Legal Practice Act 2003

Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court and District Court) (Criminal) Determination 2010

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

- (1) This Report may be cited as the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court and District Court) (Criminal) Report 2010.
- (2) The Determination set out in the Schedule to this Report is referred to in this Report as the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Criminal) Determination 2010.

Part 2 — Notice and Enquiries

2. Notice under section 278 of the Act

The Legal Costs Committee has complied with the notice provisions of section 278 of the Act.

3. Inquiries and submissions under section 277 of the Act

Before making the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court and District Court) (Criminal) Determination 2010, the Legal Costs Committee —

- (a) reviewed all submissions received as a result of the notice given under section 278 of the Act;
- (b) reviewed the impact of increases in the Consumer Price and Labour Price Indices for the financial year ending June 2009, and for the September, December 2009 and March 2010 quarters as they impacted on the hourly rates for legal practitioners set out in the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2008 ;
- (c) reviewed a submission received from The Law Society of Western Australia (Inc) and comments by the Principal Registrar of the District Court of Western Australia; and
- (d) conferred with other legal practitioners.

Part 3 — Report of Committee's Conclusions

4. Hourly rates and scale of costs established

- (a) The information gained as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3 satisfied the Legal Costs Committee that the manner in which legal services are provided made it appropriate to continue to adopt the hourly and daily rates charged by law practices as the basis for the rates used in the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court and District Court) (Criminal) Determination 2010. No other appropriate methodologies were put to the Committee as an alternative to hourly and daily rates.
- (b) It is the recommendation of the Legal Costs Committee that—
- (1) as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3;
 - (2) having considered the impact of relevant Australian Bureau of Statistics data;
 - (3) taking into account the incidental administrative implications of the calculation of the Goods and Services Tax; and
 - (4) to be consistent with the hourly and daily rates referred to in the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2010 to be gazetted at or about the same time as this Report, the hourly and daily rates referred to in sub clause 4(a) be varied from the hourly and daily rates used in the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court and District Court) (Criminal Jurisdictions) Determination 2009 as the basis for the recommended scale of costs which have been generally rounded up or down to represent various increases of between 5.55% and 8.33% inclusive of the Goods and Services Tax and for administrative convenience, divisible by 11. Those rates are set out in the Table to clause 5 of the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court and District Court) (Criminal) Determination 2010.

r. 4

- (c) The recommendations of the Legal Costs Committee are not intended to override the entitlement of a law practice to make a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Act or any successor legislation.
