Division 3 — The co-operative principles

6. Co-operative principles

The co-operative principles are the principles set out in the following Table.

Table of co-operative principles

Principle
1. Voluntary and open membership	A co-operative is a voluntary organisation, open to all persons able to use its services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.
2. Democratic member control	A co-operative is a democratic organisation controlled by its members, who actively participate in setting policies and making decisions. Members serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In co-operatives other than co-operative groups members have equal voting rights (one member, one vote). Co-operative groups are organised in a democratic manner.
3. Member economic participation	Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their co-operative. Usually, at least part of that capital is the common property of the co-operative. Usually, members receive limited compensation, if any, for capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members of a co-operative allocate

Principle

surplus to be used for any or all of the purposes of —

- (a) developing the co-operative, possibly by setting up reserves, at least part of which are indivisible; and
- (b) benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative; and
- (c) supporting other activities approved by the membership.

4. Autonomy and independence

A co-operative is an autonomous, self-help organisation controlled by its members. If a co-operative enters into agreements with other organisations, including governments, or raises capital from external sources, it does so on terms that ensure democratic control by its members and maintain its autonomy.

5. Education, training and information

A co-operative provides education and training for its members, elected representatives, managers and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of the co-operative. A co-operative informs the general public, particularly young people and opinion leaders, about the nature and benefits of co-operatives.

6. Co-operation among co-operatives

Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, national, regional and international structures.

7. Concern for the community

Co-operatives, while focusing on member needs, work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies accepted by their members.

7. Interpretation to promote co-operative principles

In the interpretation of a provision of this Act, a construction that would promote co-operative principles is to be preferred to a construction that would not promote co-operative principles.

  - (b) if —
    - (i) the board thinks that during the deferral period an active membership resolution may be put to the members of the co-operative; and
    - (ii) the effect of the resolution would be relevant to the question of whether the member is an active member.

  - (b) in the case of a transferred co-operative the rules of which state how to calculate the repayable amount owing to a former member at the time of cancellation of membership, within 3 years after the date of cancellation, repay to the former member an amount in accordance with those rules; or

  - (b) the co-operative may issue debentures or co-operative capital units to the former member in satisfaction of the amount;
  - (c) the co-operative may appropriate the amount as a donation to the co-operative, but only if the former member consents in writing to the donation.
- (3) If the balance sheet of the co-operative last issued before the cancellation of a member's membership disclosed a loss or deficiency or a significant change in the financial position or prospects of the co-operative is subsequently reported prior to the loss or deficiency, the paid up value of the member's shares may, for the purposes of calculating the repayable amount, be reduced as described in subsection (4).
- (4) The paid up value of the member's shares may be reduced by an amount that bears to the amount of the loss or deficiency so disclosed the same proportion as the number of shares held by the member bore to the total number of shares held by all members of the co-operative at the time of cancellation.
- (5) If the former member is subsequently readmitted to membership, any amount held by the co-operative under this section must, if the member so requests, be applied towards the cost of admission to membership, including any subscription for share capital.
- (6) Despite subsection (2)(c), if —
  - (a) the co-operative cannot, after taking all reasonable action, find the former member; and

- (1) A deposit, debenture or co-operative capital unit to which an amount payable to a former member is applied under this Division or section 73(2) is to be repaid or redeemed, as the case may be, as

- (2) Sections 132, 133 and 134 apply to the extent they are not inconsistent with the rules of each particular distributing co-operative.

132. Former shareholders to be taken to be shareholders for certain purposes

- (1) Even though a person's shares in a co-operative have been forfeited under this Part, the person is to be taken to be the holder of shares in the co-operative (the same in all respects as those that were forfeited) for the following purposes —
  - (a) the entitlements of a shareholder in relation to the purchase of shares in the co-operative pursuant to an offer described in section 289(a), (b) or (c) or the purchase of all the shares in the co-operative, if the offer or purchase occurs within 2 years after the person's shares were forfeited;
  - (b) the entitlement of a shareholder when the co-operative becomes registered as a company if the relevant special resolution under section 306 is passed within 2 years after the person's shares were forfeited;
  - (c) the entitlement of a shareholder to a distribution of surplus in a winding-up of the co-operative that commences within 2 years after the person's shares were forfeited.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to —
  - (a) an offer described in section 289(a) or (c) that is made by another co-operative; or

- (b) the purchase of all the shares in the co-operative by another co-operative.
- (3) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply if the winding-up is for the purposes of a merger under Part 12 Division 1.
- (4) For the removal of doubt, it is declared that the entitlement under subsection (1)(a) of a person whose shares have been forfeited does not include an entitlement to vote on any matter.
- (5) This section does not apply to a forfeited shareholding in a co-operative if section 133 operates to require that forfeited shareholding to be regarded as a forfeited shareholding in another co-operative.

133. Entitlements of former shareholders on mergers etc.

- (1) This section applies when a person's shares in a co-operative (the original co-operative) are forfeited under this Part and within 2 years after that forfeiture —

  - (b) another co-operative (the new co-operative) is created as a result of a merger under Part 12 Division 1 involving the original co-operative; or
  - (c) the engagements of the original co-operative are transferred to another co-operative (the new co-operative) under Part 12 Division 1.
- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) is, for the purposes of the operation of section 132, and the further operation of this section, taken to have held shares in the new co-operative and as having had those shares in the new co-operative forfeited under this Part when the person's shares in the original co-operative were forfeited.
- (3) The extent of the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is determined as follows —
  - (a) if the entitlement of active members of the original co-operative in the circumstances concerned is solely an entitlement to be allotted shares in the new co-operative, the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is the shareholding to which the person would have been entitled had the person's shares in the original co-operative not been forfeited;
  - (b) in any other case, the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is the shareholding that is the same in all respects as the forfeited shareholding in the original co-operative.

- (4) The determination under subsection (3)(a) of the person's shareholding in the new co-operative must be made —
  - (a) solely on the basis of the person's shareholding in the original co-operative when the shares were forfeited or, in a further operation of this section in respect of the person, when the person was first to be regarded as having a forfeited shareholding in the original co-operative; and
  - (b) without regard to any additional shareholding in the original co-operative to which the person would have become entitled had the shares not been forfeited, whether as a result of any bonus share issue or otherwise.

134. Set off of amounts repaid etc. on forfeited shares

- (1) If a person has an entitlement because of the operation of section 133, the entitlement operates to end any liability of the co-operative —
  - (a) to repay to the person under section 127 any amount for the forfeited shares concerned; or
  - (b) in respect of a deposit held by the co-operative, or debentures allotted or issued to the person, or co-operative capital units issued under section 127 for the forfeited shares concerned, except a liability to pay interest that is payable but unpaid.
- (2) If an amount has been repaid to a person under section 127 or 129, the amount repaid is to be set off against any entitlement of the person under section 132 for the forfeited shares concerned.
- (3) If the amount repaid cannot be set off against the entitlement because the entitlement is not, or is only partly, an entitlement to money, the entitlement is lost unless the person pays to the co-operative the amount repaid to the person and does so within the period required under subsection (4).
- (4) If the circumstances referred to in subsection (3) arise, the co-operative concerned must —
  - (a) give written notice of the matter by post to the person concerned at the person's address last known to the co-operative, specifying a period of not less than 28 days after the notice is given during which any amount repaid must be paid to the co-operative; and

- (b) publish a general notice to that effect in a newspaper circulating generally in the district in which the registered office of the co-operative is situated.

173. Other rights and duties of members not affected by ineligibility to vote

- (3) If a charge created by a co-operative secures a debt of an unspecified amount or secures a debt of a specified amount and further advances, a payment or advance made by the chargee to the co-operative in accordance with the terms of the charge is not to be taken, for the purposes of subclause (2), to be a variation in the terms of the charge having the effect of increasing the amount of the charge or the liabilities, whether present or prospective, secured by the charge.
- (4) A reference in this clause to the chargee in relation to a charge is, if the charge is constituted by a debenture or debentures and there is a trustee for debenture holders, to be construed as a reference to the trustee for debenture holders.
- (5) Nothing in clause 13 requires the lodgment of a notice under that clause in relation to a charge merely because of the fact that the terms of the charge are varied only in a manner mentioned in this clause.

37. Satisfaction of, and release of property from, charges

- (1) If, in relation to a charge registered under this Division —
  - (a) the debt or other liability, the payment or discharge of which was secured by the charge, has been paid or discharged in whole or in part; or
  - (b) the property charged or part of the property is released from the charge, the person who was the holder of the charge at the time when the debt or other liability was so paid or discharged or the property or part of the property was released must, within 14 days after receipt of a request in writing made by the co-operative on whose property the charge exists, give to the co-operative a memorandum in the form approved by the Registrar acknowledging that the debt or other liability has been paid or discharged in whole or in part or that the property or part of it is no longer subject to the charge, as the case may be.

- (2) The co-operative may lodge the memorandum with the Registrar and, on the memorandum being lodged, the Registrar must enter in the Register of Co-operative Charges particulars of the matters stated in the memorandum.
- (3) The reference in subclause (1) to the person who was the holder of a charge at the time when the debt or other liability was so paid or discharged or the property or part of the property was released is, if the charge was constituted by a debenture or debentures and there was a trustee for debenture holders, to be construed as a reference to the person who was, at that time, the trustee of debenture holders.

- (2) If a document required by this Division other than clause 36(1) to be lodged with the Registrar is lodged by a person other than the co-operative concerned, that person —
  - (a) must, within 7 days after the lodgment of the document, give to the co-operative a copy of the document; and

- (b) is entitled to recover from the co-operative the amount of any fees properly paid by the person on lodgment of the document.

39. Lodgment offences

- (1) If clause 13, 17 or 36(2) is contravened in relation to a registrable charge on property of a co-operative, the co-operative and an officer of the co-operative who is knowingly concerned in or a party to the contravention commits an offence.
Penalty: a fine of $1 000.
- (2) If a person who becomes the holder of a registrable charge fails to comply with clause 36(1), the person and, if the person is a corporation, an officer of the corporation who is in default, each contravene this subclause.
Penalty: a fine of $1 000.

40. Co-operative to keep documents relating to charges

A co-operative must, at the place where the co-operative register of charges referred to in clause 41 is kept, keep a copy of —

Penalty: a fine of $1 000.

41. Co-operative to keep register, and transitional provision

- (1) A co-operative must keep a co-operative register of charges.
- (2) On the creation of a charge, whether registrable or not, on property of the co-operative, or on the acquisition of property subject to a charge, whether registrable or not, the co-operative must as soon as practicable enter in the co-operative register of charges particulars of the charge, giving in relation to each charge —
  - (a) if the charge is a charge created by the co-operative, the date of its creation or, if the charge was a charge existing on property acquired by the co-operative, the date on which the property was so acquired; and
  - (b) a short description of the liability, whether present or prospective, secured by the charge; and
  - (c) a short description of the property charged; and
  - (d) the name of the trustee for debenture holders or, if there is no such trustee, the name of the chargee; and

- (e) the name of the person whom the co-operative believes to be the holder of the charge.
- (3) In the case of a transferred co-operative previously registered under the Companies (Co-operative) Act 1943, the register kept by the co-operative under section 96 of that Act is to be considered to be part of the register kept by the co-operative under subclause (2).
- (4) A co-operative register of charges kept by a co-operative pursuant to subclause (1) must be open for inspection —
  - (a) by a creditor or member of the co-operative, without payment; and
  - (b) by another person, on payment for each inspection of the amount, not exceeding the amount prescribed by the regulations, the co-operative requires or, if the co-operative does not require the payment of an amount, without charge.
- (5) A person may request a co-operative to furnish the person with a copy of the co-operative register of charges or any part of the register.
- (6) If a person makes a request under subclause (5), the co-operative must send the copy to that person —
  - (a) if the co-operative requires payment of an amount not more than the amount prescribed by the regulations, within 21 days after payment of the amount is received by the co-operative or within a longer period approved by the Registrar; or
  - (b) in a case to which paragraph (a) does not apply, within 21 days after the request is made or within such longer period as the Registrar approves.
- (7) If default is made in complying with any provision of this clause, the co-operative commits an offence.
Penalty: a fine of $1 000.

42. Certificates

- (1) If particulars of a charge are entered in the Register of Co-operative Charges in accordance with this Division, the Registrar must, on request by any person, issue to that person a certificate —
  - (a) setting out those particulars; and

- (b) stating the time and day when a notice in respect of the charge containing those particulars was lodged with the Registrar; and
  - (c) if the word “provisional” appears in the Register of Co-operative Charges next to the reference to the time and day, stating that fact.
- (2) A certificate issued under subclause (1) is evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.
- (3) If particulars of a charge are entered in the register of charges in accordance with this Division, and the word “provisional” does not appear in the register next to the reference to the time and day when a notice about the charge was lodged, the Registrar must, on request by any person, issue to that person a certificate stating that particulars of the charge are entered in the register in accordance with this Division.
- (4) A certificate issued under subclause (3) is evidence that the requirements of this Division as to registration, other than the requirements relating to the period after the creation of the charge within which notice in respect of the charge is required to be lodged, have been complied with.

43. Power of Supreme Court to rectify register of charges

If the Supreme Court is satisfied —

- (a) that a particular with respect to a registrable charge on property of a co-operative has been omitted from, or misstated in, the register of charges or a memorandum referred to in clause 37; and
- (b) that the omission or misstatement —
  - (i) was accidental or due to inadvertence or to some other sufficient cause; or
  - (ii) is not of a nature to prejudice the position of creditors or shareholders; or
  - (iii) on other grounds it is just and equitable to grant relief, the Court may, on the application of the co-operative or a person interested and on terms and conditions that the Court considers just and expedient, order that the omission or misstatement be rectified.

44. Registrar may exempt from compliance with certain requirements of Division

- (1) The Registrar may, by order published in the Gazette, exempt a person from compliance with the requirements of clause 13, 17 or 36 relating to —
  - (a) the particulars to be contained in a notice under the relevant clause; or
  - (b) the documents, other than the notice, to be lodged under the relevant clause; or
  - (c) the verification of a document required to be lodged under the relevant clause.
- (2) A person who is exempted under this clause from compliance with a requirement of clause 13, 17 or 36 must not contravene the condition.
- (3) If a person has contravened a condition to which an exemption under this clause is subject, the Supreme Court may, on the application of the Registrar, order the person to comply with the condition.

Division 3 — Order of priority

Subdivision 1 — General

45. Definitions

- (1) In this Division —

prior registered charge, in relation to another registered charge, means a charge the priority time of which is earlier than the priority time of the other charge;

priority time, in relation to a registered charge, means —

  - (a) except as provided by paragraph (b) or (c), the time and date appearing in the Register of Co-operative Charges in relation to the charge, being a time and day entered in the register pursuant to Division 2 Subdivision 3; or
  - (b) if a notice has been lodged under clause 17 in relation to a charge on property, being a charge that, at the time when the notice was lodged, was already registered under Division 2, the earlier or earliest time and day appearing in the Register of Co-operative Charges in relation to the charge, being a time and day entered in the register pursuant to clause 17; or
  - (c) to the extent that the charge has effect as varied by a variation, notice of which was required to be lodged under clause 36(2), the time and day entered in the registered charge means a charge that is registered under Division 2;

Register of Co-operative Charges in relation to the charge pursuant to clause 24;

subsequent registered charge, in relation to another registered charge, means a charge the priority time of which is later than the priority time of the other registered charge;

unregistered charge means a charge that is not registered under Division 2 but does not include a charge that is not a registrable charge.

- (2) A reference in this Division to a person having notice of a charge includes a reference to a person having constructive notice of the charge.
- (3) If, by virtue of the definition of priority time in subclause (1), a registered charge has 2 or more priority times each of which relates to a particular liability secured by the charge, each of the liabilities is, for the purposes of this Division, taken to be secured by a separate registered charge, the priority time of which is the priority time of the first-mentioned registered charge that relates to the liability concerned.

46. Priorities of charges

- (1) Subject to this clause, Subdivision 2 has effect on the priorities, in relation to each other, of registrable charges on the property of a co-operative.
- (2) The application, in relation to particular registrable charges, of the order of priorities of charges set out in Subdivision 2, is subject to —
  - (a) any consent (express or implied) that varies the priorities in relation to each other of the charges, being a consent given by the holder of one of those charges and being a charge that would otherwise be entitled to priority over the other charge; and
  - (b) any agreement between the chargees that affects the priorities in relation to each other of the charges in relation to which those persons are the chargees.
- (3) The holder of a registered charge, being a floating charge, on property of a co-operative is taken, for the purposes of subclause (2), to have consented to the charge being postponed to a subsequent registered charge, being a fixed charge that is created before the floating charge becomes fixed, on any of the property unless —

- (a) the creation of the subsequent registered charge contravened a provision of the instrument or resolution creating or evidencing the floating charge; and
  - (b) a notice about the floating charge indicating the existence of the provision referred to in paragraph (a) was lodged with the Registrar under clause 13, 17 or 36 before the creation of the subsequent registered charge.
- (4) If a charge relates to property of a kind to which a particular paragraph of clause 4(1) applies and also relates to other property, Subdivision 2 applies so as to affect the priority of the charge only in so far as it relates to the first-mentioned property and does not affect the priority of the charge in so far as it relates to the other property.

Subdivision 2 — Priority rules

47. General priority rules in relation to registered charges

- (1) A registered charge on property of a co-operative has priority over —
  - (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, unless the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created; and
  - (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, unless the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the registered charge had notice of the unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created; and
  - (c) an unregistered charge on the property created after the creation of the registered charge.
- (2) A registered charge on property of a co-operative is postponed to —
  - (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, if the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created; and

- (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, where the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the registered charge had notice of the unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created.

48. General priority rule in relation to unregistered charges

An unregistered charge on property of a co-operative has priority over —

- (a) a registered charge on the property that was created after the creation of the unregistered charge and does not have priority over the unregistered charge under clause 47(1); and
- (b) another unregistered charge on the property created after the first-mentioned unregistered charge.

49. Special priority rules

- (1) Except as provided by this clause, priority given by this Division to a charge over another charge does not extend to a liability that, at the priority time in relation to the first-mentioned charge, is not a present liability.
- (2) If a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures —
  - (a) a present liability and a prospective liability of an unspecified amount; or
  - (b) a prospective liability of an unspecified amount,priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge does not have actual knowledge extends to the prospective liability, whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge.
- (3) If a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures —
  - (a) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
  - (b) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount, and the notice lodged under clause 13 or 17 about the charge sets out the nature of the prospective liability and the amount specified, then priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge extends to a prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge to the extent of the maximum amount specified.

- (4) Subclause (3) applies whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and despite the fact that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the prospective liability became a present liability.
- (5) Subclause (6) applies if —
- (a) a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures —
- (i) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
- (ii) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount,
- but the notice lodged under clause 13 or 17 about the charge does not set out the nature of the prospective liability or the maximum amount specified; or
- (b) a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures a prospective liability of an unspecified amount.
- (6) In relation to a charge referred to in subclause (5) —
- (a) priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to a prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that had become a present liability at the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge; and
- (b) priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to a prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that became a present liability, as the result of the making of an advance, after the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge if, at that time, the terms of the first-mentioned charge required the chargee in relation to the charge to make the advance after that time.
- (7) Subclause (6)(b) extends to the prospective liability whether the advance was made before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and despite the fact that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the advance was made.

2. Application of Schedule

Except in so far as the contrary intention appears, this Schedule applies in relation to a receiver of property of a co-operative who is appointed after the commencement of this Schedule, even if the appointment arose out of a transaction entered into, or an act or thing done, before that commencement.

3. Persons not to act as receivers

- (1) A person is not qualified to be appointed, and cannot act, as receiver of property of a co-operative if the person —
  - (a) is a mortgagee of property of the co-operative; or
  - (b) is an auditor or an officer of the co-operative; or
  - (c) is an officer of a corporation that is a mortgagee of property of the co-operative; or
  - (d) is not a registered liquidator under the Corporations Act; or
  - (e) is an officer of a corporation related to the co-operative; or
  - (f) has at any time within the last 12 months been an officer or promoter of the co-operative or of a related corporation, unless the Registrar directs in writing that this paragraph does not apply in relation to the person in relation to the co-operative.
- (2) In subclause (1) —

officer, in relation to a corporation, does not include a receiver, appointed under an instrument whether before or after the commencement of this clause, of property of the body.

- (3) Subclause (1)(d) does not apply in relation to a corporation authorised by or under a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory to act as receiver of property of the co-operative.
- (4) Nothing in this clause prevents a person from acting as receiver of property of a co-operative under an appointment validly made before the commencement of this clause.

4. Supreme Court may declare whether controller is validly acting

- (1) If there is doubt, on a specific ground, about —
  - (a) whether a purported appointment of a person, after the commencement of this clause, as receiver of property of a co-operative is valid; or
  - (b) whether a person who has entered into possession, or assumed control, of property of a co-operative after the commencement of this clause did so validly under the terms of a charge on that property, the person, the co-operative or any of the co-operative's creditors may apply to the Supreme Court for an order under subclause (2).

- (2) On an application, the Supreme Court may make an order declaring whether or not —
  - (a) the purported appointment was valid; or
  - (b) the person entered into possession, or assumed control, validly under the terms of the charge, as the case may be, on the ground specified in the application or on some other ground.

5. Liability of controller

- (1) A receiver, or another authorised person, who, whether as agent for the co-operative or not, enters into possession or assumes control of a property of a co-operative for the purpose of enforcing a charge is, despite an agreement to the contrary, but without prejudice to the person's rights against the co-operative or another person, liable for debts incurred by the person in the course of the receivership, possession or control for services rendered, goods purchased or property hired, leased, used or occupied.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not constitute the person entitled to the charge a mortgagee in possession.
- (3) If —

- (a) a person (the controller) enters into possession or assumes control of property of a co-operative; and
- (b) the controller purports to have been properly appointed as a receiver of that property under a power contained in an instrument, but has not been properly appointed; and
- (c) civil proceedings in a federal court or a court of a State or Territory arise out of an act alleged to have been done by the controller, the court may, if it is satisfied that the controller believed on reasonable grounds that the controller had been properly appointed, order that —

- (d) the controller be relieved in whole or in part of a liability that the controller has incurred but would not have incurred if the controller had been properly appointed; and
- (e) a person who purported to appoint the controller as receiver be liable for an act, matter or thing in so far as the controller has been relieved under paragraph (d) of liability for that act, matter or thing.

6. Liability of controller under pre-existing agreement about property used by co-operative

- (1) This clause applies if —
  - (a) under an agreement made before the control day in relation to a controller of property of a co-operative, the co-operative continues after that day to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, property (the third party property) of which someone else is the owner or lessor; and
  - (b) the controller is controller of the third party property.
- (2) Subject to subclauses (4) and (7), the controller is liable for the portion of the rent or other amounts payable by the co-operative under the agreement that is attributable to a period —
  - (a) that begins more than 7 days after the control day; and
  - (b) throughout which —
    - (i) the co-operative continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, the third party property; and
    - (ii) the controller is controller of the third party property.
- (3) Within 7 days after the control day, the controller may give to the owner or lessor a notice that specifies the third party property and states that the controller does not propose to exercise rights in relation to the property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the co-operative or anyone else.

- (4) Despite subclause (2), the controller is not liable for the portion of the rent or other amounts payable by the co-operative under the agreement as is attributable to a period during which a notice under subclause (3) is in force, but the notice does not affect a liability of the co-operative.
- (5) A notice under subclause (3) ceases to have effect if —
  - (a) the controller revokes it by writing given to the owner or lessor; or
  - (b) the controller exercises, or purports to exercise, a right in relation to the third party property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the co-operative or another person.
- (6) For the purposes of subclause (5), the controller does not exercise, or purport to exercise, a right referred to in subclause (5)(b) merely because the controller continues to be in possession, or to have control, of the third party property, unless the controller —
  - (a) also uses the property; or
  - (b) asserts a right, as against the owner or lessor, to continue.
- (7) Subclause (2) does not apply to the extent that the Supreme Court, by order, excuses the controller from liability, but an order does not affect a liability of the co-operative.
- (8) The controller is not taken because of subclause (2) —
  - (a) to have adopted the agreement; or
  - (b) to be liable under the agreement otherwise than as mentioned in subclause (2).

7. Powers of receiver

- (1) Subject to this clause, a receiver of property of a co-operative has power to do, in Australia and elsewhere, all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in relation to, or as incidental to, the attainment of the objectives for which the receiver was appointed.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), but subject to any provision of the court order by which, or the instrument under which, the receiver was appointed, being a provision that limits the receiver's powers in any way, a receiver of property of a co-operative has, in addition to any powers conferred by the order or instrument, as the case may be, or by any other law, power, for the purpose of attaining the objectives for which the receiver was appointed —

- (a) to enter into possession and take control of property of the co-operative in accordance with the terms of the order or instrument; and
- (b) to lease, let on hire or dispose of property of the co-operative; and
- (c) to grant options over property of the co-operative on conditions that the receiver considers appropriate; and
- (d) to borrow money on the security of property of the co-operative; and
- (e) to insure property of the co-operative; and
- (f) to repair, renew or enlarge property of the co-operative; and
- (g) to convert property of the co-operative into money; and
- (h) to carry on a business of the co-operative; and
- (i) to take on lease or on hire, or to acquire, property necessary or convenient in connection with the carrying on of a business of the co-operative; and
- (j) to execute a document, bring or defend proceedings or do any other act or thing in the name of and on behalf of the co-operative; and
- (k) to draw, accept, make and endorse a bill of exchange or promissory note; and
- (l) to use a seal of the co-operative; and
- (m) to engage or discharge employees on behalf of the co-operative; and
- (n) to appoint a legal practitioner, accountant or other professionally qualified person to assist the receiver; and
- (o) to appoint an agent to do any business that the receiver is unable to do, or that it is unreasonable to expect the receiver to do, in person; and
- (p) if a debt or liability is owed to the co-operative, to prove the debt or liability in a bankruptcy, insolvency or winding-up and, in that connection, to receive dividends and to assent to a proposal for a composition or a scheme of arrangement; and
- (q) if the receiver was appointed under an instrument that created a charge on uncalled capital or uncalled premiums of the co-operative —
  - (i) in the name of the co-operative, to make a call for money unpaid on shares in the co-operative, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium; or

- (ii) on the giving of an adequate indemnity to a liquidator of the co-operative, in the name of the liquidator, to make a call for money unpaid on account of the nominal value of shares in the co-operative;
  - and
  - (r) to enforce payment of a call that is due and unpaid, whether the calls were made by the receiver or otherwise;
  - and
  - (s) to make or defend an application for the winding-up of the co-operative; and
  - (t) to refer to arbitration a question affecting the co-operative.
- (3) The conferring by this clause on a receiver of powers in relation to property of a co-operative does not affect the rights in relation to that property of any other person other than the co-operative.
- (4) In this clause, a reference, in relation to a receiver, to property of a co-operative is, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to the property of the co-operative in relation to which the receiver was appointed.

8. Controller's duty of care in exercising power of sale

- (1) In exercising a power of sale in respect of property of a co-operative, a controller must take all reasonable care to sell the property for —
- (a) if, when it is sold, it has a market value, not less than the market value; or
  - (b) otherwise, the best price that is reasonably obtainable, having regard to the circumstances existing when the property is sold.
- (2) Nothing in subclause (1) limits anything in Part 9 Division 3.

9. Supreme Court may authorise managing controller to dispose of property despite prior charge

- (1) On the application of a managing controller of property of a co-operative, the Supreme Court may by order authorise the controller to sell, or to dispose of in some other specified way, specified property of the co-operative, even though it is subject to a charge (the prior charge) that has priority over a charge (the controller's charge) on the property that the controller is enforcing.
- (2) The Supreme Court may make an order if satisfied that —

- (a) apart from the existence of the prior charge, the controller would have power to sell, or to dispose of, the property; and
  - (b) the controller has taken all reasonable steps to obtain the consent of the holder of the prior charge to the sale or disposal, but has not obtained the consent; and
  - (c) sale or disposal of the property under the order is in the best interests of the co-operative's creditors and of the co-operative; and
  - (d) sale or disposal of the property under the order will not unreasonably prejudice the rights or interests of the holder of the prior charge.
- (3) The Supreme Court may have regard to the need to protect adequately the rights and interests of the holder of the prior charge.
