6. Interpretation

In this Part words and phrases have the same definitions, and calculations are to be made in the same way, as in Part 13 of the Sentencing Act 1995.

Division 2 — Matters affecting the service of terms

7. When a term begins

- (1) Unless this section provides otherwise or an order is made under section 87 (d) or 88 (3) of the Sentencing Act 1995, a term, other than indefinite imprisonment, begins on the day it is imposed, or if the prisoner is not then in custody, on the day he or she is arrested under a warrant issued in respect of the sentence.
- (2) If a term is cumulative on one or more other terms then that term begins on the earliest date on which the prisoner could be released in relation to the last to be served of those other terms, whether or not the release would otherwise be under —
 - (a) a parole order; or
 - (b) a recognizance release order, or a parole order, made under the Crimes Act 1914 of the Commonwealth.

8. Order of service of fixed terms

- (1) A prisoner sentenced to serve 2 or more fixed terms is to serve those terms in this order —
 - (a) firstly, those that are not parole terms are to be served according to whether they are concurrent or cumulative with one another;
 - (b) secondly, the non-parole periods of those that are parole terms are to be served according to whether those parole terms are concurrent or cumulative with one another;

- (c) thirdly, unless and until released on parole, the balance of any parole terms after the end of any non-parole periods are to be served according to whether they are concurrent or cumulative with one another.
- (2) If while serving a fixed term a prisoner is sentenced to serve another fixed term, other than a fixed term ordered to be served partly cumulatively on another term, service of the former is suspended if necessary so that the terms can then be served in the order required by subsection (1).
- (3) In this section —
 - “fixed term” includes a period of imprisonment ordered under section 58 or 59 of the Sentencing Act 1995;
 - “non-parole period”, in relation to a parole term, means the period that under section 93 of the Sentencing Act 1995 the prisoner has to serve before he or she is eligible to be released on parole.

[Section 8 amended by No. 29 of 1998 s.13.]

9. Effect of escaping from custody

- (1) A term does not elapse while a prisoner is at large, having escaped lawful custody while serving it.
- (2) A prisoner who is returned to lawful custody after having escaped from it while serving a fixed term, must serve —
 - (a) the part of the term he or she had yet to serve at the time of escaping; plus
 - (b) one third of the lesser of —
 - (i) the period during which he or she was absent from lawful custody; or
 - (ii) the period beginning on the date of escape and ending on the date when, but for the escape, the fixed term would have ended, in addition to any term imposed for escaping lawful custody.

10. Effect of time before an appeal

- (1) Any period that a prisoner spends on bail while he or she is appealing against a conviction or a sentence does not count as time served in respect of any term that the prisoner is liable to serve.
- (2) Any period that a prisoner spends in custody while he or she is appealing against a conviction or a sentence counts as time served in respect of any term that he or she is then serving, but not in respect of any other term that he or she is liable to serve.

11. No release if prisoner in custody for another matter

Despite this Act and the Sentencing Act 1995, a prisoner must not be released (whether under an early release order or otherwise) in respect of a term if at the time the release could be ordered he or she is by law required to be kept in custody in respect of another matter.

The standard obligations of a parole order are that the prisoner —

- (a) must report to a community corrections centre within 72 hours after being released, or as otherwise directed by a CCO; and
- (b) must notify a CCO of any change of address or place of employment within 2 clear working days after the change.

the CEO may recommend to the Board that the prisoner no longer be supervised by a CCO.

- (3) If the CEO makes such a recommendation, the Board may direct the CEO that the prisoner need not be supervised while on parole and the CEO may cease the supervision of the prisoner.

- (4) If the Board makes another parole order in respect of the prisoner, the parole period is the shorter of —
- (a) a period equal to the parole period of the cancelled parole order; or

68. Period of early release order counts as time served

If during the period of an early release order —

- (a) the prisoner does not commit an offence (in this State or elsewhere) for which he or she is sentenced to imprisonment (whether the sentence is imposed during or after that period); and
- (b) the early release order is not cancelled,

then the period of the early release order is to be taken as time served in respect of the term, or the aggregate of terms, to which the early release order relates.

69. Effect of suspension

- (1) If an early release order in respect of a prisoner serving a fixed term is suspended, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the fixed term in custody and, unless the suspension ceases or the early release order is cancelled, is to be released in accordance with section 95 of the Sentencing Act 1995.
- (2) If an early release order in respect of a prisoner serving a life term is suspended, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the life term in custody.
- (3) The suspension of an early release order ceases at the end of the suspension period or when before then the suspension is cancelled.
- (4) When the suspension of an early release order ceases, the early release order and any other early release order taken to be suspended again have effect unless during the period of suspension the early release order was itself cancelled.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents another early release order being made under this Act in respect of a prisoner.

70. Offending while on early release order: automatic cancellation

- (1) If a prisoner, while subject to an early release order, commits an offence (in this State or elsewhere) and is sentenced to imprisonment (other than suspended imprisonment) for that offence —
 - (a) any early release order applicable to the prisoner when the offence was committed is cancelled by virtue of this section; and
 - (b) any early release order made in respect of the prisoner on or after the date on which the offence was committed and before the sentence of imprisonment was imposed is cancelled by virtue of this section, irrespective of whether it had taken effect or not.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) it does not matter if the sentence of imprisonment for the offence committed while subject to the early release order is imposed on the prisoner —
 - (a) after the period of the order; or
 - (b) after the date when, but for the cancellation of the order by virtue of subsection (1), the prisoner would have served or be taken to have served the term to which the order relates.

71. Effect of cancellation

- (1) If an early release order, other than a WRO, in respect of a prisoner serving a fixed term is cancelled after the prisoner is released under the order, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the fixed term in custody and is not entitled to be released until he or she has served the whole of that term.
- (2) If a WRO in respect of a prisoner serving a fixed term is cancelled after the prisoner is released under the order, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the fixed term in custody and is to be released in accordance with section 95 of the Sentencing Act 1995.

- (3) If a parole order in respect of a prisoner serving a life term is cancelled after the prisoner is released under the order, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the life term in custody.
- (4) If a parole order in respect of a prisoner serving indefinite imprisonment is cancelled after the prisoner is released under the order, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the indefinite imprisonment in custody.
- (5) If a parole order in respect of a person referred to in section 16 (1) (a) or (b) is cancelled after the person is released under the order, the person is liable to be again kept in strict or safe custody at the Governor's pleasure.
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents another early release order being made under this Act in respect of a prisoner.

72. Returning prisoner to custody

- (1) When an early release order is suspended or cancelled, the warrant of commitment that relates to the sentence of imprisonment to which the early release order relates is again in force and the prisoner may be arrested and kept in custody under that warrant.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), if an early release order is suspended or cancelled as mentioned in subsection (1), a warrant to have the prisoner arrested and returned to custody may be issued, whenever necessary —
 - (a) by a Supreme Court Judge or a District Court Judge;
 - (b) by the Board if it suspended or cancelled the order; or
 - (c) by the CEO if the CEO suspended or cancelled the order.
- (3) Notwithstanding sections 44 and 68, a warrant under subsection (2) may be issued, and the prisoner may be arrested, whether under that warrant or under the warrant of commitment referred to in subsection (1) at any time —
 - (a) during or after the period of the early release order; or

- (b) after the date when, but for the suspension or cancellation of the early release order, the prisoner would have served or be taken to have served the term to which the order relates.

73. Clean street time counts as time served
