This matter cannot be settled by telephone. However, if you have any questions about how to deal with this notice, please contact the Western Australian Electoral Commission by telephoning [insert telephone numbers].

[insert name and address of elector]

Dear elector

On [insert date], you were sent a notice regarding your apparent failure to vote at the State election held on [insert date].

[insert the wording from whichever of sections A and B applies]

- A. You did not respond to that notice on or before the response date stated in the notice.
- B. Thank you for returning the notice we sent you regarding your apparent failure to vote at the State election referred to above. In that notice you told us that —

[insert whichever paragraph applies]

- you voted at a polling place by ordinary vote, absent vote or provisional vote. The Western Australian Electoral Commission has used that information to re-check its records but remains unable to find any record of you having voted.
- you voted by early vote. The Western Australian Electoral Commission has used that information to re-check its records but remains unable to find any record of you having voted.
- you did not vote and your reason for not doing so. I have considered that reason but am unable to accept it as a valid and sufficient reason for not voting.

I am not satisfied with your response.

I therefore allege that you have committed an offence by failing to vote without a valid and sufficient reason.

If you do not want to be prosecuted in court for this offence, pay the modified penalty of [insert amount] on or before the response date.

Response date: [insert date]

If you do not pay the modified penalty on or before the response date, you may be prosecuted or enforcement action may be taken under the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Act 1994.

You may pay the modified penalty in one of the following ways —

Payment with Australia Post	[insert information about payment]
-----------------------------	---

Payment by BPAY	[insert information about payment]
Payment by mail	Using the reply paid envelope provided, return this notice with a cheque or money order made payable to the Western Australian Electoral Commission. Do not send cash in the mail.
Payment in person	Cash or cheque payments can be made at the Western Australian Electoral Commission [insert address] .

Payment of the modified penalty will end this matter. However, if you pay by cheque or credit card and that payment is dishonoured, you will be treated as if you had not paid the modified penalty.

If you are unable to respond to this notice because you are away from home or physically incapacitated, you may direct another person who has personal knowledge of the facts to respond to this notice on your behalf.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Electoral Commissioner
