and reprinted pursuant to the Amendments Incorporation Act, 1938.]

AN ACT to constitute and regulate and confer powers on and to provide for the management of The Eastern Goldfields Transport Board; to take over, construct, maintain and work tramways within the districts of the Municipalities of Kalgoorlie and Boulder and the Kalgoorlie Road District; and to construct, maintain and work all other forms of road transport within the said districts and any adjoining road district, and to generate and supply electricity, to acquire from such first-mentioned local authorities their interests in certain agreements; and for other purposes incidental thereto.

[Assented to 24th January, 1947.]

¹ Came into operation on 1/3/1955. See Gazette 18/2/55. p. 343.

² Came into operation on 1/1/1967. See s. 2 of Act 25/66.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of the Acts mentioned in the First Schedule hereto and of the Provisional Orders thereby confirmed and the Agreements and Indenture mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto, the Tramway undertakings and certain assets connected therewith within the Municipalities of Kalgoorlie and Boulder and the district of the Kalgoorlie Road Board are owned and operated by The Kalgoorlie Electric Tramways Limited (hereinafter in this preamble referred to as "the said Company"), a company duly incorporated in England and registered and carrying on business in the State of Western Australia: And whereas provision is made in the said Agreements and Indenture in certain events which have happened for the handing over by the said Company to the Local Authorities of the Municipality of Kalgoorlie, the Municipality of Boulder and the Kalgoorlie Road Board of the said undertakings and assets at times which have now passed and upon and subject to certain terms referred to in the said Agreements and Indenture: And whereas the times for the handing over of such undertaking and assets have by agreement between the said Local Authorities and the said Company been extended until the thirty-first day of December, 1946: And whereas it is provided inter alia by section sixteen of The Tramways Act, 1885, that nothing in that Act contained shall authorise any local authority to place or run carriages upon a tramway therein referred to and to demand and take tolls and charges in respect of the use of such carriages: And whereas the said Local Authorities are desirous of taking over from the said Company of the said undertaking and assets, and of jointly constructing maintaining and working tramways within the boundaries of their respective municipalities and district and in any adjoining district, and also of generating electricity for working the said tramways, and for such purposes to constitute as in this Act mentioned a Board to be known as The Eastern Goldfields Transport Board with the powers, duties and functions in this Act mentioned: And whereas the powers of borrowing money for the purposes aforesaid conferred on such Local Authorities under the existing law are considered insufficient for the purpose of enabling the Board to take over such undertaking and assets and to carry out such works: And whereas the said Local Authorities have requested and it is expedient that Parliament should grant legal entity to such Board with the necessary powers for the purpose of carrying out the acts, matters and things aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1970, s. 2.

3. In this Act, unless inconsistent with the context or subject matter—

“Board” means The Eastern Goldfields Transport Board constituted under this Act;

“local authority” means the municipality of the Town of Kalgoorlie or the municipality of the Shire of Boulder;

“undertaking” includes all the land, buildings, hereditaments, goods, chattels, vehicles, moneys, revenues, credits, debts, bills, notes, goodwill, things in action, contracts, agreements, securities, and other assets whatsoever or wheresoever of the Board and all rights, powers, privileges, licences, and authorities of the Board and without limiting the generality of the foregoing includes all tramways and all trams, trolley buses, omnibuses and other vehicles and all lands (including any easement, right, interest or privilege in, over, or affecting any lands), buildings, works, appurtenances, rolling stock, vehicles, furniture, books, equipment, machinery, plant, transmission lines, cables, appliances, tools, stores, stock and things (including the right of user of any patent) belonging to the Board.

Date of
of Board.

4. The Board shall be deemed to be constituted as from date of publication in the Government Gazette of notice by the Governor appointing the first Chairman of the Board.¹

Vesting of rights, etc.,
under certain Acts and agreements.
First and Second Schedules.

5. As from the date of constitution of the Board all the rights, interests and powers of the local authorities under and conferred by the Acts mentioned in the First Schedule hereto and by the provisional orders thereby respectively confirmed and under and conferred by the agreements and indenture mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto shall notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act to the contrary vest in the Board which shall thereupon be deemed a party to each of the said agreements and indenture in the place of the local authority or authorities named therein.

PART II.—THE EASTERN GOLDFIELDS TRANSPORT BOARD.

6. For the purposes of carrying this Act into execution there shall be a Board constituted as hereinafter provided and that Board is, for the purposes of the State Transport Co-ordination Act, 1966, subject to the Minister.

Creation of Board. Amended by No. 51 of 1966, s. 2.

7. The Board shall be a body corporate by the name of The Eastern Goldfields Transport Board with perpetual succession and a Common Seal which shall be officially and judicially noticed with power to break, alter and change the same from time to time; and shall by that name be capable in law of suing and being sued.

Board to be a body corporate.

8. (1) Subject to subsection (4) of section twenty-two of this Act, the Board shall consist of six members, elected as provided in that section, and a chairman, appointed by the Governor from a panel of two names submitted respectively by the Council of the Town of Kalgoorlie and by the Council of the Shire of Boulder.

Board. Repealed and re-enacted by No. 25 of 1966, s. 4. Amended by No. 55 of 1970, s. 3.

(2) The name of a person who is a member of the Council of one of the local authorities shall not be included in the panel of names submitted for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section.

9. The Chairman shall subject to this Act be entitled to hold the office of Chairman for a period of two years and be eligible for re-appointment.

Chairman, duration of office.

Vacation of office, new appointment.

10. The Governor may at any time accept the resignation of or remove the Chairman and may from time to time as any vacancy occurs in the office of Chairman appoint some person to fill the vacancy.

Commencement of duties by members. Repealed and re-enacted by No. 25 of 1966, s. 5.

11. (1) After the coming into operation of the Eastern Goldfields Transport Board Act Amendment Act, 1966, a person elected to the Board shall, except where he is elected to fill an extraordinary vacancy, take up his duties as member on the first day of July next following his election.

(2) A person elected to fill an extraordinary vacancy on the Board shall take up his duties as member on the day following his election.

Duration of office of members. Repealed and re-enacted by No. 25 of 1966, s. 6.

12. Subject to the succeeding provisions of this Act, every member of the Board who takes up his duties (including any member holding office on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven) shall hold office until and including the thirtieth day of June in the second year after his election and is eligible for re-election.

Extraordinary vacancy.

13. If a member dies or resigns his office or neglects or refuses to accept such office or otherwise becomes disqualified then the office shall become vacant and every such vacancy shall be deemed an extraordinary vacancy.

Filling extraordinary vacancy.

14. In the event of the office of any member of the Board becoming vacant under the preceding section the Board shall forthwith notify the same to the local authority which or the ratepayers whereof the member previously holding that office represented and the Council or Board of the local authority concerned shall as soon as practicable elect a person to fill such extraordinary vacancy.

15. Every member elected to fill an extraordinary vacancy shall be deemed for the purposes of retirement to have been elected when his immediate predecessor in office was elected and shall retire accordingly, but any member so retiring shall be capable of being re-elected if duly qualified.

Duration of office of members filling extraordinary vacancy.

16. Every person elected as a member may at any time resign and the resignation shall be complete from the date of its being received by the Chairman of the Board.

Resignation.

17. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Board unless there shall be present the Chairman and at least four members including at least one representative of each Local Authority or the ratepayers thereof. Provided however that in the absence for any reason of the Chairman five members including at least one representative of each local authority or the ratepayers thereof may constitute a quorum for the meeting and in such case those present shall before entering upon any other business appoint one of their number to act as Chairman of the meeting, but if at any meeting of the Board a quorum is not constituted owing to the absence of a representative from each of the local authorities or the ratepayers thereof, such meeting shall be adjourned for one week at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting the chairman and four members at least are present, such members shall constitute a quorum notwithstanding that they do not include one representative of each local authority or the ratepayers thereof.

Quorum.

18. At all meetings of the Board each member present shall have a deliberative vote, but the Chairman shall have a casting vote only. A member acting as Chairman pursuant to the last preceding section shall have a deliberative but not a casting vote.

Voting Powers.

Remuneration of Board. Repealed and re-enacted by No. 25 of 1966, s. 7.

19. The Chairman and members of the Board shall receive, out of the general fund of the Board, such remuneration as the Governor may, from time to time, allow.

Qualification and disqualification of members. Repealed and re-enacted by No. 25 of 1966, s. 8.

20. (1) A person is qualified for election to the Board, if he is eligible or qualified, under the Local Government Act, 1960, to be elected as a member of the council of the local authority that, or the ratepayers of which, he is to represent; and, subject to subsection (2) of this section, a member of the Board is disqualified from holding office as such, if, in the circumstances, he would be disqualified under that Act from acting as mayor, president or councillor of the local authority that, or the ratepayers of which, he represents.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a member of the Board to make and subscribe an oath or affirmation of allegiance, before taking up his duties.

21. [Repealed by No. 25 of 1966, s. 9.]

Election of members. Repealed and re-enacted by No. 25 of 1966, s. 10. Amended by No. 32 of 1970, s. 2; No. 55 of 1970, s. 4.

22. (1) The members of the Board shall be elected as to—

- (a) two of their number, one by the ratepayers of each local authority; and
- (b) four of their number, two by the Council of each local authority, each of whom shall be a member of the Council of the local authority that elected him.

(2) The election of the members mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section shall be conducted every second year, at the same time as, and as nearly as practicable as though it were, an election of councillors of the local authority, special ballot papers being (where necessary) provided by the local authority for that purpose.

(3) The election of the members mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section shall be conducted every second year, not later than during the month of June, in such manner as each council may, for its own election, determine.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Act—

(a) the next succeeding election of members of the Board shall be conducted under and in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) of this section, during the year nineteen hundred and seventy-one;

(b) the person holding the office of Chairman of the Board immediately prior to the date of the coming into operation of the Eastern Goldfields Transport Board Act Amendment Act, 1970, shall be deemed to have been appointed to hold that office until and including the thirtieth day of June nineteen hundred and seventy-one, and subject to this Act, he is entitled to hold that office accordingly;

(c) each person holding the office of member of the Board immediately prior to the date of the coming into operation of the Eastern Goldfields Transport Board Act Amendment Act, 1970, shall be deemed to have been elected to that office until and including the thirtieth day of June nineteen hundred and seventy-one, and subject to this Act, is entitled to hold office accordingly.

(5) The powers of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership thereof, but if any vacancy occurs in such membership before the election of members is conducted during the year nineteen hundred and seventy-one, the number required to form a quorum shall be reduced by the number of such vacancies, and the number as so reduced shall constitute a quorum, notwithstanding that such number does not include one representative of each local authority or the ratepayers thereof.

Vacancy in membership not to affect Board's powers.

PART III.—POWERS OF BOARD.

Powers of Board.
cf. Fremantle Private Act, 1903, ss. 2 and 26; and Vic. No. 3732, s. 58.

23. Subject to and for the purposes of this Act, the Board is hereby authorised and empowered—
