shall be deemed not to have been complied with unless the written statement was given to the prospective hirer before the written offer was so signed.

(2) Every hire-purchase agreement—

- (c) shall—
 - (i) specify a date on which the hiring shall be deemed to have commenced;

 - (iv) specify the time for the payment of each instalment; and
 - (v) contain a description of the goods sufficient to identify them;
- (d) where any part of the consideration is or is to be provided otherwise than in cash, shall contain a description of that part of the consideration; and
- (e) shall set out in a tabular form—
 - (i) the price at which at the time of signing the agreement the hirer might have purchased the goods for cash (in this Act called and in the agreement to be described as “cash price”);
 - (ii) the amount paid or provided by way of deposit (in this Act called and in the agreement to be described as “deposit”) showing separately the amount paid in money and the amount provided by a consideration other than money;

(3) An owner who enters into a hire-purchase agreement that does not comply with subsection (2) of this section commits an offence against this Act.

(4) Without affecting the liability of any person to be convicted of an offence against this section, where a provision of this section is not complied with in relation to a hire-purchase agreement (not being a failure to comply with paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section), the liability of the hirer thereunder is, by force of this subsection, reduced by the amount included in the hire-purchase agreement for terms charges and that amount may be set off by the hirer against the amount that would otherwise be due or become due to the owner under the agreement.

(5) A hire-purchase agreement that is not in writing is not enforceable by the owner.

(6) Where the goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement are all items of furniture, whether free standing or in-built, as specified in the Second Part of the First Schedule and the total cash price of the goods is unknown because of some substantial alteration or addition to be made to or of some substantial work to be done in respect of all or any of the goods before delivery thereof to the hirer, it is a sufficient compliance with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section if the statement therein referred to sets out approximate amounts in lieu of specific amounts and it is a sufficient compliance with the requirements of subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (c) and of paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of this section in regard to amounts and cash price if the agreement sets out approximate amounts and cash price in lieu of specific amounts and cash price:

Provided that in each case—

- (a) the amounts and price stated are clearly stated to be approximate only; and
- (b) prior to the stamping of the agreement the true amounts and price are inserted therein and a further or amended statement in writing is duly completed in accordance with the form in the First Schedule and is given to the hirer.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (6) of this section an amount or a cash price is approximate if it is within ten per centum of the true amount or price or within ten pounds thereof.

Certain copy documents to be served on hirer.

4. The owner shall serve or cause to be served on the hirer within twenty-one days after the making of a hire-purchase agreement—

Second Schedule.

- (a) a copy of the agreement in writing;
- (b) a notice in writing in or to the effect of the Second Schedule, which notice may be endorsed on the copy of the agreement; and
- (c) where any part of the total amount payable consists of an amount paid or to be paid under a policy of insurance (not being a policy of third party insurance), a copy of the policy or a statement in writing of the terms, conditions and exclusions of the policy that affect or concern the rights of the hirer, but failure to comply with the provisions of this section does not avoid the agreement.

PART III.—PROTECTION OF HIRERS.

Division 1.—Warranties and Conditions.

Conditions and warranties to be implied in every hire-purchase agreement.

5. (1) In every hire-purchase agreement there shall be deemed to be—

- (a) an implied warranty that the hirer shall have and enjoy quiet possession of the goods;
- (b) an implied condition on the part of the owner that he will have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass;
- (c) an implied warranty that the goods will be free from any charge or encumbrance in favour of any third party (other than a charge or encumbrance created by or with the consent of the hirer) at the time when the property is to pass.

(2) In every hire-purchase agreement there shall be deemed to be an implied condition that the goods shall be of merchantable quality but no such condition shall be deemed to be implied—

- (a) as regards defects of which the owner could not reasonably have been aware, or, if there is a dealer, neither the owner nor the dealer could reasonably have been aware, at the time the agreement was made; or

- (b) where the hirer has examined the goods or a sample thereof, as regards defects which the examination ought to have revealed; or
- (c) if the goods are second-hand goods and the agreement contains a statement to the effect that—

- (i) the goods are second-hand; and
- (ii) all conditions and warranties as to quality are expressly negated, and the owner proves that the hirer has acknowledged in writing that the statement was brought to his notice.

(3) Where the hirer expressly or by implication makes known to the owner or to the dealer or to any servant or agent of the owner or the dealer the particular purpose for which the goods are required, there shall be deemed to be implied in the hire-purchase agreement a condition that the goods are reasonably fit for that purpose but no such condition shall be deemed to be implied if the goods are second-hand goods and the agreement contains a statement to the effect—

- (a) that the goods are second-hand; and
- (b) that all conditions and warranties of fitness and suitability are expressly negated, and the owner proves that the hirer has acknowledged in writing that the statement was brought to his notice.

(4) Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies to which an owner may be entitled where the hirer has made known expressly or by implication to the dealer or to any servant or agent of the dealer the particular purpose for which the goods are required, an owner is entitled to be indemnified by the dealer against any damage suffered by the owner through the operation of the provisions of subsection (3) of this section.

(5) Nothing in this section prejudices any other enactment or rule or law whereby any condition or warranty is to be implied in any hire-purchase agreement.

As to the liability of the owner and the dealer for misrepresentation.

6. (1) A representation, warranty, or statement made to the hirer or prospective hirer; whether orally or in writing, by the owner or dealer or any person acting on behalf of the owner or dealer in connection with or in the course of negotiations leading to the entering into of a hire-purchase agreement confers on the hirer—

- (a) as against the owner, the same right to rescind the agreement as the hirer would have had if the representation, warranty, or statement had been made by an agent of the owner; and
- (b) as against the person who made the representation, warranty, or statement, and any person on whose behalf the firstmentioned person was acting in making it, the same right of action in damages as the hirer would have had against them or either of them if the hirer had purchased the goods from the firstmentioned person or the person on whose behalf he was acting (as the case requires) as a result of the negotiations.

(2) A covenant, condition, or term in a hire-purchase agreement or other document purporting to exclude, limit, or modify the operation of this section or to preclude any right of action or any defence based on or arising out of any such representation, warranty or statement is void.

(3) Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies to which an owner may be entitled, an owner is entitled to be indemnified by the person who made the representation, warranty, or statement, and by any person on whose behalf the representation, warranty, or statement was made against any damage suffered by the owner through the operation of the foregoing provisions of this section.

Division 2.—Statutory Rights of Hirers.

Hirer to be entitled to copy of agreement and statement of his present position.

7. (1) At any time before the final payment has been made under a hire-purchase agreement the owner shall, within fourteen days after he has received a request in writing from the hirer, send to the hirer a copy of the agreement, together with a statement in writing signed by the owner or his agent showing—

- (a) the amount paid to the owner by or on behalf of the hirer;
- (b) the amount which has become due under the agreement but remains unpaid; and
- (c) the amount that is to become payable under the agreement, but an owner is not obliged to comply with the request if he has sent the hirer a copy of the agreement and a statement within the period of three months immediately preceding the receipt of the request.

(2) If an owner contravenes subsection (1) of this section by failing to comply with a request made pursuant to that subsection he commits an offence against this Act and is liable to a penalty of fifty pounds and, until the default is remedied—

- (a) the owner is not entitled to enforce—
 - (i) the agreement against the hirer;
 - (ii) any right to recover the goods from the hirer; or
 - (iii) any contract of guarantee relating to the agreement; and
- (b) any security given by the hirer in respect of money payable under the agreement or given by a guarantor is not enforceable against the hirer or the guarantor by any holder thereof.

8. A hirer who is liable to make payments in respect of two or more hire-purchase agreements to the same owner is entitled, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, on making any payment in respect of the agreements that is not sufficient to discharge the total amount then due under all the agreements, to require the owner to appropriate the sum so paid by him in or towards the satisfaction of the sum due under any one of the agreements, or in or towards the satisfaction of the sums due under any two or more of the agreements in such proportions as he thinks fit, and, if he fails to make any such appropriation, the payment shall by virtue of this section be deemed to be appropriated in or towards the satisfaction of the sums due under the respective agreements in the order in which the agreements were entered into.

As to appropriation of payments when more than one agreement.

As to assignments of rights under hire-purchase agreements.

9. (1) The right, title, and interest of a hirer under a hire-purchase agreement may be assigned with the consent of the owner or, if his consent is unreasonably withheld, without his consent.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no payment or other consideration shall be required by an owner for his consent to such an assignment as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, and where an owner requires any such payment or other consideration for his consent, that consent shall be deemed to be unreasonably withheld.

(3) Where at the request of a hirer an owner fails or refuses to give his consent to an assignment by the hirer of his right, title and interest under a hire-purchase agreement, the hirer may apply to a court of petty sessions for an order declaring that the consent of the owner to that assignment has unreasonably been withheld, and where an order is made that consent shall be deemed to be unreasonably withheld.

(4) As a condition of granting consent to any assignment of the right, title and interest of the hirer under a hire-purchase agreement, the owner may stipulate that all defaults under the hire-purchase agreement shall be made good and may require the hirer and assignee—

(a) to execute and deliver to the owner an assignment agreement in a form approved by the owner whereby without prejudicing or affecting the continuing personal liability of the hirer in those respects the assignee agrees with the owner to be personally liable to pay the instalments of hire remaining unpaid and to perform and observe all other stipulations and conditions of the hire-purchase agreement during the residue of the term thereof and whereby the assignee indemnifies the hirer in respect of such liabilities; and

- (b) to pay the reasonable costs (if any) incurred by the owner in stamping or registering the assignment agreement or counterparts and if required by the owner also the reasonable costs incurred by the owner in registering the same under the Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

(5) The right, title, and interest of a hirer under a hire-purchase agreement is capable of passing by operation of law to the personal representative of the hirer and if the hirer is a company the liquidator may exercise the same rights under the agreement as the company, but nothing in this subsection relieves a personal representative or liquidator from compliance with the provisions of the agreement.

10. Where, by virtue of a hire-purchase agreement, it is the duty of a hirer to keep the goods comprised in the agreement in his possession or control at a particular place or not to remove the goods from a particular place, a court of petty sessions may, on the application of the hirer, make an order approving the removal of the goods to some other place, which place shall thereafter, for the purposes of the agreement, be substituted for the firstmentioned place.

Power to court to allow goods to be removed.

Division 3.—Early Completion of Agreements.

11. (1) The hirer under a hire-purchase agreement may, if he has given notice in writing to the owner of his intention so to do, on or before the day specified for that purpose in the notice, complete the purchase of the goods by paying or tendering to the owner the net balance due to the owner under the agreement.

Hirer to be entitled to finalise agreement at any time.

(2) For the purposes of this section the net balance due is balance originally payable under the agreement less any amounts (other than the deposit) paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement, and less—

- (a) the statutory rebate for terms charges;
- (b) if the hirer requires any contract for insurance to be cancelled, the statutory rebate for insurance; and

- (c) if the hirer requires any contract for maintenance to be cancelled, the statutory rebate for maintenance.

(3) The rights conferred on the hirer by this section may be exercised by him—

- (a) at any time during the continuance of the agreement; or
- (b) where the owner has taken possession of the goods, on paying or tendering to the owner before or within twenty-one days after the owner has served a notice in the form of the Fourth Schedule on the hirer, in addition to the net balance due—
 - (i) the reasonable costs incurred by the owner of and incidental to his taking possession of the goods; and
 - (ii) any amount properly expended by the owner on the storage, repair, or maintenance of the goods.

Power to hirer to determine hiring.

Division 4.—Voluntary Return of Goods.

12. (1) The hirer of any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement may terminate the hiring by returning the goods to the owner during ordinary business hours at a place at which the owner ordinarily carries on business or to the place specified for that purpose in the agreement and the return of the goods to either place terminates the hiring.

(2) Where the nature of the goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement is, or the facilities available at the place or places of business of the owner or at the place specified in the agreement are, such that it would be impracticable to return the goods to such a place, the hirer may terminate the hiring by returning the goods—

- (a) to any place agreed to by the parties to the agreement; or
- (b) if the parties fail to agree, to a place that is reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances surrounding the transaction.

(3) A hirer who proposes to return goods to the owner under this section may apply to a court of petty sessions for an order fixing the place to which the goods may be returned under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The court may in any order made pursuant to this section order that, subject to the goods being returned to the owner, the hiring shall be determined on such date as is specified in the order not being a date before the hirer required the owner to nominate a reasonable place for the return of the goods.

(5) The hirer shall deliver to the owner written notice of an application under this section, not less than twenty-four hours before the application is to be heard.

(6) Where a hire-purchase agreement is determined pursuant to this section the owner is entitled to recover from the hirer—

- (a) the amount (if any) required to be paid in the circumstances under the agreement; or
- (b) the amount (if any) which the owner would have been entitled to recover if he had taken possession of the goods at the date of the termination of the hiring, whichever is the lesser amount.

Division 5.—Repossessions.

13. (1) Subject to this section, an owner shall not exercise any power of taking possession of goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement arising out of any breach of the agreement relating to the payment of instalments until he has served on the hirer a notice, in writing, in the form of the Third Schedule and the period fixed by the notice (being not less than seven days after the service of the notice) has expired.

Notices to be given to hirer
when goods
re-possessed.

(2) An owner is not obliged to comply with subsection (1) of this section if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the goods comprised in the hire-purchase agreement will be removed or concealed by the hirer contrary to the provisions of the agreement, but the onus of proving the existence of those grounds lies upon the owner.

(3) Within twenty-one days after the owner has taken possession of goods that were comprised in a hire-purchase agreement he shall serve on the hirer and every guarantor a notice, in writing, in the form of the Fourth Schedule.

(4) If the notice required by subsection (3) of this section is not served, the rights of the owner under the hire-purchase agreement cease and determine, but, if the hirer exercises his rights under this Act to recover the goods so taken possession of, the Agreement has the same force and effect in relation to the rights and liabilities of the owner and the hirer as it would have had if the notices had been duly given.

Owner to retain possession of goods re-possessed for twenty-one days.

14. Where an owner has taken possession of any goods he shall not, without the consent in writing of the hirer, sell or dispose of the goods or part with possession thereof until after the expiration of twenty-one days from the date of the service on the hirer of the notice referred to in subsection (3) of section thirteen of this Act or, if notice under subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section fifteen of this Act has been given, until the time for payment or tender pursuant to that notice has expired (whichever is the later).

As to hirer's rights and immunities when goods re-possessed.

15. (1) Where the owner takes possession of any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement, the following provisions have effect, namely:—

(a) the hirer may, before or within twenty-one days of the service on him of the notice referred to in subsection (3) of section thirteen of this Act, by giving to the owner a notice in writing signed by the hirer or his agent—

(i) require the owner to re-deliver to or to the order of the hirer (subject to compliance by the hirer with the provisions of section sixteen of this Act) the goods which have been re-possessed; or

- (ii) require the owner to sell the goods to any person introduced by the hirer who is prepared to purchase the goods for cash at a price not less than the estimated value of the goods set out in the first-mentioned notice;

(b) the hirer may recover from the owner—

- (i) if the value of the goods at the time of the owner so taking possession thereof is less than the net amount payable but the total of that value and the amount paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement exceeds the net amount payable, the difference between that total and the net amount payable; or
- (ii) if the value of the goods at the time of the owner so taking possession thereof is equal to or greater than the net amount payable, the total of that value and the amount paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement, less the net amount payable; and

(c) the owner is not entitled to recover any sum (whether under a judgment or order or otherwise) which would together with—

- (i) the value of the goods at the time of the owner so taking possession thereof; and
- (ii) the amount paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement, amount to more than the net amount payable in respect of the goods.

(2) For the purposes of this section—

(a) the net amount payable is the total amount payable less the statutory rebates for terms charges, insurance and maintenance as at the time of the owner taking possession of the goods; and

(b) the value of any goods at the time of the owner taking possession thereof is—

(i) the best price which could be reasonably obtained by the owner at that time; or

(ii) if the hirer has introduced a person who has purchased the goods for cash, the amount paid by that person, less—

(iii) the reasonable costs incurred by the owner of and incidental to his taking possession of the goods;

(iv) any amount properly expended by the owner on the storage, repair, or maintenance of the goods; and

(v) (whether or not the goods have subsequently been sold or disposed of by the owner) the reasonable expenses of selling or otherwise disposing of the goods.

(3) Where the owner has sold goods of which he has taken possession, the onus of proving that the price obtained by him for the goods was the best price that could reasonably be obtained by him at the time when he took possession of the goods lies upon the owner.

(4) Except where the owner has failed to serve on the hirer a notice as required by subsection (3) of section thirteen, no amount is recoverable by the hirer under this section unless—

(a) the hirer, within twenty-one days after the owner has served such a notice, gives to the owner notice in writing—

(i) setting out the amount claimed under the provisions of this section and the amount that is claimed by the hirer to be the value of the goods at the time of the owner taking possession thereof; and

(ii) signed by the hirer or his solicitor or agent; and

(b) proceedings for the recovery of the amount so claimed are commenced not earlier than seven days and, except where the goods have been sold at the request of the hirer to a person introduced by the hirer, not later than three months after the giving by the hirer to the owner of the notice referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(5) If, before any proceedings mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section are commenced by the hirer, the owner serves an offer in writing on the hirer to pay any amount in satisfaction of the claim by the hirer under this section, the owner in the proceedings is entitled to pay into court the amount so offered and, upon so doing, is entitled to the same rights as if that amount had been tendered to the hirer before the proceedings were commenced: but no such right is available to the owner in any proceedings by the hirer to recover the amount so offered or any lesser amount if the hirer, before commencing the proceedings, notifies the owner in writing of the acceptance by the hirer of the amount so offered.

16. (1) If, within fourteen days after giving notice to the owner pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section fifteen of this Act, the hirer—

of goods in certain circumstances.

- (a) pays or tenders to the owner any amount due by the hirer under the hire-purchase agreement in respect of the period of hiring up to the date of that payment or tender;
- (b) remedies any breach of the agreement or (whether he is unable to remedy the breach by reason of the fact that the owner has taken possession of the goods) pays or tenders to the owner the costs and expenses reasonably and actually incurred by the owner in doing any act, matter, or thing necessary to remedy that breach; and

- (c) pays or tenders to the owner the reasonable costs and expenses of the owner of and incidental to his taking possession of the goods and of his returning them to or to the order of the hirer, the owner shall forthwith return the goods to the hirer and the goods shall be received and held by the hirer pursuant to the terms of the hire-purchase agreement as if the breach had not occurred and the owner had not taken possession thereof.

(2) Where goods are returned to the hirer pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and any breach has not been remedied, the owner has no right arising out of that breach to take possession of those goods unless—

- (a) by notice in writing given to the hirer at the time of the return of the goods he specifies the breach and requires it to be remedied; and
- (b) the hirer fails within fourteen days or within the time specified in the notice (whichever is the longer) after receiving the notice to remedy the breach.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, where the hirer makes a payment or tender referred to in that paragraph, the hiring shall be deemed to have continued up to the date on which that payment or tender was made.

Power to
court to vary existing judgments or orders
when goods
are
re-possessed.

17. In any legal proceedings in relation to a hire-purchase agreement, after the owner has taken possession of the goods, the court before which the proceedings are brought may vary or discharge any judgment or order of any court against the hirer for the recovery of money so far as is necessary to give effect to the provisions of section fifteen of this Act.

PART IV.—GUARANTEES.

18. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act a guarantor is not, by reason of the operation of this Act, discharged from liability under his guarantee. Provisions as to guarantors.

(2) The liability of a guarantor continues notwithstanding that the owner has, pursuant to the provisions of a hire-purchase agreement, taken possession of the goods comprised therein (and whether or not the goods have been re-delivered to or to the order of the hirer pursuant to this Act); but nothing in this subsection operates to preserve the liability of a guarantor where the owner and the hirer have entered into a new agreement in respect of the goods comprised in any hire-purchase agreement.

(3) No guarantor is liable to any further or other extent than the hirer, the performance of whose obligations he has guaranteed; but, subject to section nineteen of this Act, nothing in this Act affects any agreement by the guarantor binding him to the performance of any obligation that is not one of the obligations imposed on the hirer under the hire-purchase agreement in respect of which the guarantee is given.

(4) Where goods have been delivered to or to the order of the hirer pursuant to a hire-purchase agreement and the owner subsequently takes possession thereof, the guarantor who has paid any moneys to the owner in accordance with his guarantee has the like right in like manner to recover those moneys as he would have had if he had been the hirer of the goods, but for the purpose of calculating the amount received by the owner all moneys paid and the value of any other consideration provided by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement shall be deemed to have been paid or provided by the guarantor.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (4) of this section; no moneys shall be recovered by the guarantor in excess of the moneys actually paid by him in accordance with his guarantee.

Guarantor not to be bound in certain cases unless independently advised.

19. (1) Where a guarantor enters into an agreement binding the guarantor—

- (a) to pay to the owner under a hire-purchase agreement an aggregate sum which is larger than the balance originally payable under the hire-purchase agreement;
- (b) to perform an obligation in respect of goods other than the goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement;
- (c) to permit the owner under a hire-purchase agreement or any person acting on behalf of the owner to enter upon any premises for the purpose of taking possession of or inspecting goods that are subject to the hire-purchase agreement; or
- (d) to relieve the owner under a hire-purchase agreement or any person acting on behalf of the owner from liability for any such entry, the agreement so entered into by the guarantor is void and the owner under the hire-purchase agreement concerned commits an offence against this Act unless the agreement is executed by the guarantor in the presence of a clerk of petty sessions or a solicitor instructed and employed independently of the owner and the clerk or the solicitor, as the case may be, certifies in writing upon the agreement—

- (e) that he is satisfied that the guarantor understands the true purport and effect of the agreement; and
- (f) that the guarantor has executed the agreement in his presence.

(2) A clerk of petty sessions or a solicitor shall not give a certificate in respect of an agreement under subsection (1) of this section unless—

- (a) he has read over and explained the agreement to the guarantor or has caused the agreement to be read over and explained to the guarantor in his presence;

- (b) he has examined the guarantor touching his knowledge of the agreement;
- (c) he is satisfied that the guarantor understands the true purport and effect of the agreement; and
- (d) the guarantor has freely and voluntarily executed the agreement in his presence.

(3) Failure by a clerk of petty sessions or by a solicitor to comply with subsection (2) of this section in respect of a certificate does not invalidate the certificate.

PART V.—INSURANCE.

20. (1) An owner may require any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement to be insured in the names of the owner and the hirer against any risk that he thinks fit for the period of the agreement at the expense of the hirer.

As to insurance of goods comprised in hire-purchase agreements.

(2) An owner shall not require a hirer to insure any risk with any particular insurer.

(3) An owner shall not refuse to enter into a hire-purchase agreement with a person who effects insurance of the goods for the period of the agreement against such risks and subject to such terms, conditions, and exceptions as are required by the owner in the names of the owner and the hirer with a reputable insurer if the owner has no other grounds upon which the owner could reasonably refuse to enter into the agreement.

(4) An owner shall not require a hirer to obtain insurance against risks or subject to terms, conditions, and exceptions that the owner does not require if he arranges the insurance.

(5) Where, in respect of the insurance of goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement, the insurer allows a no-claim rebate or a rebate of a similar nature, the hirer under the agreement is entitled to the benefit of the rebate and any person who knowingly pays or allows any such rebate to an owner commits an offence against this Act.

Hirer to be entitled to insurance rebates.

Powers of court in relation to insurance contracts associated with hire-purchase agreements.

21. (1) In any proceedings taken in any court in respect of a difference or dispute arising out of a contract of insurance if it appears to the court that a failure by the insured or the hirer to observe or perform a term or condition of the contract of insurance may reasonably be excused on the ground that the insurer was not prejudiced by the failure, the court may, unless an order excusing the failure has already been made under subsection (2) of this section, order that the failure be excused.

(2) Where a difference or dispute has arisen out of a contract of insurance, the insured or the hirer or any guarantor in respect of the hire-purchase agreement may, unless an order excusing the failure concerned has already been made under subsection (1) of this section, apply to the court for an order that the failure to observe a term or condition of the contract of insurance be excused; and if it appears to the court that the failure may reasonably be excused on the ground that the insurer was not prejudiced by the failure, the court may order that the failure be excused.

(3) Where an order is made under subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section, the rights and liabilities of all persons in respect of the contract of insurance concerned is determined as if the failure the subject of the order had not occurred.

As to contents of contracts of insurance.

22. (1) Every contract of insurance (not being a contract of third party insurance) and statement served upon a hirer pursuant to section four of this Act shall—

- (a) identify the goods or the part of the goods to be insured;
- (b) contain a statement of the amount and period for which the goods are insured or are to be insured; and

- (c) if the amount for which the goods are or are to be insured will vary during the period of the agreement, contain a statement showing the varying amounts.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, any provision in any agreement or other document—

- (a) requiring differences or disputes arising out of a contract of insurance to be referred to arbitration;
- (b) providing that no action or suit is maintainable upon a contract of insurance or against the insurer in respect of any claim under, or difference or dispute arising out of, the contract unless the claim, difference, or dispute has been referred to arbitration or an award pursuant to arbitration proceedings has been first obtained;
- (c) providing that arbitration or an award pursuant to arbitration proceedings is a condition precedent to any right of action or suit upon a contract of insurance; or
- (d) otherwise imposing by reference to arbitration or to an award made in arbitration proceedings any limitation on the right of any person to bring or maintain any action or suit upon a contract of insurance, does not bind the hirer.

(3) An agreement made by the parties to a contract of insurance after a difference or dispute has arisen out of the contract of insurance to submit that difference or dispute to arbitration has effect as if subsection (2) of this section had not been enacted.

23. (1) The provisions of sections twenty-one and twenty-two of this Act apply only to or in respect of a contract of insurance of goods (whether or not the contract includes any other class of insurance) where the premium or other sum payable for the cover given by the contract of insurance, or any part of that premium or sum, was included as part of the total amount payable for the goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement.

Application

(2) The provisions of this Part have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act.

PART VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

certain hire-
transactions.

24. (1) In any proceedings under this Act or arising out of a hire-purchase agreement or instituted pursuant to subsection (4) of this section where it appears to the court that the transaction is harsh and unconscionable or is otherwise such that the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction would give relief the court may re-open the transaction and take an account between the parties thereto.

(2) The court by which a transaction is re-opened under this section may, notwithstanding any statement or settlement of accounts or any agreement purporting to close previous dealings and create a new obligation—

- (a) re-open any account already taken between the parties;
- (b) relieve the hirer and any guarantor from payment of any sum in excess of such sum in respect of the cash price, terms charges, and other charges as the court adjudges to be fairly and reasonably payable;
- (c) set aside either wholly or in part or revise or alter any agreement made or security given in connection with the transaction;

(3) Where it appears to the court by which a transaction is re-opened under this section that any person other than the owner has shared in the profits of or has any beneficial interest prospectively or otherwise in the transaction which the court holds to be harsh and unconscionable the court may add that person as a party to the proceedings and may give judgment against that person for such amount as it thinks fit or for delivery of the goods if they are in his possession and the court may make such other order in respect of that person as it thinks fit.

(4) Proceedings may be instituted in any court by the hirer or any guarantor under a hire-purchase agreement for the purpose of obtaining relief under this section.

(5) In any proceedings under this section the court has and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred by subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section notwithstanding that the time for the payment of any of the amounts payable under the agreement may not have arrived.

(6) A hirer or guarantor under a hire-purchase agreement is not entitled to institute proceedings under this section—

- (a) where the owner has taken possession of the goods comprised in the agreement—after the expiration of a period of four months from the time when the owner serves on the hirer the notice required by subsection (3) of section thirteen of this Act to be served on him; or

(2) The farmer may, within the period fixed by the notice, apply to a court of petty sessions for an order restraining the owner from taking possession of the goods.

(3) If the court is satisfied that, within twelve months from the date of the application, the farmer will have a reasonable prospect of being able to pay all instalments due and owing on that date, the court may make an order restraining the owner from taking possession of the goods for such period not exceeding twelve months as the court fixes.

(4) An order under subsection (3) of this section may include such terms and conditions, including conditions as to payment of instalments, as the court thinks fit.

Liens.

26. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, where a worker does work upon goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement in such circumstances that, if the goods were the property of the hirer, the worker would be entitled to a lien on the goods for the value of his work, he is entitled to a lien notwithstanding that the goods are not the property of the hirer.

(2) The lien is not enforceable against the owner if the hire-purchase agreement contains a provision prohibiting the creation of a lien by the hirer and the worker had notice of that provision before doing the work upon the goods.

- (c) the hirer under a hire-purchase agreement is subject to any greater liability on the determination, in any manner, of the hire-purchase agreement or of the bailment thereunder, than the liability to which he would be subject if the hire-purchase agreement were determined in accordance with this Act;
- (d) the hirer under a hire-purchase agreement is required to pay any sum (whether or not it is described in the agreement as interest) in respect of any amount due under the hire-purchase agreement but not paid exceeding a sum equal to the simple interest on that amount calculated at the rate of
