5. Examinations

- (1) A person the Board considers to be appropriate to conduct the examination may be appointed by the Board to conduct an examination to determine whether a person desiring to be registered under the Act should be granted a Certificate of Osteopathy.
- (2) The examination referred to in subregulation (1) may be written or oral, or both, and may include requiring the person desiring to be registered under the Act to conduct a clinical examination of a patient.

- (3) The fee in Schedule 3 is prescribed as the fee payable by a person to sit an examination conducted under this regulation.
- (4) The Board is to give a person who passes the examination a Certificate of Osteopathy in a form approved by the Board.

6. Prescribed period for registration and renewal of registration under section 33

- (1) For the purposes of the Act section 33(a), the prescribed period for which registration has effect is a period equal to the period commencing on the day on which registration is granted and ending on the next succeeding 30 June.
- (2) For the purposes of the Act section 33(b), the prescribed period for which registration may be renewed is a period equal to the period commencing on the day on which the registration is renewed and ending on the next succeeding 30 June.

7. Day on which fee falls due under section 34(1)

For the purposes of the Act section 34(1), the day in each year on which the prescribed fee for the renewal of registration falls due is 30 June.

8. Prescribed information under section 36(g)

For the purposes of the Act section 36(g), the following information is prescribed —

- (a) any offence under the Act for which the osteopath has been convicted;
- (b) the date on which the osteopath was first registered as an osteopath.

9. Amendment of particulars

An osteopath may at any time apply to the Board for the amendment of the particulars recorded in the register relating to that osteopath, and if the Board is satisfied that the amendment may properly be made, the Board, on payment of the prescribed fee, is to cause those particulars to be amended.

10. Complaints to the complaints assessment committee

- (1) A complaint to the complaints assessment committee is to be in writing.
- (2) A person who complains to the complaints assessment committee must give to the committee —
  - (a) his or her name; and
  - (b) such other information relating to the person's identity as the Board or registrar may require.

11. Appointment of a conciliator

- (1) After consulting a person with knowledge of and experience in the conciliation of complaints, the complaints assessment committee may appoint a conciliator to preside over a conference under the Act section 76(2).
- (2) The Board may pay a conciliator appointed under this regulation a fee for, and such reasonable expenses as may be incurred by the conciliator in, presiding over conferences under the Act section 76(2).

12. Advertising

An osteopath who advertises, or causes to be advertised, any material relating to the osteopath's practice of osteopathy that —

- (a) is false, misleading or deceptive; or

- (b) creates an unjustified expectation of beneficial treatment; or
- (c) promotes the unnecessary or inappropriate use of the osteopath's services, commits an offence.

Penalty: a fine of $1 000.

13. Fees

The fees in Schedule 1 are the prescribed fees payable in respect of the matters specified in that Schedule and the persons liable for payment of the fees are the persons specified in that Schedule.
