Guide for using this reprint

What the reprint includes

Endnotes, Compilation table, and Table of provisions that have not come into operation

1. Details about the original Act and legislation that has amended its text are shown in the Compilation table in endnote 1, at the back of the reprint. The table also shows any previous reprint.
2. Validation, transitional, savings, or other provisions identified in the Compilation table may be important. The table may refer to another endnote setting out the text of these provisions in full.
3. A table of provisions that have not come into operation, to be found in endnote 1a if it is needed, lists any provisions of the Act being reprinted that have not come into operation and any amendments that have not come into operation. The full text is set out in another endnote that is referred to in the table.

Notes amongst text (italicised and within square brackets)

1. If the reprint includes a section that was inserted, or has been amended, since the Act being reprinted was passed, editorial notes at the foot of the section give some history of how the section came to be as it is. If the section replaced an earlier section, no history of the earlier section is given (the full history of the Act is in the Compilation table).

Notes of this kind may also be at the foot of Schedules or headings.

2. The other kind of editorial note shows something has been —
 - removed (because it was repealed or deleted from the law); or
 - omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(4) (because, although still technically part of the text, it no longer has any effect).

The text of anything removed or omitted can be found in an earlier reprint (if there is one) or one of the written laws identified in the Compilation table.

Reprint numbering and date

1. The reprint number (in the footer of each page of the document) shows how many times the Act has been reprinted. For example, numbering a reprint as “Reprint 3” would mean that the reprint was the 3rd reprint since the Act was passed. Reprint numbering was implemented as from 1 January 2003.
2. The information in the reprint is current on the date shown as the date as at which the Act is reprinted. That date is not the date when the reprint was published by the State Law Publisher and it is probably not the date when the most recent amendment had effect.

4. Minister may execute guarantees

- (1) The Minister may execute a guarantee in favour of a bank or another person or body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, for the repayment of the whole or part of a loan made by that bank or other person or body of persons to the owner of a small business where the Minister is satisfied that —
 - (a) the sole ground for the prior rejection of the loan proposal by the lender was the insufficiency of the security proposed by the borrower and in all other respects the lender accepted the loan proposal as a viable proposition; and
 - (b) the loan moneys are required for capital expenditure or working capital for the establishment of a small business or the expansion or diversification of an existing small business.
- (2) The Minister shall not execute a guarantee under subsection (1) if the amount of the guarantee exceeds the amount prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

as the Minister may require for the repayment of the loan by the borrower to the lender;

- (b) the guarantee shall not be enforceable against the Minister unless and until the lender has first taken all reasonable steps to exercise his rights and remedies under all the securities (other than the guarantee) held by or for the lender in respect of the debt guaranteed; and
- (c) the lender shall not, without the consent in writing of the Minister, assign or encumber the benefit of the guarantee.

[Section 5 amended by No. 56 of 1987 s. 6.]
