obstructs it, his right to compensation, and to take or prosecute any proceeding under this Act shall be suspended until such an examination has taken place, and shall cease unless he submits himself for examination within one month after being required to do so.

s. 65

Periodical medical examination

65. Any worker receiving weekly payments under this Act shall, if so required by the employer, from time to time submit himself for examination by a medical practitioner provided and paid by the employer, and if he, without reasonable excuse, proof of which is on him, refuses to submit himself to such an examination, or in any way obstructs it, his right to such weekly payments shall be suspended until such examination has taken place, and shall cease unless he submits himself for examination within one month after being required to do so.

Regulations as to medical examination

66. A worker shall not be required to submit himself for examination by a medical practitioner under section 64 or 65 otherwise than in accordance with the regulations, nor at more frequent intervals than are prescribed.

Lump sum in redemption of weekly payments

67. (1) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing agreements for the redemption of a liability for incapacity being made and registered pursuant to Division 7.

(2) Where permanent total or permanent partial incapacity has resulted from a disability other than mesothelioma and any weekly payment has been continued for not less than 6 months, the liability for the incapacity may, on application by or on behalf of the employer or the worker, be redeemed by the payment of a lump sum to be settled, in default of agreement, by the Board, and such lump sum may be ordered by the Board to be paid to or invested or otherwise applied for the benefit of the person entitled to the lump sum.

(3) On exercising the jurisdiction to order redemption by payment of a lump sum under subsection (2) on the application of a worker, the Board shall be satisfied that the worker has special need of the lump sum instead of the continuance of the weekly payments and other benefits or that any other circumstances of the case justify making an order for that redemption and, where the Board has ordered that the total liability of the employer in respect of weekly payments shall exceed the prescribed amount, the Board shall be satisfied that the employer consents to redemption by way of a lump sum, the intention being that an order for redemption shall be made not as a matter of course but only when the special circumstances of the case commend themselves to the Board as justifying the making of an order for redemption.

(4) Where permanent incapacity has resulted from mesothelioma and any weekly payment has been made, or the worker is entitled to any weekly payment, the liability for the incapacity shall, on the application of the worker, be redeemed by the payment of a lump sum to be settled, in default of agreement, by the Board, and such lump sum may be ordered by the Board to be paid to or invested or otherwise applied for the benefit of the person entitled to the lump sum.

(5) Where the Board orders redemption of the liability to pay compensation by payment of a lump sum under this section, or an agreement for the redemption of a liability for incapacity is made and registered under Division 7 —

- (a) the worker is not entitled to further compensation;
and
- (b) clauses 9, 10, 17, 18, and 19 cease to apply to the worker, for the disability from which the incapacity resulted.

[Section 67 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.21.]

Calculation of lump sum

68. (1) When the Board orders redemption as provided in section 67 (2) and (3) and the Board has not ordered that the total liability of the employer in respect of weekly payments shall exceed the prescribed amount, the lump sum shall be calculated by taking the amount that is equal to —

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

s. 68

- (a) the then prescribed amount less the amount of weekly payments made; or
- (b) if section 56 or Schedule 5 clause 2 applies in respect of the incapacity, the weekly payments at the rate to which he is entitled at the date of the order for the period from that date to the date when the weekly payments would cease by reason of age, whichever is the less, and discounting that amount so taken in accordance with a compound discount table prescribed by regulations.

(2) When the Board orders redemption as provided in section 67 (2) and (3) and the Board has ordered that total liability of the employer in respect of weekly payments shall exceed the prescribed amount, the lump sum shall be calculated by taking the amount that is equal to the total amount of the liability so ordered less the amount of weekly payments made and discounting the amount so taken in accordance with a compound discount table prescribed by regulations.

(3) When the Board orders redemption as provided in section 67 (4), the lump sum shall be calculated by taking the amount that is equal to the prescribed amount less weekly payments, if any, made and discounting the amount so taken in accordance with a compound discount table prescribed by regulations.

(4) A reference in this section to “a compound discount table” shall be construed as including a reference to any formula or formulae prescribed for use in conjunction with such a compound discount table.

[Section 68 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.22.]

Worker not residing in the State

69. Subject to this Act, if a worker receiving a weekly payment does not reside in the State he is entitled to receive the amount of the weekly payments accruing due so long as he proves, in such a manner and at such intervals as may be prescribed, his identity and the continuance of the incapacity in respect of which the weekly payment is payable.

Reference to medical panel

70. (1) Where pursuant to section 64 or 65 a worker has submitted himself for examination by a medical practitioner, or has been examined by a medical practitioner selected by himself, the employer or the worker, as the case may be, shall within 14 days after such examination furnish the other with a copy of the report of that practitioner as to the worker's medical condition, and, after the copy of the report is so furnished, in the event of no agreement being reached between the employer and the worker as to the worker's medical condition the Chairman of the Board on application being made, in the manner prescribed, by either party, may, on payment by the applicant of such fee as is prescribed, refer the matter to a medical panel constituted as under section 145.

(2) The party who desires the reference of a matter to a medical panel shall make the application within one month after the date of the receipt by him of a copy of the medical report furnished to him by the other party.

(3) The medical panel to whom the matter is so referred shall, in such manner as is prescribed, give a certificate as to the medical condition of the worker and that certificate is conclusive evidence as to the matters so certified.

(4) Where no agreement can be reached between the employer and the worker as to whether the disability is a fresh disability or the recurrence of an old disability or whether or to what extent the incapacity of the worker is due to the disability, this section, subject to any regulations, applies as if the question were a question as to the medical condition of the worker.

s. 70

(5) If a worker, on being required to do so, refuses without reasonable excuse, proof of which is on him, to submit himself for examination by a medical panel to whom the matter has been so referred or in any way obstructs the examination, his right to compensation or to take or prosecute any proceeding under this Act or, in the case of a worker in receipt of a weekly payment, his right to that weekly payment, is suspended until such an examination has taken place.

(6) Where, following such examinations and tests as may be required by the medical panel, the panel recommends that the worker undergo rehabilitation or specialist or other treatment, the worker shall, if required by his employer to do so, undergo rehabilitation or specialist or other treatment as recommended by the medical panel, and the employer shall be liable for the full cost of the rehabilitation or specialist or other treatment and for necessary charges incurred in connection therewith.

(7) A worker required under subsection (6) to undergo rehabilitation or specialist or other treatment may select the person to provide the rehabilitation or the person to provide the specialist or other treatment but —

- (a) a person to provide vocational rehabilitation shall be selected from amongst approved rehabilitation providers;

and

- (b) a person to provide specialist treatment shall be selected from specialists whose names appear on the Register of Specialists maintained under section 146.

(8) The recommendation of a medical panel and its prognosis shall be made available by the panel to the worker and the employer and shall be made available —

- (a) by the worker, to a person providing his rehabilitation or providing him with specialist or other treatment as required under subsection (6);

and

- (b) by the employer, if he holds a policy of insurance against his liability to pay compensation under this Act, to his insurer.

(9) If a worker, on being required under subsection (6) to undergo rehabilitation or specialist or other treatment, fails, without reasonable excuse, proof of which is on him, to comply with the requirement, his right to compensation or to take or prosecute any proceedings under this Act shall be suspended until he complies with the requirement.

[Section 70 amended by No. 86 of 1986 s.5; No. 96 of 1990 s.13.]

Recovery of payments

71. Where the Commission, an employer, or an insurer has paid compensation or expenses to a worker or dependant and that person was not lawfully entitled to that payment or to any part of the amount of that payment, the Commission, employer, or insurer, as the case may be, may apply to the Board for an order that compensation or expenses so paid be refunded, and the Board has jurisdiction to hear and determine such an application and to make any order in relation thereto or any part thereof as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Suspension of payments

72. (1) A worker's entitlement to weekly payments of compensation under this Act is suspended —

- (a) during any period that the worker is serving a sentence of imprisonment; and

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

s. 72

(b) during any period that the worker being required by the Board to undergo rehabilitation as specified by the Board —

(i) refuses to do so;

(ii) ceases to do so before so authorized by the person providing the rehabilitation;

or

(iii) does not, in the opinion of a medical practitioner to whom the Commission has, on the recommendation of a rehabilitation provider, referred the matter, reasonably co-operate in, or regularly attend for, such vocational rehabilitation.

(2) The worker's entitlement to compensation is suspended from the date on which the Registrar certifies in writing to the existence of any ground for suspension specified in subsection (1) until the date from which he certifies that ground for suspension no longer exists.

(3) A certificate of the Registrar issued pursuant to subsection (2) is binding on the worker, the employer, and his insurer but may be reviewed by the Board on the application of any one of the parties.

(4) Where the ground for suspension is a ground specified in subsection (1) (b) and that ground continues to exist for one month from the date of the Registrar's certificate of its existence or such time as the Board otherwise directs, then the worker's entitlement to further compensation for the disability in respect of which he was required to undergo rehabilitation ceases.

[Section 72D inserted by No. 96 of 1990 s.15.]

Division 6 — Disputes Between Employers

Worker entitled but dispute between employers

73. (1) Where there is a dispute between employers as to liability but no dispute that the worker is entitled to compensation from some employer for a fresh disability or the recurrence of an old disability the employer of the worker at the time of the latest disability or recurrence is liable to pay compensation under this Act until the Board has determined that some other employer is liable or how liability is to be apportioned between employers.

(2) The worker or his dependants, if so required by the employer first liable to pay compensation, shall furnish to him the name and address of any employer in whose employment the worker was when any like disability previously occurred, as he or they may possess.

(3) If the worker has filed an application for compensation, the respondent employer shall join as a party any other employer whom he alleges is wholly or partially liable to pay the compensation.

(4) If the worker has not filed an application the employer first liable to pay compensation may make an application to the Board, in accordance with the rules, for an order that some other employer is wholly or partially liable to pay compensation.

(5) If the Board finds that it was a recurrence and not a fresh disability or partly a recurrence and partly a fresh disability, it may order that other employer to pay to the applicant employer the whole or a part of the amount of compensation paid to the worker and to pay any further compensation to which the worker is entitled.

(6) If the dispute between employers is in respect of liability to pay compensation for noise induced hearing loss under section 24A, the Commission shall provide the Board with copies of the results of any relevant audiometric tests stored by the Commission under clause 5 (2) of Schedule 7.

Dispute between insurers

74.¹⁵ (1) Where a worker is entitled to compensation for a fresh disability or the recurrence of an old disability from an employer but there is a dispute between insurers as to liability to indemnify that employer, the insurer of the employer of the worker at the time of the latest disability or recurrence is liable to indemnify the employer until the Board has otherwise determined.

(1a) An employer or insurer may make an application to the Board, in accordance with the rules, to determine a dispute between insurers notwithstanding any term or condition of any policy of insurance providing for some other means of settling disputes.

s. 74A

(2) The Board shall determine which insurer is liable or how liability is to be apportioned and may make such order as it thinks proper for the reimbursement of one insurer by another and for the indemnity of the employer in respect of his liability under this Act.

[Section 74 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.23; No. 96 of 1990 s.17.]

Apportionment under sections 73 and 74

74A. Liability shall not be so apportioned under section 73 or 74 that part of the liability to pay compensation, or indemnify an employer in respect of compensation, relates to a disability that occurred before the commencement of section 16 of the *Workers' Compensation and Assistance Amendment Act 1990*¹.

[Section 74A inserted by No. 96 of 1990 s.18.]

Obligation to make weekly payments preserved

75. Where an employer is liable under section 73 (1) to pay compensation under this Act, neither that employer nor his insurer shall give notification under section 57A (3) (b) or (c) or 57B (2) (b) or (c) in respect of weekly payments claimed, but nothing in this section affects the right to make an application under section 73 (4) in relation to the matter.

[Section 75 inserted by No. 96 of 1990 s.19.]

Division 7 — Agreements

Registration of memorandum of agreement

76. (1) Subject to section 92 (h), where the amount of compensation under this Act has been ascertained, or any weekly payment varied, or any other matter decided under this Act by agreement, or any agreement, whether purporting to be made under this Act or not, has been entered into whereby a worker agrees to compound any claim or right to compensation under this Act, a memorandum thereof shall be sent, in manner prescribed, by any party interested, to the Registrar, who shall, on being satisfied as to its genuineness, and, where the agreement provides for the payment of compensation or other moneys, as to the adequacy of the amount thereof, record such memorandum in a special register without fee, and thereupon the memorandum shall for all purposes be enforceable as an award or order made by the Board.

(2) No such memorandum shall be recorded before 7 days after the despatch by the Registrar of notice to the parties interested.

(3) No agreement between a worker and an employer has any force or validity if it exempts the employer wholly or partially from any liability for compensation to which the worker is or may subsequently become entitled under this Act, and notwithstanding any such agreement, a worker may recover from his employer any compensation to which he is, or subsequently becomes, so entitled, but the foregoing provisions of this subsection have no application to agreements for the redemption of the liability to pay compensation for a disability duly recorded under this section.

(4) Where a worker seeks to record a memorandum of agreement between his employer and himself for the payment of compensation under this Act, and the employer proves that the worker has in fact returned to work and is no longer incapacitated, and objects to the recording of such memorandum, the memorandum shall only be recorded, if at all, on such terms as the Board, under the circumstances, may think just.

(5) The Board may at any time rectify the register.

(6) Upon receipt of a memorandum for registration, the Registrar shall examine it in order to satisfy himself as to the genuineness of the agreement and as to the adequacy of the amount of any compensation or other moneys payable thereunder, and if it appears to the Registrar as the result of such examination or as the result of any information which he considers sufficient that an agreement as to the redemption of the liability to pay compensation by a lump sum or an agreement as to the amount of compensation payable to the worker or to a person under any legal disability or to dependants, ought not to be registered by reason of the agreement having been obtained by fraud or undue influence or other improper means, or by reason that the amount of compensation payable under the agreement is inadequate or excessive, he shall refuse to record the memorandum of the agreement sent to him for registration, and in that case shall refer the matter to the Board, which shall make such order (including an order as to any sum already paid under the agreement) as under the circumstances the Board thinks just.

(7) For the purpose of carrying out his duties under subsection (6) the Registrar may, by notice in writing, require the attendance before him of the parties to the agreement and interrogate them in relation to the agreement and where the medical opinion of a medical practitioner is material and relevant to the question of the adequacy of the amount of compensation payable under the agreement, the Registrar may require the employer to have the worker examined by a medical practitioner nominated by the Registrar, at the expense of the employer, in any case where the Registrar is of the opinion that a report from such medical practitioner will assist him in determining the matter of the adequacy or inadequacy of the amount of the compensation.

(8) The Board may, upon application being made by either party within 6 months after a memorandum of an agreement as to the redemption of the liability to pay compensation for a disability by a lump sum, or of an agreement as to the amount of compensation payable to a person under any legal disability, or to dependants, has been recorded in the register, order that the record be removed from the register on proof to the Board's satisfaction that the agreement was obtained by fraud or undue influence or other improper means, or that the amount of compensation payable under the agreement is inadequate or excessive, and may make such order (including an order as to any sum already paid under the agreement) as under the circumstances the Board thinks just.

(9) Where a memorandum has been recorded under this section the Registrar shall without fee issue a certificate of the memorandum and the recording on application by any party concerned.

(10) Subject to this Act the certificate is evidence of the subject matter referred to in the certificate before any court or other tribunal or person in respect of proceedings to enforce compliance with the subject matter of the memorandum and for all other purposes under this Act.

Registration obligatory

77. An agreement to which section 76 is applicable shall not be binding on or enforceable against the parties or admitted as valid unless it is registered as provided in this Division.

Effect of non-registration of agreement

78. An agreement as to the redemption of the liability to pay compensation for a disability by a lump sum if not registered in accordance with this Act does not, nor does the payment of the sum payable under the agreement exempt the person by whom the compensation is payable from liability to continue to pay it; and an agreement as to the amount of compensation to be paid to a person under legal disability or to dependants, if not so registered, does not, nor does the payment of the sum payable under the agreement, exempt the person by whom the compensation is payable from liability to pay compensation.

s. 79

Division 8 — Other Matters Affecting Compensation

Wilful and false representation

79. Where it is proved that the worker has, at the time of seeking or entering employment in respect of which he claims compensation for a disability, wilfully and falsely represented himself as not having previously suffered from the disability the Board may in its discretion refuse to award compensation which otherwise would be payable.

Effect on annual leave, long service leave and sick leave

80. (1) Compensation is payable in accordance with this Act to a worker in respect of any period of incapacity notwithstanding that the worker has received or is entitled to receive in respect of such period any payment, allowance, or benefit for annual leave or long service leave under any Act of the Commonwealth or of the State, any industrial award or industrial agreement under any such Act, or any other industrial agreement applicable to his employment, and the amount of compensation so payable shall be the amount which would have been payable to the worker had he not received or been entitled to receive in respect of such period any such payment, allowance, or benefit.

(2) A worker is not entitled to receive from any employer payments for sick leave entitlements for any period for which he receives weekly payments of compensation for disability under this Act, and where the first-mentioned payments are made and the second-mentioned payments are subsequently made in respect of the same period, the worker shall reimburse to the employer the first-mentioned payments and the employer shall reinstate the worker's sick leave entitlements as a credit to the extent that the worker does so reimburse the employer.

(3) To the extent, if any, that a worker fails to reimburse an employer as required by subsection (2), the employer may sue and recover the relevant amount, and to the extent of recovery the employer shall reinstate as a credit the sick leave entitlements.

Effect on public holidays pay

81. Notwithstanding any provision that applies to or in relation to the employment of a worker apart from this Act, where during any period in respect of which weekly payments are payable pursuant to this Act a public holiday occurs, an employer shall not be liable to make any payment to the worker in respect of that holiday other than payment for that day as a part of those weekly payments.

Recovery of cost of services rendered

82. Where a person or authority has rendered to or provided for a worker any services for the cost of which the employer is liable to pay to the worker under this Act —

- (a) the employer may pay to that person or authority the whole or any part of the amount owing to him or it and such a payment shall, to the extent of the amount paid, be a discharge of the liability of the employer to the worker under this Act and of the liability of the worker to that person or authority for the services; and
- (b) if the whole or any part of the amount owing to that person or authority is not paid he or it has, in respect thereof, the same rights and remedies against the employer as the worker has.

s. 83

Industrial award and partial incapacity

83. (1) Notwithstanding any industrial award or industrial agreement, other than any award or certified agreement made under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904^s of the Commonwealth, where a worker is disabled from earning full wages by reason of a disability for which compensation is or has been payable under this Act, he may be employed at such wage, being such proportion of the full wage for work in the same employment, as he and the employer may agree as being appropriate to his earning capacity having regard to the nature and extent of his disability.

(2) In default of agreement as to the appropriate proportion in any case that proportion may be determined by the Board.

Worker not to be prejudiced by resuming work

84. Where a worker who has been incapacitated by disability resumes or attempts to resume work, and is unable, on account of the disability, to work or continue to work, the resumption or attempted resumption of work by him shall not deprive him of any entitlement to compensation under this Act which he otherwise had.

PART IV — CIVIL PROCEEDINGS IN ADDITION TO OR INDEPENDENT OF THIS ACT

Saving — motor vehicle cases

85. Nothing in this Part affects the operation of sections 29 and 29A of the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943, and this Part shall be read subject to those sections of that Act.

Saving — independent liability

86. Except as expressly provided by this Act, nothing in this Act affects any liability that exists independently of this Act.

Notice to worker to commence action

87. Where a worker has received compensation under this Act, if, after the expiration of 12 months from the date on which he received, or, as the case may be, first received, payment of compensation, the worker has not commenced proceedings against the employer for the recovery of damages independently of this Act, the employer may, by notice in writing, require the worker to commence those proceedings, within 42 days after the service on him of the notice and, unless the worker, within that period —

- (a) commences those proceedings; or
- (b) notifies the employer, by notice in writing, that he does not intend to take proceedings for damages, the employer may apply to the District Court, in the manner provided by Rules of Court, for an order that the worker commence those proceedings within such time as the court may direct.

s. 88

Order by District Court

88. Upon the hearing of an application under section 87, the District Court may —

- (a) order that the worker commence proceedings for damages independently of this Act, within such time as it may direct;
- (b) adjourn the proceedings for such period or indefinitely (with liberty to either party to apply), upon such terms and conditions as it thinks fit; or
- (c) make such other order or give such directions as it thinks fit, and upon the hearing of any adjourned application the court has the same powers with regard to that application as it has on an original application.

District Court's powers

89. The District Court has power to extend any period limited for the commencement of proceedings by an order made under section 88, if the application for the extension is made prior to the expiration of that period.

Worker's right extinguished

90. Where the worker agrees in writing with his employer or the insurer or notifies the employer that he does not intend to take proceedings for damages independently of this Act or does not commence those proceedings within the period, or any extension of the period, limited by an order of the District Court, his right to take those proceedings is, without affecting his right to compensation under this Act, extinguished.

Where action brought for injury for which compensation is payable under this Act

91. If an action is brought to recover damages independently of this Act, and it is determined in such action that the disability is one for which the employer is not liable in such action, but that he would have been liable to pay compensation under this Act, the court in which the action is tried shall assess that compensation, or refer the assessment of the compensation to the Board, and shall deduct from that compensation all the costs which have been caused by the plaintiff bringing the action, instead of taking proceedings under this Act, and shall enter judgment accordingly.

Both damages and compensation not recoverable

92. Where in respect of a disability an action is brought by a worker for damages independently of this Act against his employer or against some other person (referred to in this section as "the defendant") or against both of them —

- (a) if the court decides the action should succeed, then after damages have been ascertained but before judgment is entered for the worker in the action, the worker shall be given a reasonable opportunity to elect whether to have judgment or to discontinue the action;
- (b) if the action proceeds to judgment, including the acceptance of an offer to consent to judgment, against the employer only or against the employer and the defendant, there shall be deducted from the amount of the judgment and be paid to the employer a sum representing the amount (after apportionment in respect of any contributory negligence of the worker) actually recoverable by the worker by way of weekly or lump sum compensation, medical and other expenses paid pursuant to this Act, but where liability is apportioned between the employer and the defendant the defendant's liability to pay to the worker shall be reduced accordingly;

s. 92

- (c) if the action proceeds to judgment, including the acceptance of an offer to consent to judgment, against the defendant only or is settled by the acceptance of money paid into court by the defendant, the payments and expenses referred to in paragraph (b) shall be a first charge on the judgment or the amount of money paid into court and the defendant shall be bound to pay the amount of the compensation, and medical and other expenses to the employer and the judgment shall be pro tanto discharged by such payment, or the amount due under the charge shall be paid out of court to the employer or his authorized agent, as the case may be;
- (d) if the action is discontinued the worker shall pay the costs of the employer or of the defendant or of each of them or such part of those costs as the court thinks fit;
- (e) if the action proceeds to judgment, including the acceptance of an offer to consent to judgment, against the employer or the defendant or both or is settled by the acceptance of money paid into court by the employer or the defendant or by both of them, the worker shall not commence or continue proceedings for, or in relation to, compensation under this Act in respect of the same disability;
- (f) if a worker's claim for damages against the employer or the defendant is settled by agreement otherwise than by a judgment, an acceptance of an offer to consent to judgment, or an acceptance of money paid into court —
 - (i) the employer or the defendant shall file a memorandum of the terms of the settlement with the Board within 3 months of the date of its execution by the worker;

- (ii) the worker shall not commence or continue a claim for compensation under this Act in respect of the same disability unless the Registrar disapproves of the settlement within 6 weeks of the agreement for settlement being filed with the Board;
- (iii) the Registrar shall not disapprove of the agreement unless he is satisfied the agreement was induced by fraud or misrepresentation or that it would clearly be for the worker's benefit to disapprove of it;
- (iv) the Registrar if he disapproves of the settlement shall serve notice in writing of his disapproval on each of the parties to the settlement of his decision and of the reasons for his disapproval by pre-paid post to the address of the party set out in the settlement or the last known address of a party, within 14 days of the making of his decision;
- (g) where a claim for compensation is commenced or continued after the Registrar disapproves of a settlement referred to in paragraph (f), the amount recovered or recoverable under such settlement shall be brought into account in reduction of the worker's entitlement to compensation;
- (h) Part III Division 7 does not apply to an agreement for settlement referred to in this section.

Remedies against stranger

93. (1) Where the disability for which compensation is payable under this Act was caused under circumstances creating a legal liability in some person other than the employer to pay

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

s. 93

damages in respect thereof but neither the employer nor any person for whose negligence the employer is legally responsible was negligent —

- (a) the worker may take proceedings both against that person to recover damages and against any person liable to pay compensation under this Act for such compensation, but shall not be entitled to recover both damages and compensation and shall bring to account in reduction of his entitlement to compensation the amount recovered by way of damages;
- (b) the employer is entitled to be indemnified by the person whose negligence caused the disability to the worker (in this section called “the defendant”) to the full extent of the employer’s liability to pay compensation under this Act, whether or not the defendant has discharged his liability to pay damages to the worker by judgment or by settlement or otherwise.

(2) If there were —

- (a) negligence by the employer or by some person for whose negligence the employer is legally responsible which caused or contributed to the worker’s disability, the extent of the indemnity of the employer by the defendant is reduced by the proportion that the employer’s negligence and that of any person for whose negligence the employer is responsible bears to 100%; or
- (b) negligence by the worker which caused or contributed to the worker’s disability, the extent of the indemnity of the employer by the defendant is reduced by the proportion that the worker’s negligence bears to 100%.

(3) All question as to the right or amount of any such indemnity may, in default of agreement between the employer and the defendant, at the instance of the employer, be determined by the Board in any action brought by the worker before the Board.

(4) If the defendant has paid the whole or any part of the damages to the worker in respect of the disability caused or contributed to by the defendant and the defendant is required to and has indemnified the employer for the payment of any compensation paid to the worker in respect of the same disability, the defendant may sue and recover from the worker the amount so paid to the employer not exceeding the amount of damages paid to the worker by the defendant.

(5) If the worker has been successful in proceedings to recover damages against the defendant and does not recover the full amount of such damages and any portion of the compensation under this Act paid by the employer to the worker has not been refunded to the employer out of the damages, then the employer may, at his own expense and in the name of the worker and upon giving the worker an indemnity against all costs and expenses, sue and recover from the defendant the amount of any balance of such damages then remaining unpaid, but any damages so recovered from the defendant in excess of the amount of compensation paid to the worker under this Act shall be payable to and received by the worker.

Exempt employer

164. (1) Notwithstanding section 160 if an employer or group of employers has deposited at the Treasury securities approved by the Commission that are charged with all payments to become due under the employer's or group's liability for which insurance would, if there were no exemption, be required by this Act, the Governor may exempt such employer or group from the obligation to insure pursuant to this Act except for the obligation to insure against liability to pay compensation under this Act for any industrial disease of the kinds referred to in section 151 (a) (iii).

(1a) In deciding whether an exemption should be given under subsection (1), regard may be had to the number of workers employed and the category of the insurable risks of the business or businesses of the employer or group, whether the employer or group has established a fund for insurance against liability for which insurance would, if there were no exemption, be required by this Act, and the material and financial resources available in the State to the employer, or each employer of the group, to comply with the requirements of this Act or the *Employers' Indemnity Supplementation Fund Act 1980*²³.

(2) An exemption granted under section 13 of the repealed Act and current immediately before the day on which this Part comes into operation is deemed to be an exemption granted under this Part and subject to review as provided by section 165.

- (c) the claims experience since the last review of the employer or group; or
- (d) any change in the extent of the liability to pay compensation under this Act since the last review.

(3) The Minister may after a review recommend to the Governor that an exemption be cancelled —

- (a) for any reason which seems to him to justify doing so in the interests of securing the workers' entitlements to compensation; or

- (b) because of a failure to deposit at the Treasury any securities directed by the Minister to be deposited under subsection (4) (b), and the Governor may then cancel the exemption.

(4) Where —

- (a) under subsection (2) the Minister permits a decrease in the value of the securities deposited at the Treasury by an employer or group of employers the Minister may order that those securities no longer required to be deposited at the Treasury be discharged from the charge and returned to the employer or the group, as the case may be;
- (b) the Minister requires an increase in the value of securities deposited by an employer or group of employers —

 - (ii) the Minister may direct that the securities deposited at the Treasury by that employer or group of employers be discharged from the charge and returned to the employer or group and that the employer or group deposit at the Treasury further securities to the value determined by the Minister charged with all payments to become due under the employer's or group's liability under this Act.

[Section 165 amended by No. 44 of 1985 s.36; No. 96 of 1990 s.40.]

s. 166

166. Where an employer who is exempt, or who is one of a group of employers who is exempt, under section 164, fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this Act or the *Employers' Indemnity Supplementation Fund Act 1980*²³, the Governor may cancel the exemption of or in respect of that employer.

Effect of cessation of exemption

167. Each employer including a member of a group of employers who ceases to be exempt under section 164 shall forthwith insure as required by section 160.

Cessation of exemption

168. Where an employer or group of employers which is exempt under section 164 —

(5) Where a body corporate commits an offence mentioned in subsection (1), every director or other officer concerned in the management of the body corporate commits the like offence unless he proves that the offence was committed by the body

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

Sch. 1

Amount of compensation in case of total or partial incapacity

7. (1) Subject to section 56 and subclause (3) when total incapacity for work results from the disability a weekly payment during the incapacity equal to the weekly earnings of the worker calculated and varied in accordance with this Schedule.

(2) Subject to section 56 and subclause (3), where partial incapacity for work results from the disability, a weekly payment during the partial incapacity equal to the amount by which the total weekly earnings of the worker calculated and varied in accordance with this Schedule would exceed the weekly amount exclusive of payments for the items referred to in clause 11 (3), (4), and (5) which he is earning or is able to earn in some suitable employment or business after the occurrence of the disability.

(3) An entitlement of a worker to weekly payments for a disability under this Act ceases if and when the total weekly payments for that disability reaches the prescribed amount, unless the Board makes an order to the contrary under section 122, and there shall be no revival of, or increase in, that entitlement upon any subsequent increase in the prescribed amount.

(4) Nothing in subclause (3) affects the liability of an employer for, and the entitlement of a worker to, expenses as are provided for in clauses 9, 17, 18, and 19 but subject to the limitations on those expenses as provided in clause 17 (1).

(5) Unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, compensation shall be paid by the employer to the worker at the employer's usual place of payment of wages on the employer's usual pay days or, at the request of the worker shall be sent by prepaid post to the worker's address.

(6) A worker when fulfilling any requirement of the Commission made under section 157, is deemed for the purposes of this clause to be totally incapacitated.

Deemed total incapacity

8. Where a worker who has so far recovered from his disability as to be fit for employment of a certain kind satisfies the Board that he has taken all reasonable steps to obtain, and has failed to obtain, that employment and that the failure is a consequence, wholly or mainly, of the disability, the Board may, without limiting its powers of review, order that the worker's incapacity be treated, or continue to be treated, as total incapacity, for such period, and subject to such conditions, as the order may provide.

No incapacity — medical expenses

9. Where a total or partial incapacity for work does not result from the disability but the worker is obliged to obtain medical or surgical, dental, physiotherapy or chiropractic advice or treatment, clauses 17, 18, and 19 apply in so far as they may be made applicable.

Absence from work for medical attendance

10. Where absence from work arises from a necessary attendance for a medical or like purpose that is authorized or required under this Act or from an unavoidable delay in the provision, repair, or replacement of any artificial aid of the kinds referred to in clause 17 and without which the worker is unable to work, the employer shall pay a weekly payment or portion thereof at a rate equivalent to the rate that applies for total or partial incapacity.

Weekly earnings

11. Subject to clauses 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16, for the purposes of this Act "weekly earnings" means —

- (1) where the work performed by the worker in the employment in which the disability occurs is, at the time the disability occurs, subject to an industrial award or industrial agreement or, if it is not so subject but there is an industrial award or industrial agreement which applies to work of the same type or which can be fairly applied to the work, the total wages, salary or other remuneration payable, or which would have been payable if the industrial award or industrial agreement to which the work was subject at the time the disability occurred were still in operation, at the time of the incapacity, for a week's work in such employment, under the industrial award or industrial agreement plus any over award or service payment payable on a regular basis as part of the worker's wages, salary or other remuneration;

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 1981

Sch. 1

(2) where a person is working under an agreement to perform —

- (a) a specified quantity of work for a specified sum;
- (b) work on piece rates;
- (c) work on a bonus or commission system; or
- (d) work under any other system for payment by results, the wages, salary, or other remuneration that is, at the time of the incapacity, prescribed, apart from that agreement, for a week's work in the employment in which the disability occurs, under an industrial award or industrial agreement relevant to such employment or, if there is no industrial award or industrial agreement so relevant, under an industrial award or industrial agreement pertaining to that type of work which can be fairly applied plus any over award or service payment payable on a regular basis as part of the worker's wages, salary or other remuneration, but excluding in each case referred to in subclauses (1) and (2) —

- (3) overtime, being any payment for the hours in excess of the number of hours stated in the industrial award or industrial agreement as ordinary hours which constitute a week's work; and

Sch. 1

- (4) any bonus or incentive, shift allowance, week-end or public holiday penalty allowance, district allowance, industry allowance, meal allowance, living allowance, clothing allowance, travelling allowance, or other allowance, and where the work performed by the worker in the employment in which the disability occurs is such that neither subclause (1) or (2) applies, the weekly earnings of the worker means —

- (5) the normal wage, salary, or other remuneration calculated on a weekly basis payable to the worker under his contract of employment exclusive of payment for overtime or for the items referred to in subclause (4).

Part time worker

12. In respect of employment to which clause 11 (1) or (2) applies, in the case of a part time worker employed solely in the employment in which the disability occurs, a proportionate deduction shall be made in such weekly earnings to the extent that the hours worked by him each week are less than the number of hours stated in the industrial award or industrial agreement as ordinary hours which constitute a week's work.

Concurrent contracts

13. In respect of employment to which clause 11 (1) or (2) applies, in the case of a worker who had entered into concurrent contracts of service with 2 or more employers under which he worked at one time for one such employer and at another time for another such employer and —

- (1) under which the total number of hours worked each week by him are less than the number of hours stated in the industrial award or agreement relating to the employment in which the disability occurs as ordinary hours which constitute a week's work, a proportionate deduction shall be made in such weekly earnings to the extent the total number of hours worked by him are so less; or

Sch. 1

- (2) under which the total number of hours worked by him, discounting in respect of each of the employments the exclusions referred to in clause 11 (3) and (4), are equal to or more than the number of hours stated in the industrial award or industrial agreement relating to the employment in which the disability occurs as ordinary hours which constitute a week's work, no deduction shall be made.

Casual or seasonal worker

14. In the case of a casual or a seasonal or other worker who is ordinarily employed for only part of the year, "weekly earnings" means that fraction of the worker's weekly earnings calculated and varied in accordance with this Schedule as represents the same ratio that the number of weeks that he normally works each year bears to 52.

Board and lodging

15. Where the remuneration of a worker consists of wages with board or board and lodging, the wages or the earnings of the worker shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the amount of the wages with the addition of the value of such board or board and lodging to be assessed, but such board or board and lodging shall not be assessed at a sum exceeding a sum prescribed for the purposes of this clause.

Variation of weekly payments
