Children's Court of Western Australia Act 1988

An Act to establish the Children's Court of Western Australia and for related purposes.

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Children's Court of Western Australia Act 1988*¹.

[Section 1 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 4.]

2. Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on such day as is or such days as are respectively fixed by proclamation¹.

3. Interpretation

(1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears —

“CEO” means the chief executive officer of the Department;

“child” means —

- (a) any boy or girl under the age of 18 years;
- (b) in the absence of positive evidence as to age, any boy or girl apparently under the age of 18 years; and
- (c) any boy or girl dealt with under section 19(2);

“Court” means the Children's Court of Western Australia established under this Act;

“Department” means the department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of this Act;

“Judge” means a Judge of the Court or an acting Judge of the Court and includes a Judge of the Supreme Court or a District Court Judge when performing a function of the Court under section 6(3);

“magistrate” means a magistrate of the Court;

“President” means the Judge who is appointed under section 7 to be the President of the Court;

“registrar”, in relation to the Court sitting at a place, means the person appointed under this Act to be the registrar of the Court at that place.

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, “legal experience” is —
- (a) standing and practice in the State as a legal practitioner (as defined in the Legal Practice Act 2003);
 - (b) standing and practice in another State or a Territory as a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court of that State or Territory;
 - (c) judicial service (including service as a judge of a court, a magistrate or other judicial officer) in the State or elsewhere in a common law jurisdiction; or
 - (d) a combination of 2 or more kinds of legal experience defined in this subsection.

[Section 3 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 5; No. 14 of 1992 s. 4(3); No. 31 of 1993 s. 27; No. 65 of 2003 s. 107(2), (3); No. 74 of 2003 s. 35; No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 45 of 2004 s. 29; No. 59 of 2004 s. 60 and 73.]

4. Application of certain Acts

- (1) The following provisions of the Magistrates Court Act 2004 apply to and in relation to the Court and its officers in the same way as they apply to and in relation to the Magistrates Court and its officers —
- (a) Part 3 Division 2;
 - (b) sections 35 and 36.
- (2) The Criminal Procedure Act 2004 applies to and in respect of proceedings before the Court as a court of summary jurisdiction unless this Act provides otherwise.

[Section 4 inserted by No. 59 of 2004 s. 61; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 18.]

Part 2 — Children's Court of Western Australia

Division 1 — Establishment and constitution

5. Establishment of Court

- (1) A court to be known as the Children's Court of Western Australia is established.
- (2) The Court shall be constituted in the manner provided by this Act.
- (3) The Court is a court of record and shall have an official seal of which judicial notice shall be taken.

6. Constitution of Court

- (1) The Court shall be constituted by —
 - (a) a Judge;
 - (b) a magistrate; or
 - (c) not less than 2 JPs.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) —
 - (a) the Court may be constituted by a Judge or a magistrate sitting with one or more JPs;
 - (b) the Court may be constituted by one JP for the purposes of and incidental to the adjournment of proceedings in circumstances where practical considerations do not permit the Court to be constituted in accordance with subsection (1).
- (3) Upon the request of the President and with the approval of the Chief Justice of Western Australia or the Chief Judge of the District Court, as the case may require, a Judge of the Supreme Court or a District Court Judge may sit as a Judge of the Court and perform any of the functions of a Judge accordingly.

- (4) Where the Court is constituted so as to include a Judge or magistrate, the Judge or magistrate shall determine any questions of law that arise.
- (5) Subject to subsection (4), where the persons constituting the Court are divided in opinion as to the decision to be given on any question —
- (a) the opinion of a Judge or magistrate, if sitting, shall prevail;
 - (b) if no Judge or magistrate is sitting and 2 JPs constitute the Court, the proceeding shall be re-heard and determined before a Judge or magistrate in accordance with the directions of the President, given either generally or in relation to a specific case; or
 - (c) if no Judge or magistrate is sitting and more than 2 JPs constitute the Court, the opinion of the majority, if there is a majority, shall prevail and if there is not a majority, the proceeding shall be re-heard and determined before a Judge or magistrate in accordance with the directions of the President, given either generally or in relation to a specific case.

[Section 6 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

6A. Protection of judicial officers

- (1) A Judge or a magistrate has, in the performance of his or her functions as a Judge or a magistrate, the same protection and immunity as a Judge of the Supreme Court has in the performance of his or her duties as a Judge.
- (2) A JP has, in the performance of his or her functions when constituting the Court, the same protection and immunity as a Judge of the Supreme Court has in the performance of his or her duties as a Judge.

[Section 6A inserted by No. 59 of 2004 s. 62.]

Division 2 — Appointment of Judges and magistrates

[Heading amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

7. Appointment, terms, conditions, etc. of Judges

- (1) A Judge, or more than one Judge, shall be appointed by the Governor by commission under his hand on the recommendation of the Attorney General made after consultation with the Minister responsible for the administration of the Children and Community Services Act 2004.
- (2) A person is not eligible for appointment as a Judge unless that person —
 - (a) is or has been a legal practitioner and has had not less than 8 years' legal experience; or
 - (b) is a practising barrister of the High Court of Australia and has had not less than 8 years' legal experience.
- (3) A Judge is entitled to like salary, allowances and reimbursements, leave of absence, and pension rights, to those to which a District Court Judge is entitled in relation to his office.
- (4) If a person is a contributor within the meaning of the *Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938*² at the time he is appointed a Judge, section 15 of the District Court of Western Australia Act 1969 shall apply to and in relation to him as if he had been appointed a District Court Judge.
- (5) A Judge, in relation to that office, is entitled to the style and title of "His Honour" or "Her Honour".
- (6) A person who has attained the age of 70 years is ineligible for appointment as a Judge and a Judge shall retire from office on attaining the age of 70 years.
- (7) A Judge may at any time, by written notice addressed to the Governor, resign his or her office.

- (8) The Judge, or if more than one Judge is appointed one of the Judges designated by the Governor, shall be the President of the Court.
- (9) A Judge may contemporaneously hold a commission as a District Court Judge or hold some other judicial office in Western Australia, but may not practise as a legal practitioner or be directly or indirectly concerned in such practice.

[Section 7 amended by No. 31 of 1993 s. 28; No. 65 of 2003 s. 107(4); No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

8. Tenure of office

A Judge is entitled to hold office during good behaviour but the Governor may, upon the address of both Houses of Parliament, remove a Judge from office.

8A. Absence etc., of President

- (1) Where —
- (a) the President is absent from duty for any reason;
 - (b) the President declines to deal with any matter; or
 - (c) no Judge has been designated to be the President,
- the senior Judge (determined by reference to the date of appointment as a Judge of the Court) present and able to act has the functions of the President.
- (2) Upon the request of the President a Judge may perform any of the functions of the President.

[Section 8A inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 7.]

9. Acting Judge

- (1) Where —
- (a) a Judge is or is expected to be absent from duty for any reason;
 - (b) a Judge declines to deal with any matter;

- (c) an office of Judge is vacant; or
- (d) for any reason the conduct of the business of the Court, in the opinion of the Governor, requires such an appointment to be made, the Governor, on the recommendation of the Attorney General, may appoint a person qualified to be a Judge to be an Acting Judge, to perform the functions of the Judge when the Judge is so absent or so declines or the office is vacant or in the circumstances referred to in paragraph (d).

- (2) Subject to subsection (4), an Acting Judge has the same functions, rights and immunities and is subject to the same rules and conditions as a Judge would have or would be subject to in performing those functions.
- (3) An appointment as Acting Judge and any act, matter or thing done in performing functions as provided by subsection (1) shall not be questioned on the ground that the occasion for the appointment had not arisen or had ceased.
- (4) An Acting Judge is entitled to such remuneration, allowances, and leave of absence as is determined by the Governor.
- (5) An Acting Judge may be designated by the Governor as President of the Court.

10. Magistrates, appointment of

- (1) The Governor may appoint a person who is qualified to be appointed as a magistrate of the Magistrates Court as a magistrate of the Children's Court.
- (2) The appointment of a magistrate of the Children's Court is to be by a commission under the Public Seal of the State.
- (3) The Governor may appoint as many magistrates as are needed to deal with the workload of the Court.
- (4) A magistrate of the Magistrates Court may be appointed to be contemporaneously a magistrate of the Children's Court.

- (5) Section 6(3), (4) and (5) of, and clauses 5, 9 (except clause 9(9)), 10 (except clause 10(7)) and 11 to 16 of Schedule 1 to, the Magistrates Court Act 2004, with any necessary changes, apply as if —
- (a) each reference in those provisions to “the Court” were a reference to “the Children’s Court”;
 - (b) each reference in those provisions to “magistrate” were a reference to “magistrate of the Children’s Court”; and
 - (c) the reference in section 6(5) of that Act to section 37 of that Act were a reference to section 6A of this Act.

[Section 10 inserted by No. 59 of 2004 s. 63.]

[11. Repealed by No. 59 of 2004 s. 64.]

12. Oath or affirmation of office

- (1) Before a person who is appointed to be a Judge, or a magistrate, of the Court performs any function of the office, he or she shall take before the Governor, a Supreme Court Judge, or some person authorised for the purpose by the Governor, an oath or affirmation in the form set out in Schedule 1.
- (1a) Subsection (1) does not apply to —
- (a) a judge of another court of the State who has taken an oath or affirmation of office in respect of that office of judge; or
 - (b) a magistrate who has taken the oath or affirmation under clause 4 of Schedule 1 to the Magistrates Court Act 2004.

[(2) repealed]

[Section 12 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 9; No. 59 of 2004 s. 65 and 73; No. 24 of 2005 s. 14.]

Division 3 — Sittings of the Court

13. Where and when the Court operates

- (1) The Court is to have registries at such places, including places outside the State, as the Minister, by written notice to the President, decides from time to time.
- (2) At places where it has a registry, the Court is to sit at such times as the President decides from time to time.
- (3) Public notice of decisions made under subsections (1) and (2) is to be given in such manner as the President decides.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), the Court may exercise its jurisdiction at any time and place, but must not do so at a place outside the State without the approval of the President.
- (5) The President may direct a Judge, magistrate or JP to sit at any place where the Court has a registry and may direct concurrent sittings of the Court at the same place for the prompt disposal of the Court's functions.
- (6) This section does not permit the Court, when constituted by an acting magistrate of the Court appointed under clause 10 of Schedule 1 to the Magistrates Court Act 2004 (as applied by section 10(5)), to exercise its jurisdiction at a place outside the geographical area in which the acting magistrate may perform the functions of a magistrate.

[Section 13 inserted by No. 59 of 2004 s. 66.]

14. Power to sit in chambers

A Judge or magistrate or JPs may sit in chambers at any time and at any place and, subject to the Rules of Court, may exercise in chambers any jurisdiction of the Court except any hearing with respect to a child accused of an offence or the determination of an application to declare a child in need of care and protection.

[Section 14 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

15. Police officers to attend Court

A member of the Police Force of the State must when required by the Court attend the Court when it is sitting and shall obey, serve or execute any summons, warrant, order and command of the Court, or a Judge, magistrate or JPs of the Court.

[Section 15 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

Division 4 — Officers of the Court

16. Appointment of registrars, etc.

- (1) The Minister shall appoint, for each registry of the Court, a registrar and such deputy registrars and other officers as may be needed to deal with the workload of the Court.
- (2) A person appointed to be a registrar of the Magistrates Court is to be taken to also have been appointed as a registrar of the Children's Court and vice versa.
- (3) A person appointed to be a deputy registrar of the Magistrates Court is to be taken to also have been appointed as a deputy registrar of the Children's Court and vice versa.

[Section 16 inserted by No. 59 of 2004 s. 67.]

17. Duties of registrars

- (1) The registrar of the Court at each place at which the Court is held shall —
 - (a) issue summonses issued out of the Court at that place;
 - (b) maintain a record of all proceedings, verdicts and judgments of the Court at that place;
 - (c) make lists of all matters for hearing, trial, further hearing or rehearing by the Court at that place;

- (d) discharge all other duties and powers imposed or conferred under this Act and keep an account of all proceedings of the Court at that place;
 - (e) take charge of and keep an account of all court fees and fines payable or paid into the Court at that place and of all moneys paid into and out of the Court at that place;
 - (f) account for all such fees and fines and shall, when required, submit his accounts to be audited by the Auditor General appointed under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985; and
 - (g) give effect to all lawful instructions of the President and do and perform all other acts and duties properly incidental to the office of registrar.
- (2) Any entry in the register or any book of the Court held at any place or a copy thereof, bearing the seal of the Court and signed and certified as a true copy by the registrar of the Court at that place, shall be admitted in all courts and by persons acting judicially as evidence of that entry and of the proceedings referred to by that entry and of the regularity of the proceedings, without further proof and no record of any summons, judgment or order other than the entry is necessary.

[Section 17 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

18. Power of registrars to administer oaths, etc.

- (1) Every registrar of the Court may take and administer affidavits, depositions, declarations, oaths and affirmations in relation to any proceedings in the Court.

[(2) repealed]

[Section 18 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 24 of 2005 s. 15.]

Part 3 — Jurisdiction of the Court

19. Criminal jurisdiction as regards children

- (1) The Court has exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine a charge of an offence alleged to have been committed by a child.
 - (1a) Subsection (1) is subject to this Part and these enactments —
 - (a) the Young Offenders Act 1994 Part 5 Division 2;
 - (b) the Sentencing Act 1995 sections 78, 128 and 132.
 - (2) Notwithstanding that a person has attained the age of 18 years, the jurisdiction of the Court extends, and the provisions of this Act apply, to proceedings in respect of an offence committed, or allegedly committed, by the person before attaining the age of 18 years.
 - (2a) In subsection (2), the reference to proceedings in respect of an offence includes proceedings relating to an order that the Court made when it dealt with the offender upon finding the offender guilty of the offence.
 - (3) In exercising the jurisdiction conferred by this section, the Court when constituted so as not to consist of or include a Judge is a court of summary jurisdiction, subject to section 19B(4)(d).
 - (4) Where it is provided by any other written law that a person instead of being prosecuted for a simple offence in a court may elect to suffer a prescribed monetary penalty in respect of that offence, then, notwithstanding anything in this Act, a child may so elect.
- [(5)-(8) repealed]*
- (9) Where a child is before the Supreme Court or the District Court, that court has all the powers of the Children's Court of Western Australia in all respects as if the child had been before that Court.

s. 19A

[Section 19 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 10; No. 104 of 1994 s. 224; No. 78 of 1995 s. 12; No. 59 of 2004 s. 68 and 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

19A. Application of sections 19B to 19F

Where a child is charged with an indictable offence, sections 19B to 19E apply and references in those sections to a child are, unless the contrary intention appears, to be taken as including a person who is charged with an indictable offence that is alleged to have been committed when that person was a child.

[Section 19A inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 11.]

19B. Jurisdiction and procedure for charges of indictable offences

- (1) If a child is charged with an indictable offence and —
 - (a) the offence is such that, if an adult were charged with it, it must be tried on indictment; or
 - (b) the circumstances of the alleged offence are such that —
 - (i) if an adult were charged with it, it could, by virtue of section 5 of The Criminal Code, or another written law, be tried either on indictment or summarily; and
 - (ii) the Court, having complied with section 40(2) of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004, decides that it is to be tried on indictment, the child may elect to be tried on indictment by the Supreme Court or the District Court (as the case requires), and the Court shall so inform the child.

- (2) If a child is charged with an indictable offence and the circumstances of the alleged offence are such that the child is not entitled to make an election under subsection (1), the Court shall, subject to the provisions referred to in section 19(1), hear and determine the charge summarily.

- (3) If the child makes an election under subsection (1) the Court shall proceed under Part 3 Division 4 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 as if the charge were one that must be tried on indictment.
- (4) If a child does not make an election under subsection (1) —
- (a) the Court, on its own motion or on the application of the child, may direct the prosecutor —
 - (i) to serve or cause to be served on the child (or the child's solicitor or counsel) and to lodge with the Court, within such time as is specified, any document that is required to be disclosed under section 95 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004; and
 - (ii) to afford the child (or the child's solicitor or counsel) reasonable opportunity to inspect any material exhibits that the prosecution proposes to tender at the hearing of the charge;
 - (b) on the making of a direction under paragraph (a), the State acting by the Attorney General or some other duly appointed person shall assume the conduct of the prosecution and shall be taken to be the prosecutor;
 - (c) the Court shall, subject to the provisions referred to in section 19(1), hear and determine the charge, and may exercise any power in Part 4 or 5 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004, as if the prosecution notice were an indictment, and the hearing were a trial on indictment and the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 shall apply with such modifications as circumstances require; but the child is not thereby entitled to have any issue tried by a jury; and
 - (d) subject to Part 5, the child, if convicted, shall, for the purposes of punishment and orders, procedures, and proceedings consequential on conviction, be taken to have been convicted on indictment, notwithstanding that the child may have been convicted by the Court when constituted other than by a Judge.

- (5) If a copy of a statement of a person is served in accordance with a direction made under subsection (4)(a)(i), the original of the statement may be produced and given in evidence at the trial of the child —
- (a) if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the person is dead, or out of Western Australia, or so ill as not to be able to travel, although there may be a prospect of the person's recovery; or
 - (b) if the person is kept out of the way by the child.
- (6) If there is a prospect of the recovery of a person proved to be too ill to travel, the Court shall not be obliged to receive the statement, but may postpone the trial.

[Section 19B inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 11; amended by No. 71 of 2000 s. 40; No. 65 of 2003 s. 122(2); No. 4 of 2004 s. 58; No. 59 of 2004 s. 69 and 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 13 and 18 and 80.]

19C. Court may transfer charge to court of petty sessions where child and adult charged with same offence

- (1) Notwithstanding section 19B, if —
- (a) the Court is satisfied —
 - (i) that a person who has reached 18 years of age (the “adult”) is charged with the same indictable offence as a child or with an indictable offence arising from the same acts, omissions, or circumstances as are alleged against a child charged with an indictable offence; and
 - (ii) that the adult is to be tried on indictment for the offence;
- and

- (b) the Court is for any reason of the opinion that it is appropriate that the child be dealt with on indictment jointly with the adult, then the Court shall proceed under Part 3 Division 4 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 as if the charge were one that must be tried on indictment.

[(2) repealed]

- (3) Where a child is committed for trial on indictment under subsection (1) and it becomes inexpedient or undesirable to conduct the trial of the adult jointly with that of the child, the court to which the child has been committed for trial may —
 - (a) nevertheless try the child; or
 - (b) on the application of the child, order the transfer of the prosecution notice on which the child was committed to the Court to be heard and determined in accordance with section 19B(2) or (4).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Court may adjourn the hearing of the charge of the indictable offence until proceedings against the adult are at a stage where the Court can be satisfied about any of the matters in that subsection.

[Section 19C inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 11; amended by No. 27 of 2002 s. 23; No. 4 of 2004 s. 58; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 18 and 80.]

19D. Court may transfer charge to court of petty sessions where defendant has turned 18

Notwithstanding section 19B, where a person who is charged with an indictable offence that is alleged to have been committed when the person was under the age of 18 years has attained the age of 18 years, the Court, instead of hearing and determining the charge of the offence, may, having regard to —

- (a) the seriousness of the offence;
- (b) the existence of an adult co-offender;

s. 19E

- (c) the effluxion of time since the offence;
- (d) the fact that the person is charged before the Magistrates Court with other offences; or
- (e) any other good cause, order the transfer of the prosecution notice to the Magistrates Court to be dealt with according to law and the Magistrates Court shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

[Section 19D inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 11; amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

19E. Procedure for charges of Commonwealth indictable offences

Where a child is charged with an indictable offence against a law of the Commonwealth and the Court makes a direction under section 19B(4)(a), the Commonwealth acting by the Attorney General, the Director of Public Prosecutions, or some other appropriate official, may assume the conduct of the prosecution and shall then be taken to be the prosecutor.

[Section 19E inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 11; amended by No. 65 of 2003 s. 122(3); No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

19F. Rules

Without limiting the generality of section 38, rules made in accordance with that section may provide for matters in addition to the matters provided for in sections 19B to 19D.

[Section 19F inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 11.]

20. Non-criminal jurisdiction as regards children

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Court has exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all applications made with respect to a child —
 - (a) under the Children and Community Services Act 2004;
 - (b) under section 29 or 38(1) of the School Education Act 1999;

- (c) under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 (subject to section 52 of that Act); and
 - (d) under section 334 of the Health Act 1911.
- (2) Section 172 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004, with any necessary changes, applies in respect of the Court when it is exercising jurisdiction under subsection (1).

[Section 20 amended by No. 19 of 1997 s. 81; No. 15 of 1998 s. 9; No. 36 of 1999 s. 247; No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 84 of 2004 s. 14 and 80.]

21. Limitations on exercise of certain jurisdiction

[(1) repealed]

- (2) When constituted by or so as to include a magistrate, the Court may not sentence a child —
- (a) to be detained in a detention centre for a period longer than 6 months; or
 - (b) to imprisonment for a period longer than 3 months.
- (3) Where the Court constituted by or so as to include a magistrate imposes sentences of detention in a detention centre or imprisonment it shall not, if it orders one or more of those sentences to be served cumulatively with any other of the sentences imposed by it on that occasion order that the child be detained in a detention centre for a period longer than 6 months or imprisoned for a period longer than 3 months.
- (4) When constituted by JPs only, the Court may not —
- (a) sentence a child to be detained in a detention centre or to be imprisoned; or
 - (b) make an order declaring a child to be in need of care and protection.
- (5) When the Court constituted by or so as to include a magistrate finds a child guilty of an offence and convicts the child but considers that it does not have sufficient power to sentence or otherwise deal with the child adequately, it may refer the child to be sentenced or otherwise dealt with for the offence by the Court constituted by or so as to include a Judge.

s. 22

- (6) When the Court constituted by JPs only finds a child guilty of an offence and convicts the child but considers that it does not have sufficient power to sentence or otherwise deal with the child adequately, it may refer the child to be sentenced or otherwise dealt with by the Court constituted by or so as to include a Judge or magistrate.

[Section 21 amended by No. 78 of 1995 s. 12; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

22. President may extend powers of magistrate

- (1) Where under this Act the Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine a charge of an offence, the President may, by notice in writing given to a magistrate, direct and empower the magistrate to hear and determine the charge under this section.
- (2) A magistrate who is directed to hear and determine a particular charge of an offence under this section shall, notwithstanding section 21(2), in respect of that charge have extended powers of sentencing as if that magistrate were a Judge.
- (3) In the case of a charge which is to be heard and determined by a magistrate under this section, the magistrate must when the trial begins inform the person charged of the extended powers conferred on the magistrate under this section.
- (4) This section does not apply in respect of an offence of a kind that can be determined only by the Supreme Court where the person charged with the offence is not a child.

[Section 22 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

23. Court may require attendance of parent or guardian

- (1a) This section applies to proceedings other than those to which section 45 of the Young Offenders Act 1994 applies.

- (1) In any proceedings in respect of or affecting a child, the Court shall inquire in to the reason if no parent or guardian of the child is present and, unless the Court considers that —
- (a) there is a valid reason to excuse attendance; or
 - (b) it is not reasonable to delay proceedings for the attendance of a parent or guardian, the Court shall, by order served on a parent or guardian of the child, or any one or more of such persons, require such parent or guardian to attend during all stages of the proceedings, whether or not from time to time adjourned, unless subsequently excused from further attendance by the Court.

- (2) A person who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirements of an order served on the person under subsection (1) commits an offence.

Penalty: $500.

- (3) The Court may, if it considers it expedient and just to do so, proceed with the hearing and determination of any proceedings notwithstanding the absence of any parent or guardian.

- (4) If the Court proceeds with the hearing and determination of proceedings in the absence of any parent or guardian, the Court shall do what it reasonably can to ensure that the parents or guardians of the child are notified in writing —

- (a) of any charge laid against the child alleging the commission of an offence;
- (b) of any finding, order or decision made by the Court in the determination of the proceedings;
- (c) of any other information that the Court considers appropriate.

[Section 23 amended by No. 104 of 1994 s. 225.]

[24-26. Repealed by No. 104 of 1994 s. 226.]

s. 27

27. Certain orders may be set aside

- (1) If an order is made under this Act in respect of a child in the absence of his parent or guardian, to whom reasonable notice of the charge or application had not been given, such order may for good cause shown be set aside by the Court upon the application of such parent or guardian made within 3 months after the making of the order or such longer period as the Court may allow if special circumstances are shown.
- (2) In the case of a prosecution or application against or concerning a child, the Court may cause a copy or notice of the charge or application to be served upon a parent of or a person standing in loco parentis to the child if that is practicable prior to the hearing of the charge or application.

[Section 27 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

28. Court may re-hear proceedings

- (1) Subject to this section, the Court may order that any original proceedings in which an order (not being an order made following conviction on indictment) was made against a child under the Young Offenders Act 1994 or the Children and Community Services Act 2004 are to be reheard.
- (2) An order may be made under subsection (1) by the Court when constituted by the President of the Court's own motion or upon cause being shown on the application of —
 - (a) the CEO or the CEO as defined in section 3 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004;
 - (b) a parent or guardian of the child against whom an order may be made in those proceedings;
 - (c) a child to whom the proceedings relate; or
 - (d) the prosecutor in those proceedings.

- (3) The Court rehearing any proceedings under this section —
- (a) is not required to be constituted in the same manner as the Court before which the original proceedings were heard;
 - (b) shall not be constituted by JPs sitting alone;
 - (c) has power to set aside or vary any finding or order made in the original proceedings; and
 - (d) has power to make any finding or order which could have been made in the original proceedings.
- (4) Except where the Court considers that it is just to do so, no new evidence shall be admitted at the rehearing of any proceedings under this section.
- (5) Where any proceedings are re-heard under this section the proceedings as so re-heard shall not be taken to have been original proceedings for the purposes of any further application under this section, but nothing in this section derogates from any right that may be available to any person by way of appeal.

[Section 28 amended by No. 31 of 1993 s. 29; No. 104 of 1994 s. 227; No. 57 of 1997 s. 31; No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

29. Witnesses and contempt

- (1) The Court may, by summons issued by a Judge, magistrate, JP or registrar, summon witnesses for examination on oath, in the manner provided for proceedings before the Magistrates Court for simple offences.
- (2) A person who, being required by summons to attend as a witness fails, without reasonable excuse, to appear at the time and place specified in the summons or who, being in attendance whether voluntarily or pursuant to a summons, refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation or refuses to answer any lawful question is guilty of contempt of court.

s. 30

- (3) A person who wilfully insults the Court or a Judge or magistrate, or a JP constituting the Court, wilfully interrupts the proceedings of the Court, or who hinders, obstructs, threatens or assaults any officer, party or witness in attendance before, or going to or returning from, the Court, is guilty of contempt of court.
- (4) A person who is guilty of contempt of court under subsection (2) or (3) may be summarily convicted by the Court and on conviction is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to a fine not exceeding $5 000, or to both, or in default of immediate payment of the fine imposed, to imprisonment —
- (a) until the fine is paid; or
 - (b) for a term not exceeding 12 months,
- whichever may be the shorter period.

[Section 29 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 73.]

30. Transfer of complaint to court of competent jurisdiction

- (1) Where a prosecution for an offence is commenced in the Court and the Court is of the opinion that it does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine the charge, the Court may order the transfer of the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (2) Where the Court makes a decision on a charge in the belief that at the time the offence was allegedly committed, or at any other time material to jurisdiction, the person was under the age of 18 years when in fact the person was not —
- (a) the proceedings are not on that account invalidated; and
 - (b) the decision has full force and effect and anything done pursuant to the decision is lawful; but
 - (c) the Court or, if the decision is the subject of an application for leave to appeal or of an appeal, the Supreme Court, on the application of the Attorney General, shall —

- (i) set aside the decision;
 - (ii) remit any penalty that may have been imposed;
and
 - (iii) order the transfer of the charge to a court of competent jurisdiction to be dealt with according to law.
- (3) In subsection (2), “decision” has the same definition as in section 41(2).
- (4) Where under this Act the Court orders the transfer of a charge or a matter to another court, the registrar shall give effect to the order.

*[Section 30 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 13; No. 27 of 2002
s. 24; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]*

Part 4 — Procedure of the Court

31. Exclusion of persons from hearing

- (1) At any hearing or trial relating to a charge against, or any application concerning, a child or where the interests of a child may be prejudicially affected, the Court may order that any persons shall be excluded from the court-room or place of hearing.
- (2) Where the Court has made an order under subsection (1), it shall after the conclusion of the hearing, make available to any person who satisfies the Court that that person has suffered loss by reason of an offence committed by the child or has other good cause, the name, age, and address of the child and the particulars of the offence with which the child was charged.

[32. Repealed by No. 84 of 2004 s. 18.]

33. CEOs or officers may take part in proceedings

- (1) In this section —
“prescribed officer” means —
 - (a) the CEO or an officer of the Department who is authorised by that CEO; or
 - (b) the CEO as defined in section 3 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004 or an officer as defined in that section who is authorised by that CEO.
- (2) A prescribed officer may be present at the hearing in the Court of any complaint against, or application or other proceeding concerning, a child and, if present, is entitled to examine and cross-examine witnesses and to be heard concerning the remand, punishment or disposal of the child.

[Section 33 inserted by No. 34 of 2004 s. 251.]

34. Court must explain proceedings

- (1) In any proceedings before the Court, the Court must satisfy itself that the child who is the subject of the proceedings understands the nature of those proceedings.

[(2) repealed]

- (3) No order or adjudication of the Court is defective on the ground of failure to comply with this section if the Court has substantially complied with the provisions of the section.

[Section 34 amended by No. 104 of 1994 s. 228.]

35. Restrictions on reports of proceedings

- (1) Except where done in accordance with an order made under section 36A, a person shall not publish or cause to be published in any newspaper or other publication or broadcast or cause to be broadcast by radio or television a report of any proceedings in the Court, or in any other court on appeal from the Court, containing any particulars or other matter likely to lead to the identification of a child who is concerned in those proceedings —

- (a) as a person against whom the proceedings are taken;
- (b) as a person in respect of whom the proceedings are taken;
- (c) as a witness; or
- (d) as a person against or in respect of whom an offence has or is alleged to have been committed.

- (2) In the case of criminal proceedings in the Supreme Court or the District Court, including any appellate proceedings to which subsection (1) does not apply, the court may, after considering the public interest and the interests of the child or children concerned, order that no person shall publish or cause to be published in any newspaper or other publication or broadcast or cause to be broadcast by radio or television a report of those proceedings containing any particulars or other matter likely to lead to the identification of a child who is concerned in those proceedings —

- (a) as a person against whom those proceedings are taken;
 - (b) as a witness; or
 - (c) as a person against or in respect of whom an offence has or is alleged to have been committed.
- (3) Except where done in accordance with an order made under section 36A, in the case of proceedings in any court in which a person is alleged to have committed an offence under Chapter XXII, XXXI or XXXII³ of The Criminal Code, including any appellate proceedings in respect of a conviction for such an offence, a person shall not publish or cause to be published in any newspaper or other publication or broadcast or cause to be broadcast by radio or television a report of those proceedings containing any particulars or other matter likely to lead to the identification of a child against or in respect of whom that offence has been or is alleged to have been committed.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (3) or an order made under subsection (2) commits an offence punishable —
- (a) by the Supreme Court as for a contempt; or
 - (b) after summary conviction by a fine of $10 000 or imprisonment for 12 months.
- (5) Proceedings for a contravention of subsection (1) or (3) or of an order made under subsection (2) may be taken by the Attorney General or a person on his behalf.

[Section 35 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 15 and 17(2); No. 14 of 1992 s. 6(8).]

36. Disclosure of convictions, orders etc. restricted

- (1) Where —
- (a) a charge against a child is dismissed by the Court;
 - (b) a child is convicted or found guilty of an offence by the Court,

[(c) deleted]

a person other than the child shall not, in a manner which identifies or is likely to lead to the identification of the child, disclose the fact of the dismissal, the conviction or finding of guilt or any relevant order except to a court of law, to a person acting in the performance of duties under any written law, to a person who as part of the person's duties is concerned with the custody or welfare of the child, or in accordance with an order made under section 36A.

- (2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence punishable —
 - (a) by the Supreme Court as for a contempt; or
 - (b) after summary conviction by a fine of $10 000 or imprisonment for 12 months.
- (3) Proceedings for a contravention of this section may be taken by the Attorney General or a person on his behalf.

[Section 36 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 16 and 17(3); No. 57 of 1997 s. 31; No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

36A. Supreme Court may allow publication etc.

- (1) The Supreme Court may, after considering the public interest and the interests of the child, by order allow the publication, broadcast or disclosure of any matter prohibited by section 35(1), (3) or 36 ("prohibited matter").
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Court, in considering the public interest and the interests of the child, may have regard to all or any of the following —
 - (a) The age, safety or well-being of the child.
 - (b) The safety or well-being of a person other than the child.
 - (c) The safety of the public or the protection of property.
 - (d) The public interest in the apprehension of escapees for the purpose of returning them to lawful custody.

s. 37

- (e) The public interest in the prevention or detection of a crime.
- (3) Only the Attorney General or the Commissioner of Police may make an application for an order under subsection (1) and, unless the Court otherwise orders, the application shall be ex parte.
- (4) An order under subsection (1) may contain such directions as the Court thinks fit including, without limiting that expression, directions as to —
 - (a) the content of any matter to be published, broadcast or disclosed;
 - (b) when, where and by what means the publication, broadcast or disclosure may be made;
 - (c) the duration of the order.
- (5) An order under subsection (1) may relate to prohibited matter in respect of a person over the age of 18 years in which case the reference in subsection (2) to a child includes a reference to that person.

[Section 36A inserted by No. 15 of 1991 s. 17(1).]

37. Practice and procedure

- (1) Subject to this Act and to the Rules of Court, the President is responsible for the administration of the Court, the disposition of the business of the Court and for its practice and procedure.
- (2) Subject to this Act and the Children and Community Services Act 2004 and any other Act that confers jurisdiction on the Court, the practice and procedure of the Court shall be governed by Rules of Court, and until provision is made by Rules of Court or where no special provision is contained in the Rules of Court —
 - (a) the practice and procedure of the Court when it is exercising the jurisdiction conferred by section 19(1) shall be that provided by the Criminal Procedure Act 2004; and

- (b) the practice and procedure of the Court when it is exercising the jurisdiction conferred by section 20 shall be that provided by the Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Act 2004 and the rules of court made under that Act by the Magistrates Court.
- (3) Judges, magistrates, JPs and counsel shall not robe for proceedings of the Court.

[Section 37 amended by No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 18.]

38. Rules of Court

The Judge, or if there is more than one Judge a majority of the Judges, may make rules for regulating and prescribing the practice and procedure to be followed in the Court and for regulating and prescribing all matters or things incidental or relating to such practice and procedure or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the conduct of any business of the Court.

39. Mode of enforcing orders by the Court

The Court, when constituted by a Judge, has and may exercise the same power and authority for compelling obedience to and for punishing disobedience of any judgment or order as the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Supreme Court may exercise for compelling obedience to or punishing disobedience of any judgment or order given or made by the Supreme Court.

Part 5 — Review and appeal

40. Review by President of certain sentences

- (1) Subject to this Act, where the Court, when constituted so as not to consist of or include a Judge, makes a finding that a charge against a child is proved and makes an order against or in relation to the child in consequence of that finding, the Court when constituted by the President may, of its own motion or upon an application made under subsection (2), reconsider the order and —
 - (a) confirm the order; or
 - (b) discharge the order and substitute any other order that the Court, if it had been constituted by the President, could have made in relation to the offence.
- (2) Subject to this section, an application for reconsideration of an order may be made, in accordance with the Rules of Court —
 - (a) by the child, within one month after the date of the order;
 - (b) by the CEO, on behalf of the child, at any time after the date of the order;
 - (c) by the prosecutor, within one month after the date of the order.
- (3) Where an application has been made under this section for reconsideration of a sentence of detention, an application may be made to the Court under the Bail Act 1982 by or on behalf of the child and, if such an application is made, section 8 of that Act applies as if the consideration of bail for the purposes of this section were a first consideration of bail for an offence.
- (4) The Court shall notify the applicant and all other parties concerned with the application of the place, date and time for the hearing of the application.

- (5) Subject to subsection (6), where leave to appeal is granted under section 41 in respect of the original order —
- (a) no application under this section may subsequently be made; and
 - (b) any application made under this section and not finally determined when leave to appeal is granted under section 41 shall be deemed to be withdrawn.
- (6) Where an application under this section or an application for leave to appeal is withdrawn, all other parties concerned shall be notified accordingly, and thereupon an application for leave to appeal may be made, or an application may be made under this section, as the case may require, in all respects as if the date of that withdrawal were the date upon which the original order was made.
- (7) This section applies in respect of a finding and order made by a magistrate whether or not the magistrate exercised extended powers conferred under section 22.
- (8) An appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal from any order made by the Court under this section.

[Section 40 amended by No. 33 of 1989 s. 18; No. 31 of 1993 s. 31; No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 45 of 2004 s. 29.]

41. Appeals against decisions of magistrates etc.

Subject to this Part, an appeal against a decision of the Court when constituted so as not to consist of or include a Judge may be made under and subject to Part 2 of the Criminal Appeals Act 2004.

[Section 41 inserted by No. 84 of 2004 s. 15.]

42. Appeal against certain other orders

- (1) Subject to this Act, where the Court, when constituted so as not to consist of or include a Judge, makes any finding, order, or other decision on the hearing of an application under Part 4 or 5

s. 42A

of the Children and Community Services Act 2004 the finding, order or decision may be the subject of an appeal made in accordance with Part 2 of the Criminal Appeals Act 2004, as if it were a decision by a court of summary jurisdiction, by —

- (a) the CEO as defined in section 3 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004;
 - (b) the parent or guardian of the child in relation to whom the application was made;
 - (c) the child in relation to whom the application was made; or
 - (d) the person by whom the application was made.
- (2) Where a person has appealed, or is entitled to appeal, under subsection (1), the person may, on not less than 48 hours' notice to the CEO as defined in section 3 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004 (if that CEO is not the applicant), apply to a Judge for an order relating to the placement of the child pending the final disposition of the proceedings and the Judge may make such order as in the circumstances seems appropriate having regard primarily to the welfare of the child.

[Section 42 inserted by No. 33 of 1989 s. 18; amended by No. 31 of 1993 s. 32; No. 57 of 1997 s. 31; No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 18.]

42A. Appeals from judges' decisions in criminal matters

Subject to section 43, an appeal against a decision or judgment of the Court when constituted so as to consist of or include a Judge may be made under and subject to Part 3 of the Criminal Appeals Act 2004 which, with any necessary changes, applies as if the decision or judgment were a decision or judgment made by a judge of a superior court (as defined in section 4 of that Act) in a trial by a judge alone under the Criminal Procedure Act 2004.

[Section 42A inserted by No. 84 of 2004 s. 16.]

43. Appeals to Court of Appeal

[(1)-(3b) repealed]

- (4) Subject to this Act, where the Court, when constituted by or so as to include a Judge, makes any finding, order or other decision on the hearing of an application under Part 4 or 5 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004 an appeal may be made to the Court of Appeal against the finding, order or other decision by —
 - (a) the CEO as defined in section 3 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004;
 - (b) the parent or guardian of the child in relation to whom the application was made;
 - (c) the child in relation to whom the application was made; or
 - (d) the person by whom the application was made.
- (5) An appeal under subsection (4) must be commenced and conducted in accordance with rules of court made by the Supreme Court.
- (6) An appeal under subsection (4) cannot be commenced later than 21 days after the date of the Judge's finding, order or other decision unless the Court of Appeal orders otherwise.
- (7) The leave of the Court of Appeal is required for each ground of appeal in an appeal under subsection (4).
- (8) In an appeal under subsection (4), the Court of Appeal —
 - (a) may affirm, vary or set aside the Judge's finding, order or other decision;
 - (b) may make any finding, order or other decision that the Judge could have made;
 - (c) if it sets aside the Judge's finding, order or other decision, may order the application concerned be dealt with again.

s. 43

[Section 43 amended by No. 15 of 1991 s. 19; No. 31 of 1993 s. 32; No. 104 of 1994 s. 230; No. 57 of 1997 s. 31; No. 34 of 2004 s. 251; No. 45 of 2004 s. 29; No. 59 of 2004 s. 73; No. 84 of 2004 s. 17.]

[Part 6 (s. 44-50) repealed by No. 53 of 2000 s. 3.]

Part 7 — Miscellaneous

51. Forms of proceedings

Every prosecution notice, summons, conviction, order or warrant under this Act shall be valid and sufficient —

- (a) if it is in any applicable prescribed form, with such modifications as circumstances may require; or
- (b) if the offence, act or default is stated in the prosecution notice, summons, conviction, order or warrant in the words of the relevant written law, and no conviction, order or warrant shall be held void by reason of any defect of form.

[Section 51 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

51A. Court's records, access to

- (1) In this section —

“court record”, in relation to proceedings before the Court, means —
