Power of courts to make probation orders

9. (1) Subject to section 5, when a person is convicted by a court of any offence punishable by a term of imprisonment otherwise than in default of payment of a fine, if the court is of opinion that, having regard to the circumstances, including the nature of the offence, the character and personal history of the offender, his home surroundings and other environment, it is expedient to do so, the court may, instead of sentencing him, make an order requiring him to be under the supervision of a community corrections officer for such period, being not less than 6 months and not more than 5 years, as is specified in the order.

(1a) Where a court has convicted a person of an offence and requires a report from the chief executive officer under section 8 (a), before sentencing the person for the offence or making a probation order with respect to him, the court may, without prejudice to any other powers that the court may exercise, adjourn the hearing of the proceedings with respect to the offence.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to a person who, having been so convicted of such an offence before the date of the coming into operation of this Part, has not been sentenced for that offence before that date.

(3) The court that makes an order pursuant to subsection (1) shall specify therein a court of petty sessions, being the court of petty sessions nearest to the place where the probationer intends to reside, or being the court of petty sessions that the court making the order deems most convenient in the circumstances, to be the supervising court in respect of the order, and the court of petty sessions so appointed, or such other court of petty sessions as is substituted therefor as provided in this Act, shall for the purposes of this Act be the supervising court in respect of that order.

including, without limiting the generality of the expression, a requirement that the probationer submit himself to medical, psychiatric or psychological treatment, and for the purpose of receiving the treatment, if the court is satisfied that arrangements have been made or can be made for his reception, that he reside for such period, not exceeding 12 months as may be specified in the order, in an institution or place so specified, as the court making the order considers necessary for securing the good conduct of the probationer or for preventing a repetition by him of the same offence in respect of which he was placed on probation or the commission by him of other offences.

(b) A probation order may in addition to any other requirement permitted by this Act to be included therein, require the probationer to pay, on such terms and conditions as the court thinks fit, such damages for injury or compensation for loss, caused by or arising out of the act or omission that constitutes the offence in respect of which the order is made, as the court thinks reasonable.

(7) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (6), a court may include in a probation order requirements relating to the residence of the probationer named therein but, before making an order containing any such requirement, the court shall consider the home surroundings of the probationer and, if the order requires the probationer to reside in an institution, and arrangements have been made or can be made for his reception therein, the name of the institution and the period for which he is so required to reside shall be specified in the order.

Offenders Community Corrections Act 1963

(7b) Where a probation order requires that the probationer shall not leave or remain out of this State, the supervising court, or the chief executive officer, may permit the probationer to leave and remain out of the State for such time and upon such terms and conditions, as it or he thinks fit.

(7c) A permit under subsection (7b) shall be in writing under the hand of the clerk of the supervising court or the chief executive officer as the case requires, and to the extent necessary to give effect to the permit, the probation order to which the permit relates shall be deemed to be amended and shall apply accordingly.

(8) Where a court proposes to make a probation order it shall, before making the order, explain or cause to be explained to the offender in respect of whom it is proposed to make the order, in language likely to be readily understood by him —

- (a) the effect of the order, including any additional requirement proposed to be inserted in the order pursuant to subsection (6) or (7); and
- (b) that if he fails to comply with the requirements of the order or commits another offence during the probation period, he will, in addition to being liable to be dealt with for that offence, be liable to be sentenced for the offence for which he is then before the court; and the court shall not make the order unless the offender expresses his willingness to comply with the requirements of the order.

(9) The court by which a probation order is made shall forthwith after the order is made cause a copy of it to be given to the probationer named therein and to be sent to the chief executive officer and to the person in charge of any institution in which the probationer is required by the order to reside; and the court shall, except where the court is itself the supervising court, also cause to be sent to the clerk of the supervising court a copy of the probation order and such documents and information relating to the probationer and the offence with which he was charged before the court as it considers likely to be of assistance to the supervising court.

(9a) Where a probationer is permitted or required to reside in another State or Territory, the chief executive officer shall forthwith cause to be sent to the Chief or Principal Probation Officer, or other prescribed officer, of that State or Territory, on being requested by that officer so to do, a copy of the probation order certified under the hand of the chief executive officer as a true copy thereof together with such other documents and information relating to the case as the chief executive officer considers likely to be of assistance to any court, authority or person in the State or Territory with respect to the order.

(10) The chief executive officer shall assign a community corrections officer to be the community corrections officer in respect of the probation order and to supervise the probationer during the period the order is operative and the chief executive officer may from time to time so assign another community corrections officer in respect of the order in place of the community corrections officer previously so assigned.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a court that makes a probation order in respect of any offence from also making a community service order in respect of that offence.

(6) Where a probationer is brought or appears before the Supreme Court or the District Court and it is proved to the satisfaction of the court before which he is brought or appears that the probationer has failed to comply with a requirement of the probation order that court may deal with him for the offence in respect of which the probation order was made in any manner in which that court could deal with him if he had just been convicted of that offence and was before the court for sentencing.

(7) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 17, a probationer who is convicted of an offence, other than an offence against subsection (1), committed during the probation period is not on that account liable to be dealt with under this section for failing to comply with a requirement of the probation order.

[Section 16 inserted by No. 3 of 1969 s.9; amended by No. 57 of 1976 s.9; No. 87 of 1982 s.57; No. 89 of 1982 s.8; No. 61 of 1990 s.30.]

Breach of probation order by conviction

17. (1) If it appears on complaint in writing to a justice that a person in whose case a probation order has been made has been convicted in this State or elsewhere of an offence, other than an offence against section 16, committed during the probation period and has been dealt with in respect of that offence, the justice may issue a summons requiring that person to appear at the time and place specified in the summons or, where the complaint is in writing and on oath, may issue a warrant for his arrest.

s. 17

(2) A summons or warrant issued under this section shall require or direct the person so convicted to appear or to be brought before —

- (a) a court of petty sessions, if the probation order was made by a children's court or a court of petty sessions; or
- (b) the court by which the probation order was made, if the order was made by the Supreme Court or the District Court.

(2a) Where a warrant issued under this section directs a person to be brought before the Supreme Court or the District Court and he cannot forthwith be brought before that court because it is not then in session, the warrant has effect as if it directed him to be brought before a court of petty sessions and that court shall commit him to custody to be brought before the Supreme Court or District Court, as the case requires.

(3) If a person in whose case a probation order has been made by any court is convicted and dealt with by another court in respect of an offence, other than an offence against section 16, committed during the probation period, that other court may commit him to custody to be brought before —

- (a) a court of petty sessions, if the probation order was made by a children's court or a court of petty sessions; or
- (b) the court by which the probation order was made, if the order was made by the Supreme Court or the District Court,

(b) it is proved to the satisfaction of —

(i) a court of petty sessions, if the probation order was made by a children's court or a court of petty sessions; or that the probationer has been convicted of and dealt with in respect of an offence, other than an offence against section 16, committed in this State or elsewhere during the probation period, such court may deal with a probationer for the offence for which the order was made in any manner in which the court by which the order was made could deal with him if he had just been convicted by or before that court of that offence.

s. 18

(7) If a probationer in whose case the probation order was made by a court of summary jurisdiction is convicted before the Supreme Court or the District Court of an offence committed during the probation period, the Supreme Court or District Court may deal with him for the offence for which the order was made in any manner in which the court of summary jurisdiction could deal with him if it had just convicted him of that offence, and any sentence imposed shall be regarded as the sentence of the court of summary jurisdiction except that for the purposes of any appeal against that sentence it shall be regarded as a sentence imposed on a conviction on indictment and the provisions of Chapter LXIX of The Criminal Code, so far as applicable, apply accordingly.

(8) If a probationer in whose case the probation order was made by the District Court is convicted before the Supreme Court of an offence committed during the probation period, the Supreme Court may deal with him for the offence for which the probation order was made in any manner in which the District Court could deal with him if he had just been convicted of that offence and was before that court for sentencing, and any sentence imposed by the Supreme Court shall, for all purposes, be regarded as the sentence of the District Court.

(8a) A court may exercise the powers conferred on it by this section notwithstanding any provision of any other Act.

[Section 17 inserted by No. 3 of 1969 s.10; amended by No. 57 of 1976 s.10; No. 87 of 1982 s.58; No. 89 of 1982 s.9; No. 61 of 1990 s.30.]

(2) In any proceedings under this Part upon a complaint averring the facts referred to in subsection 1 (a) and (b), the person charged with breach of probation may be asked by the court before which he appears or is brought whether —

- (a) he was convicted of the offence in respect of which the probation order was made; and
- (b) he was convicted of an offence during the probation period, and if he admits either or both of those convictions, no further proof of the conviction or convictions so admitted, is necessary.

(3) Where a person charged with breach of probation is asked by the court pursuant to subsection (2) concerning a conviction averred in the complaint and the person does not admit that conviction, the court may, without making any order as to costs,

[Section 20A inserted by No. 57 of 1976 s.13; amended by No. 5 of 1990 s4; No. 61 of 1990 s.30.]

Community service orders in respect of convicted persons

20B. (1) Subject to sections 20D and 20E, when a person of or over 17 years of age is before a court for sentencing after being convicted of any offence punishable by a term of imprisonment otherwise than in default of payment of a fine, the court may,

instead of sentencing him, make an order requiring him to perform unpaid work in accordance with this Part and the regulations for such number of hours (being in the aggregate not less than 40 nor more than 240) as may be specified in the order.

(2) [omitted under Reprints Act 1984 s.7 (4) (e).]

(3) The court that makes a community service order shall specify in the order a court of petty sessions being the court of petty sessions nearest to the place where the offender intends to reside, or being the court of petty sessions that the court making the order deems most convenient in the circumstances, to be the supervising court in respect of the order and the court of petty sessions so appointed, or such other court of petty sessions, as is substituted for that court pursuant to section 20C, shall for the purposes of this Act be the supervising court in respect of that order.

(4) A court of petty sessions when acting as a supervising court shall be constituted by a stipendiary magistrate.

(5) A community service order shall require the offender to report himself in person at a place or to a person specified in the order within such time (if any) as is so specified.

(6) A community service order may require the offender to pay, on such terms and conditions as the court making the order thinks fit, such damages for injury or compensation for loss, caused by or arising out of the act or omission that constitutes the offence in respect of which the order is made, as the court thinks reasonable.

(6a) Subject to section 20D (1a), a community service order may require the offender to attend such educational course as the chief executive officer directs.

s. 20B

(6b) Where a community service order contains a requirement under subsection (6a) —

- (a) the chief executive officer shall direct the offender to attend such educational course as the chief executive officer considers suitable for such number of hours (being in the aggregate not more than one-quarter of the number of hours of work that the offender is required to perform under the order) as the chief executive officer thinks fit; and
- (b) hours during which the offender attends an educational course in accordance with the requirement and section 20F (1) (ca) shall for the purposes of sections 20F and 20G, be regarded as hours for which the offender has performed community work.

(7) The court by which a community service order is made shall forthwith after the order is made cause the order to be reduced to writing in the prescribed form and —

- (a) cause a copy of it to be given to the offender;
- (b) cause a copy of it to be sent to the chief executive officer; and
- (c) except where the court is itself the supervising court, cause a copy of it to be sent to the clerk of the supervising court together with such documents and information relating to the offender and the offence in respect of which the order was made as it considers likely to be of assistance to the supervising court.

(8) The chief executive officer shall assign a community corrections officer to be the relevant officer in respect of the community service order and may from time to time so assign another community corrections officer in place of the officer previously assigned.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a court that makes a community service order in respect of any offence from also making a probation order in respect of that offence or imposing any disqualification on the offender.

Offenders Community Corrections Act 1963

s. 20C

(10) A person who feels himself aggrieved by a summary conviction of a court of summary jurisdiction for an offence in respect of which a community service order is made may, pursuant to those provisions of Part VIII of the Justices Act 1902, that relate to an ordinary appeal under that Act, appeal against that conviction notwithstanding that no imprisonment is adjudged thereby without the option of a fine.

[Section 20B inserted by No. 57 of 1976 s.14; amended by No. 89 of 1982 s.10 and 26'; No. 47 of 1987 s.21; No. 113 of 1987 s.32; No. 61 of 1990 ss.30 and 31.]

Substitution of new supervising court

20C. (1) Where the supervising court is satisfied that an offender has changed or proposes to change his place of residence, so that some other court of petty sessions is or will be the nearest court of petty sessions to the new place of residence of the offender or the most convenient in the circumstances of the case, the supervising court may, by order, amend the community service order that relates to the offender by substituting that other court of petty sessions as the supervising court in place of the court originally appointed as such.

(2) Where a community service order is amended as provided in subsection (1) the court making the amending order shall send to the new supervising court referred to in the amending order a copy of the amending order together with such documents and information relating to the offender and the offence in respect of which the community service order was made, as it considers likely to be of assistance to that court.

[Section 20C inserted by No. 57 of 1976 s.15.]

Circumstances in which a community service order may be made

20D. (1) A court shall not make a community service order in respect of a person unless the person consents and the court —

- (a) has been notified by a community corrections officer that arrangements exist for persons who reside in the area in which that person intends to reside to perform work under such an order;

- (b) is satisfied, after considering a report from a community corrections officer about the person and his circumstances, and, if the court thinks necessary, hearing a community corrections officer, —
 - (i) that the person is a suitable person to perform work under such an order; and
 - (ii) that, if such an order is made, work of a suitable nature can be provided for the person under the arrangements mentioned in paragraph (a).

(1a) A court shall not include a requirement under section 20B (6a) in a community service order made in respect of a person unless the court —

- (a) has been notified by a community corrections officer that arrangements exist for persons who reside in the area in which that person intends to reside to attend an educational course of a suitable nature; and
- (b) is satisfied, after considering a report from a community corrections officer about the person and his circumstances, and, if the court thinks necessary, hearing a community corrections officer, —
 - (i) that the person is a suitable person to attend an educational course;
 - and
 - (ii) that, if such a requirement is made, an educational course of a suitable nature can be provided for the person under the arrangements mentioned in paragraph (a).

(2) Without prejudice to any other powers that the court may exercise, where a person is before a court for sentencing the court may, in order to obtain any notification, report or information from a community corrections officer for the purposes of subsection (1) or (1a), adjourn the hearing of the proceedings.

s. 20E

(3) Where a court proposes to make a community service order it shall, before making the order, explain or cause to be explained to the person in respect of whom it is proposed to make the order in language likely to be readily understood by him —

- (a) the purpose and effect of the order;
- (b) the consequences that may follow if he fails to comply with the order or with any of the prescribed requirements;
- (c) that the order may be reviewed on his application or on the application of the relevant officer.

(2) Where a court makes a community service order in respect of a person and there is or are in force in respect of that person one or more other such orders, the court shall not order the offender to perform work for a number of hours that would require him, after the making of the first-mentioned order, to perform work under that order and the previous order or orders for a number of hours that, in the aggregate, exceeds 240.

[Section 20G inserted by No. 57 of 1976 s.19; amended by No. 89 of 1982 s.13; No. 47 of 1987 s.21; No. 113 of 1987 s.32; No. 61 of 1990 s.30.]

Breach of requirements of, or relating to community service order

20H. (1) If at any time while a community service order is in force the offender fails to comply with any requirement of the order or with any prescribed requirement he is guilty of an offence against this section.

(2) If at any time while a community service order is in force it appears on complaint in writing to a justice that the offender has failed to comply with the order or with any prescribed requirement, the justice may issue a summons requiring the offender to appear at a court of petty sessions at the time and place specified in the summons, or may, if the complaint is in writing and on oath, issue a warrant for his arrest directing that he be brought before a court of petty sessions as soon as practicable after his arrest.

(3) The court of petty sessions before which the offender is required to appear or is directed to be brought pursuant to subsection (2) may exercise the jurisdiction and powers conferred on it by this section notwithstanding any provision of any other Act.

(4) If the court of petty sessions before which an offender appears or is brought pursuant to subsection (2), convicts the offender of an offence against subsection (1), that court may —

- (a) without prejudice to the continuation of the community service order, impose on him a fine not exceeding $200;

- (5) Where a court of summary jurisdiction exercises the power referred to in subsection (4) (b), that court —
 - (a) may, if it thinks necessary, extend, in relation to the community service order, the period of 12 months specified in section 20F (3);
 - (b) shall not increase the number of hours for which the offender is required to perform work under the community service order to such an extent as would require him, after the making of that increase, to perform work under that order and all other such orders in force in respect of him (if any) for a number of hours that, in the aggregate, exceeds 240.
- (6) Where a court of summary jurisdiction exercises the power referred to in subsection (4) (d), that court shall as soon as practicable thereafter send to the Crown Solicitor a certificate signed by a justice certifying that the offender has failed to comply with such requirement of the community service order, or prescribed requirement, as is specified in the certificate, together with such other particulars of the case as the court thinks desirable.

community service order, or with a prescribed requirement, that court may deal with him for the offence in respect of which the community service order was made in any manner in which that court could deal with him if he had just been convicted of that offence and was before the court for sentencing.

(9) In proceedings before the Supreme Court or the District Court under this section, any question whether an offender has failed to comply with a requirement of a community service order, or with a prescribed requirement, shall be determined by the judge and not by the verdict of a jury.

(10) A complaint under this section for failure to comply with a requirement of a community service order, or with a prescribed requirement, may aver that the defendant is the person in respect of whom the relevant community service order was made.

(11) In any proceedings under this section upon a complaint averring the fact referred to in subsection (10) the person charged with failure to comply with a requirement of a community service order, or with a prescribed requirement, may be asked by the court before which he appears or is brought whether he was convicted of the offence in respect of which the relevant community service order was made and if he admits that conviction no further proof of the conviction so admitted is necessary.

- (a) concerning the release of a prisoner from prison on parole in respect of a special term;

(6) Where the Board has made a determination under subsection (3) (b) or (5) (b) it is not required to make an order under section 40A (1) in respect of the prisoner, but the determination does not prevent the Board from subsequently making such an order.

| 4. | Order under section 40D | Such period not exceeding 5 years as the Governor thinks fit and specifies in the Order. |

Note

In item 2 of this Table —

“prescribed period” means a period calculated by reference to the term of imprisonment in respect of which the parole order was made so that where that term is —

- (a) less than 18 months and section 40A (4) does not apply to the parole order — the prescribed period is 6 months;
- (b) less than 18 months and the parole order is one of 2 or more parole orders to which section 40A (4) applies — the prescribed period is equal to one-third of that term;
- (c) not less than 18 months but less than 6 years — the prescribed period is equal to one-third of that term;
- (d) not less than 6 years — the prescribed period is 2 years;

“pre-release period” in relation to a term of imprisonment means the period (if any) that began at the expiration of the non-parole period, and ended when the prisoner was released on parole but does not include any period during which the prisoner was not serving that term of imprisonment.

(2a) Subject to subsection (2b) and (2f) the parole period shall have effect from the date of release of the prisoner and where the prisoner is released under 2 or more orders the respective parole periods shall have effect concurrently.

s. 41

(2b) Notwithstanding section 40A (1) or (2), if the prisoner is released under 2 or more parole orders to which section 40A (4) applies the parole periods shall have effect cumulatively or concurrently according as the terms of imprisonment are cumulative upon or concurrent with each other and, where it is necessary in order to resolve any doubt, the relevant parole orders may specify the sequence in which any cumulative parole periods shall have effect.

(2c) Notwithstanding section 40A, if the aggregate parole period that would result from the operation of subsection (2b) would exceed 2 years the prisoner shall not be released on parole until such time as release can be effected under an order or orders in respect of which the parole period does not exceed 2 years.

(2d) If the extended service period as defined by section 39 (4) is reduced under the regulations the aggregate parole period referred to in subsection (2c) shall be reduced by the same amount.

(2e) If the prisoner is released under 2 or more parole orders to which section 40A (4) applies and the aggregate of the terms of imprisonment in respect of which the parole orders were made is less than 18 months the parole period for each of those terms shall be the period calculated in accordance with the formula —

where —

A is the period calculated by deducting from 6 months a period equal to the period (if any) between the completion of the mandatory period under section 38 (6) (b) and release on parole;

B is the length of that term; and

C is the aggregate of those terms.

Offenders Community Corrections Act 1963

s. 41

(2f) Where the prisoner is released under a parole order under section 40 and a parole order or orders under section 40A the parole periods shall have effect cumulatively or concurrently according as the terms of imprisonment are cumulative upon or concurrent with each other.

(2g) If the aggregate parole period that results from the operation of subsection (2f) exceeds 2 years the parole period in respect of each of the parole orders shall be deemed to have been completed for the purposes of this Part if and when the prisoner has been on parole for 2 years.

(2h) Where 2 or more parole orders are made in respect of the prisoner they may be made in the same document.

(2i) During the parole period the prisoner shall comply with the requirements specified in the parole order.

(3) A parole order shall specify prescribed requirements and such other requirements as the Board or the Governor, as the case may be, considers necessary in any particular case, but in every parole order there shall be inserted a requirement that the prisoner shall not frequently consort with reputed criminals or persons of ill-repute.

(3a) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3), the parole order may include requirements relating to the residence of the prisoner in this State or if the prisoner consents, in another State or a Territory.

(3b) Unless the parole order otherwise permits or requires the prisoner to reside in another State or Territory, it is a requirement of every parole order that the prisoner shall not leave or remain out of this State except in compliance in every respect with the terms and conditions of a permit in writing of the Board or of the chief executive officer.

s. 41

(3c) Where a parole order requires that the prisoner shall not leave or remain out of this State, the Board or the chief executive officer may permit the prisoner to leave and remain out of the State for such time and upon such terms and conditions, as it or he thinks fit.

(3d) A permit under subsection (3c) shall be in writing under the hand of a member of the Board or the chief executive officer as the case requires, and to the extent necessary to give effect to the permit the parole order shall be deemed to be amended and shall apply accordingly.

(3e) Where a permit is issued by the chief executive officer under subsection (3c) that officer shall forthwith cause to be sent to the secretary to the Board a copy of the permit together with a report setting out the facts and circumstances under which the permit was issued.

(3f) Where pursuant to a parole order, a prisoner is required or permitted to reside in another State or a Territory, the chief executive officer shall send to the Chief or Principal Parole Officer, or other prescribed officer, in that State or Territory, on being requested by that officer so to do, a copy of the parole order certified in writing under his hand as a true copy, and such documents and information relating to the case as he considers likely to be of assistance to any authority or officer in the State or Territory with respect to the order.

(4) The chief executive officer shall assign a community corrections officer to supervise the prisoner to whom a parole order relates during the parole period and may from time to time assign another community corrections officer in place of the community corrections officer previously so assigned.

Breach of parole order otherwise than by conviction

41A. (1) A prisoner who at any time during the parole period whether in this State or elsewhere fails to comply with a requirement of the parole order is guilty of an offence against this section.

(2) (a) If at any time during the parole period it appears on complaint in writing to a justice that a prisoner has failed to comply with a requirement of a parole order, the justice may issue a summons requiring the prisoner to appear at a court of petty sessions at the time and place specified in the summons or may, if the complaint is in writing and on oath, issue a warrant for his arrest directing that he be brought before a court of petty sessions at the place specified as soon as practicable after his arrest.

(b) The court of petty sessions before which the prisoner is so required to appear or is directed to be brought, as the case may be, has jurisdiction to hear and determine the complaint.

(3) If the court of petty sessions before which the prisoner appears or is brought pursuant to subsection (2), convicts the prisoner of an offence against this section, the court may, without effecting the continuation of the parole order, impose on him a fine not exceeding $100.

(4) The conviction of a prisoner of an offence against this section does not limit the power of the Board to cancel, suspend, amend or vary his parole pursuant to section 44.

(5) Without limiting the provisions of section 44 (2), a prisoner who is sentenced to another term of imprisonment in respect of an offence committed during the parole period whether in this State or elsewhere, is not on account of the commission of that offence liable to be dealt with under this section.

and

(b) the prisoner does not commit an offence during the parole period for which offence the prisoner is sentenced to imprisonment, whether during or after the parole period, the prisoner —

(c) shall be regarded as having served the term of imprisonment or the detention during the Governor's pleasure in a prison, as the case may be, to which the parole period relates; and

(d) by force of this section is wholly discharged from that imprisonment or detention and in the case of an habitual criminal ceases to be an habitual criminal,
