165. (1) The Governor may from time to time by proclamation exempt any portion of the State from the operation of this Act, or any Part thereof, and may at any time revoke any such proclamation.

(2) Whilst any such proclamation is in force, this Act or Part thereof, as the case may be, shall not be operative in the portion of the State thereby exempted.

(3) Every proclamation made under this section shall within fourteen days of the date of its publication in the Government Gazette, if Parliament is then sitting, be laid on the Table of both Houses of Parliament, and if Parliament is not sitting, then within thirty days of the opening of the next ensuing session, such proclamation shall be laid on the Table of both Houses.

(4) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution disallowing any such proclamation, of which resolution notice has been given at any time within thirty sitting days of such House after such proclamation has been laid before it, such proclamation shall thereupon cease to have effect, but without affecting the validity or curing the invalidity of anything done or of the omission of anything in the meantime. This subsection shall apply notwithstanding that the said thirty sitting days, or some of them, do not occur in the same session of Parliament, or during the same Parliament as that in which the proclamation is laid before the House.

(5) When a resolution has been passed, as hereinbefore mentioned, notice of such resolution shall be published in the Gazette.
