$$\text{Period of reduction} = \text{Specified period} \times \frac{\text{Part payment}}{\text{Warrant amount}}$$

(rounded up to the nearest whole number)

where “warrant amount” is the amount in respect of which the warrant was issued.

Interests of others

82. If a person other than the offender has any proprietary interest in any seized personal property, that interest and that of the offender may be sold together if —

- (a) the Sheriff is of the opinion that such a course is desirable;
- (b) that person consents in writing; and
- (c) the Sheriff and that person agree in writing before the sale as to the division of the proceeds of the sale after payment of the expenses of and incidental to the sale and any attempted sale of the property.

Only sufficient property to be sold

83. (1) If the Sheriff is of the opinion that the value of the personal property seized under a warrant is more than sufficient to cover the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees, the Sheriff is to sell only so much of the property as in the Sheriff's opinion will be sufficient.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Sheriff from selling more of the property if at any time the sale of property has not been sufficient to cover the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees.

Sale to be advertised

84. (1) The Sheriff is to advertise, in such manner as the Sheriff thinks fit, any intended sale of personal property under a warrant.

(2) The Sheriff is to serve the offender with a notice of any such intended sale.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to the intended sale of personal property that is of a perishable nature.

Manner and place of sale

(2) Seized personal property may be sold at the place of seizure or at any other place, as the Sheriff thinks fit.

Sale price

86. (1) Personal property seized under a warrant is not to be sold at a price that is substantially below its fair value as determined by the Sheriff.

(2) If by reason of subsection (1), the Sheriff is unable to sell property, the Sheriff is to serve the offender with a written notice advising the offender —

(a) that the property is unable to be sold for a price that is not substantially below its fair value as determined by the Sheriff; and

(b) that unless the offender pays the Sheriff the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees, the property may be sold at any price.

(3) If within a reasonable time after an offender is served with such a notice, the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees are not paid the property may be sold at any price.

- (a) the purchaser of the property acquires a good title to it; and
- (b) the Sheriff is not liable to any person in respect of the sale of the property unless it is proved that the Sheriff had notice or, by making reasonable inquiries, might have ascertained, that the offender did not own or have any interest in the property.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect the entitlement of a claimant to any remedy against a person, other than the Sheriff or the purchaser of the property, if the claimant proves that at the time of the sale of the property the claimant had a title to the property.

Division 4 — Seizure and sale of land

Power to seize

88. (1) Under a warrant the Sheriff may seize any land of the offender and may sell it to recover the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees.

(2) Under a warrant land is not to be seized or sold unless the Sheriff is satisfied that the value of personal property able to be seized and sold under the warrant will be insufficient to meet the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees.

(3) The Sheriff may take such reasonable action as the Sheriff considers necessary or convenient for the purposes of subsection (1).

Seizure: how effected

89. (1) Actual seizure of land before it is sold is not necessary.

(2) Under a warrant, seizure of land is to be effected by the Sheriff lodging with the Registrar of Titles or the Registrar of Deeds and Transfers (as the case requires) —

- (a) a memorial in the prescribed form describing the land and setting out the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees owed; and
- (b) a copy of the warrant.

(3) The signature of the Sheriff on the memorial does not have to be attested.

(4) In the case of land under the operation of the Transfer of Land Act 1893, the Registrar of Titles, under that Act, must register or enter the memorial in the Register Book in respect of the land described.

(5) In the case of land under the operation of the Registration of Deeds Act 1856, the Registrar of Deeds and Transfers, under that Act, must register the memorial.

(6) When a memorial is registered under subsection (4) or (5), the Registrar of Titles or the Registrar of Deeds and Transfers, as the case may be, must serve the offender with a copy of the memorial.

(8) On the registration of a memorial under subsection (5), any instrument affecting the land and lodged for registration after registration of the memorial and before cancellation of the memorial is of no effect.

(9) A memorial registered under this section has effect until it is cancelled under section 90.

Cancelling memorials

90. (1) The Sheriff —

- (a) may at any time cancel a memorial for good reason;
- (b) if the warrant ceases to be in force, must cancel a memorial forthwith, by lodging a withdrawal of memorial in the prescribed form with the Registrar of Titles or the Registrar of Deeds and Transfers, as the case requires.

(2) The Registrar of Titles and the Registrar of Deeds and Transfers must give effect to a withdrawal of memorial when it is lodged.

Power of entry

91. (1) If land of an offender is seized under a warrant, the Sheriff may enter any land as often as is necessary for the purposes of exercising the Sheriff's functions under the warrant in relation to the land.

(2) In the exercise of the powers under subsection (1), the Sheriff may enter the land with any prospective purchasers of the land and may conduct the sale of the land on the land.

(3) Unless the Sheriff has vacant possession of the land, the Sheriff may only exercise the powers under subsection (1) at reasonable times of the day or night.

(4) Unless the Sheriff has vacant possession of the land, the Sheriff must not exercise the powers under subsection (1) without the consent of the owner or occupier of the land.

(5) Despite subsections (3) and (4), if —

(a) the consent referred to in subsection (4) is not given;
or

(b) the Sheriff, after reasonable attempts to do so, cannot contact the owner or occupier of the land,

the Sheriff may exercise the powers under subsection (1) without consent, using such force as is reasonable in the circumstances, at any time of the day or night.

Sale and transfer of land seized

92. (1) Subject to this Division, a warrant has effect in respect of land of the offender as if the warrant were a writ of feri facias and the offender were a judgment debtor.

(2) If land is sold under a warrant, a transfer or deed of conveyance of the land signed by the Sheriff shall, subject to the Transfer of Land Act 1893, give to the purchaser as good and sufficient an estate in or title to the land as the offender in respect of whom the warrant was issued has or can or may have in or to the land.

Division 5 — Interpleader

Making a claim to property seized

93. (1) A person (“the claimant”), other than the offender, who claims any property, or any interest in any property, seized under a warrant or any of the proceeds of the sale of the property, may give the Sheriff written notice of the claim.

(2) The notice must describe the property claimed and set out the basis of the claim and must give an address for service for the claimant.

Sheriff may admit or reject claim

94. (1) The Sheriff may admit or dispute a claimant’s claim.

(2) If the Sheriff disputes a claim the Sheriff may apply for relief by way of interpleader —

- (a) if the property concerned is personal property (as defined in section 71), in the Local Court nearest to where the property claimed is situated; or
- (b) if the property concerned is land, in the Supreme Court.

(3) On an application under subsection (2) (a) a magistrate has the same powers as a Supreme Court Judge has on an application by the Sheriff in the case of property taken in execution under process issued by the Supreme Court.

(4) Rules of court made under section 167 of the Supreme Court Act 1935 or section 158 of the Local Courts Act 1904 may deal with the practice and procedure relating to claims and applications for relief by way of interpleader.

Division 6 — Miscellaneous

Priority of warrant over writs etc.

95. (1) Despite section 86A of the District Court of Western Australia Act 1969 and section 137 of the Local Courts Act 1904, a warrant (as defined in section 63) has priority over any other writ or warrant of execution against the property of the offender.

(2) If there are 2 or more warrants (as defined in section 63) issued in respect of an offender, they have priority according to the time of receipt by the Sheriff.

How amounts recovered to be applied

96. (1) The Sheriff is to apply the money from the sale of property under a warrant (“the proceeds”) in accordance with this section.

(7) In subsection (3), “registered” includes protected by means of a caveat lodged under the Transfer of Land Act 1893.

Warrant may be satisfied at any time

97. (1) Despite any other provision in this Part, an offender may at any time before the sale of any property under a warrant, pay to the Sheriff the amount owed under the warrant and the enforcement fees owed.

(2) When the amount owed under a warrant and the enforcement fees are paid, or recovered from the sale of property, the warrant ceases to be in force.

Transitional provisions (Schedule 1)

109. Schedule 1 has effect.

SCHEDULE 1

[Section 109]

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Interpretation

1. In this Schedule “commencement” means the day on which this Act comes into operation.

Matters prescribed under Justices Act 1902, Part VIBA

2. (1) If immediately before commencement an enactment is prescribed for the purposes of section 171BD of the Justices Act 1902, then on and after commencement that enactment is to be taken as being a prescribed enactment for the purposes of Part 3 until regulations are made under this Act prescribing enactments for the purposes of Part 3.

(2) If immediately before commencement persons employed by an authority are prescribed for the purposes of section 171BE and 171BL (1) of the Justices Act 1902, then on and after commencement the authority is to be taken to be a prosecuting authority for the purposes of Part 3.

(3) If immediately before commencement a person is prescribed for the purposes of section 171BE of the Justices Act 1902 as a person who may lodge and sign an enforcement certificate in relation to a prescribed enactment, then on and after commencement the person is to be taken to be a person designated as a prosecuting officer by the authority for the purposes of section 16 in relation to that prescribed enactment.

(4) If immediately before commencement a person is prescribed for the purposes of section 171BL (1) of the Justices Act 1902 as a person who may withdraw proceedings under Part VIBA of that Act in respect of an offence alleged in an infringement notice issued under a prescribed enactment, then on and after commencement the person is to be taken to be a person designated as a prosecuting officer by the authority for the purposes of section 22 in relation to that prescribed enactment.

3. (1) Subject to Part 3 and this clause, an infringement notice issued before commencement may be enforced under Part 3.

(2) If immediately before commencement a courtesy letter has been served on an alleged offender under section 171BD of the Justices Act 1902 in respect of an infringement notice but the time within which

Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices
Enforcement Act 1994

payment is to be made or notice is to be given under that section has not elapsed, then on and after commencement Part 3 applies to the infringement notice as if the courtesy letter were a final demand issued under section 14 on the date when the courtesy letter was served on the alleged offender.

(3) If immediately before commencement a certificate in relation to an infringement notice could be but has not been lodged under section 171BE of the Justices Act 1902, then on or after commencement, subject to section 16, the infringement notice may be registered under section 16 and Part 3 applies accordingly.

(4) If immediately before commencement an enforcement order under section 171BF of the Justices Act 1902 is in force, whether or not it has been varied under section 171BH of that Act, then on and after commencement that order continues to have effect despite the repeal of Part VIBA of that Act.

(5) If —

- (a) under subclause (4) an enforcement order continues to have effect on and after commencement; and
- (b) when the time specified in that order elapses (“the due date”) neither payment as specified in the order (within the time required by the order or thereafter) nor an election under section 171BK of the Justices Act 1902 has been made, then —

- (c) if at the due date the alleged offender has reached the age of 17 years, the Registrar, under section 18, may issue a notice of intention to suspend licences to the alleged offender and Part 3 has effect accordingly, but such a notice is not to be issued until 2 months after commencement;
- (d) if at the due date the alleged offender has not reached the age of 17 years, the Registrar is to refer the failure to make either payment or an election to the Children’s Court.

(6) On a reference to the Children’s Court under subclause (5) (d), the Court may deal with the alleged offender under the Young Offenders Act 1994 or the Child Welfare Act 1947 (as the case may be) as if the amount outstanding under Part VIBA of the Justices Act 1902 were a fine imposed on the alleged offender on the day the enforcement order was made, but before making any order under the Young Offenders Act 1994 or the Child Welfare Act 1947 in respect of the failure to pay, the Court must afford the alleged offender the opportunity to elect to have a complaint for the alleged offence dealt with by the Court.

Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices
Enforcement Act 1994

(7) If immediately before commencement a warrant of commitment under section 171B1 of the Justices Act 1902 could be but has not been issued, then on or after commencement, under section 18, the Registrar may issue a notice of intention to suspend licences to the alleged offender and Part 3 applies accordingly, but such a notice is not to be issued until 2 months after commencement.

(8) If by virtue of this clause proceedings in respect of an infringement notice issued before commencement are taken under Part 3, then any costs or fees that an offender owes under Part VIBA of the Justices Act 1902 are to be taken to be enforcement fees for the purposes of Part 3.

Certain fines and orders imposed by Supreme or District Court before commencement

4. (1) If before commencement the Supreme Court or the District Court imposed a fine (as defined in Part 4) on an offender and ordered that in default of payment the offender be imprisoned, then on and after commencement the order continues to have effect and the provisions of the Justices Act 1902 relevant to that order continue in operation in respect of that order.

(2) If before commencement the Supreme Court or the District Court made an order as to any of the matters referred to in section 56 (a) or (b), section 57 (a) or (b) or section 58 under which a person is required to pay money to the Crown and ordered that in default of payment the person liable to pay the money be imprisoned, then on and after commencement the orders continue to have effect and the provisions of the Justices Act 1902 relevant to those orders continue in operation in respect of those orders.

Other fines imposed before commencement

5. (1) In this clause —

“default order” means an order that accompanies an old fine and that takes effect if payment is not made as required;

“old fine” means a fine (as defined in Part 4) imposed before commencement and to which Part 4 would apply if the fine had been imposed on or after commencement, but does not include a fine to which clause 4 (1) applies.
