Part 2 — General

Division 1 — Applications

4. Filing applications and other documents

- (1) Subject to these rules, a person may file an application or a document with the executive officer by —
 - (a) presenting it at an office of the Tribunal when the office is open for business; or
 - (b) sending it to the executive officer by pre-paid post; or
 - (c) sending it to the executive officer by fax transmission; or
 - (d) sending it to the executive officer by email; or
 - (e) filing it by means of the Tribunal's website.
- (2) An application must be accompanied by any documents required to accompany the application under the Act, the enabling Act, these rules, a practice note or the approved application form.
- (3) Subject to a practice note or direction, if an application or a document is required to or may be filed, it is not necessary to file the original of the application or document.
- (4) A document must be filed —
 - (a) in such manner as is specified in a practice note, if any; or
 - (b) whether or not such a practice note has been issued, in accordance with any direction.

[Rule 4 inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 567-8.]

5. Filing applications by fax, email or by means of Tribunal's website

- (1) An application or other document sent to the executive officer by fax transmission or email must —

- (a) be sent to a fax number or email address (as the case requires) specified for that purpose in a practice note; and
 - (b) to the extent practicable, be in a form that complies with an approved form.
- (2) A person who files an application or other document by fax transmission, email or by means of the Tribunal's website must —
- (a) keep a copy of it; and
 - (b) produce a copy of it as ordered by the Tribunal.

[Rule 5 inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 568.]

6. Applications must be legible

An application and any document accompanying it must —

- (a) be legible; and
- (b) if filed by email or by means of the Tribunal's website, capable of being printed with the content and in the form in which it was created.

[Rule 6 inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 568.]

7A. When applications taken to be filed

An application is taken to have been filed —

- (a) if the whole application is received before 4.30 p.m. on a day when the office of the Tribunal is open for business, on that day;
- (b) otherwise, on the next day when the office of the Tribunal is open for business.

[Rule 7A inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 568.]

7. Acceptance of written applications

- (1) For the purposes of section 42(3) of the Act, an application is accepted by the executive officer —

- (a) if filed under rule 4(1)(a) or (b), when the Tribunal's seal is affixed to it; and
 - (b) if filed under rule 4(1)(c), (d) or (e), when the Tribunal's seal is affixed to a print out of it.
 - (2) A written application must not be accepted, without the leave of the Tribunal, a judicial member or the executive officer, if it appears that the application —
 - (a) is not substantially complete; or
 - (b) does not substantially comply with these rules, a practice note or a direction; or
 - (c) is not properly signed or executed as required by the approved application form.
 - (3) If an application is not accepted, the executive officer is to notify the sender of the application by using any of the sender's contact details provided in the application.

[Rule 7 inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 569.]

8. Oral applications

- (1) In this rule —

oral application means an application that under an enabling Act may be made —

 - (a) orally; or
 - (b) partly in writing and partly orally.
- (2) If an oral application is made, the executive officer is to complete a written application form to the extent that the application is not in writing.
- (3) For the purposes of the Act section 42(3), an oral application is accepted by the executive officer when he or she affixes the Tribunal's seal to the written application completed by him or her.

- (4) An oral application must not be accepted, without the leave of the Tribunal, a judicial member or the executive officer, if it appears that the application —
- (a) is not substantially complete; or
 - (b) does not substantially comply with these rules, a practice note or a direction.

[Rule 8 amended in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 569.]

9. Time limit for applications: review jurisdiction

Subject to these rules, an application to the Tribunal under its review jurisdiction must be made within 28 days of —

- (a) the day on which the decision-maker gives a notice under the Act section 20(1); or
- (b) the day on which the decision-maker makes the decision under the Act section 20(5); or
- (c) if, under the Act section 3(3)(a), the Act applies as if a person had made a decision, the day on which any provision of the enabling Act as to when the decision is taken to have been made has effect.

10. Extension of time limit

- (1) The Tribunal, on application by any applicant, referring person or on its own initiative, may extend any time fixed under the Act, an enabling Act or these rules for the commencement of a proceeding.
- (2) Under this rule, the Tribunal may extend time even if the time fixed expired before an application for an extension was made or the Tribunal on its own initiative considered extending the time.

11. Time specified for the purposes of section 22(2) of Act

For the purposes of the Act section 22(2) the time specified is 7 days after the day on which the application is accepted by the executive officer.

- (2a) If a document contains protected matter and non-protected matter, the protected matter must be excised from the document before it is included in Part A.
- (2b) Subject to subrule (2a), Part A must —
- (a) include all documents in the party's bundle excluding protected matter; and
 - (b) be filed with the Tribunal and given to the other party within the period specified in the order for the filing of and giving the party's bundle of documents.
- (2c) Part B must —
- (a) include all documents in the party's bundle which the party considers comprise or contain protected matter; and
 - (b) be clearly marked as containing protected matter and must be placed into a sealed envelope clearly marked as containing protected matter; and
 - (c) be filed with the Tribunal within the period specified in the order for the filing of the party's bundle of documents but must not be given to any other party.
- (3) Any application under section 159 or section 160 of the Act must be made to the President in writing within 14 days of the receipt of the list of documents which identifies the document the subject of the application.

[Rule 13 inserted in Gazette 14 Oct 2005 p. 4569-70; amended in Gazette 13 Apr 2006 p. 1557; 13 Apr 2007 p. 1683.]

Division 2 — Proceedings and hearings

14. Filing of other applications

Rules 4 to 7 apply to the filing of —

- (a) an application under these rules other than an application as defined in the Act section 3(1) (interim application); and

(b) an election or request under these rules, as if a reference in those rules to an application were a reference to an interim application, election or request.

[Rule 14 amended in Gazette 14 Oct 2005 p. 4570; 6 Feb 2015 p. 569.]

15A. Changing contact details given in application

- (1) An applicant or referring person may change the contact details given to the Tribunal in an application or subsequent notice by filing a notice with the executive officer showing the new contact details.
- (2) An applicant or referring person who files a notice under subrule (1) must, on the date of filing, give a copy of it to a notifiable person.
- (3) A change of contact details under this rule is not effective as between the person who is required to give the notice of the change and another person until the notice is filed with the executive officer and given to that person.

[Rule 15A inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 569-70.]

15B. Changing name of party given in application

- (1) A person who has made an application to the Tribunal may make a written request for the leave of the Tribunal to change the name of a party specified in the application.
- (2) The Tribunal may, at any time before making a final decision, grant the request referred to in subrule (1).
- (3) A person who makes a request under subrule (1) must, on the date of filing, give a copy of it to a notifiable person.

[Rule 15B inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 570.]

15. Amendment of grounds or reasons for application

- (1) A person who has made an application to the Tribunal may make a written request for the leave of the Tribunal to amend the grounds or reasons specified in the application.
- (2) The Tribunal may, at any time before making a final decision, grant the request referred to in subrule (1).
- (3) A person who makes a request under subrule (1) must, on the date of filing, give a copy of it to a notifiable person.

[Rule 15 inserted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 570.]

16. Notice of compulsory conference

The executive officer is to give notice of a compulsory conference in writing and in accordance with any other requirements of these rules.

17. Notice of mediation

The executive officer is to give notice of a mediation in writing and in accordance with any other requirements of these rules.

18. Notice of hearing

The executive officer is to give notice of the time and place for a hearing in a proceeding to the applicant and any notifiable person involved in the proceeding either —

- (a) by endorsing the time and place on the copy of the application form to be given to the person; or
- (b) by a written notice given to the person.

19. Authentication of decision: section 74 of Act

For the purposes of the Act section 74, a decision of the Tribunal is authenticated by —

- (a) being signed by a member of the Tribunal or the executive officer and having the seal of the Tribunal affixed to it; or
- (b) if the decision is entered into a computerised data storage or retrieval system, by a member of the Tribunal or the executive officer entering confirmation of the decision into that system.

20. Time limit for purposes of section 84(3) of Act

The time limit specified for the purposes of the Act section 84(3) is —

- (a) in the case of a decision other than a final decision, within 2 days of the day on which the decision was made; or
- (b) within 7 days of the later of the days referred to in the Act section 105(5)(a) or (b), whichever is the later.

21. Limit on applications: section 84(4) of Act

For the purposes of the Act section 84(4), the number of applications is 2.

22. Relief from procedural requirements: section 92(1) of Act

The Tribunal may exercise any of the powers referred to in the Act section 92(1) in connection with any proceeding.

[23. Deleted in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 570.]

24. Request for and return of summons to witness and production of documents and other material by third parties

- (1) A request for the issue of a summons under the Act section 66(1) must be made in an approved form.
- [(2) deleted]*
- (3) A summons will usually be made returnable by the Tribunal at a final hearing. Where a party wishes to have any document or other material produced by a third party prior to a final hearing, the party should make an application under the Act section 35(1).
- (4) Any application to set aside a summons or to discharge an order made under the Act section 35(1) in whole or in part or to limit access to any document or other material produced in answer to a summons or in compliance with an order may be made at the hearing at which the summons is returnable or at which the order requires production or at another time prior to the date on which the production of the document or material is required by the summons or order.
- (5) A person who is required by a summons or an order made under the Act section 35(1) to produce any document or other material may, unless the person intends to apply to set aside the summons or to discharge the order or to limit access to any document or material, produce the document or material to the executive officer at least 48 hours before the date specified in the summons or order and is not then required to attend the hearing on the date specified in the summons or the order, unless the Tribunal orders otherwise or unless the person is also required by the summons to give evidence.
- (6) Where a document or material is produced to the executive officer in accordance with subrule (5), each party may inspect and photocopy the document or material within the Tribunal's office for the purpose of the proceedings unless the Tribunal orders otherwise.

[Rule 24 inserted in Gazette 13 Apr 2006 p. 1557-8; amended in Gazette 14 May 2013 p. 1970.]

25. Service of summons

- (1) A summons in an approved form must be served —
 - (a) by the party who requested its issue, unless the Tribunal orders otherwise; or
 - (b) if it is issued at the initiative of the Tribunal, as ordered by the Tribunal.
- (2) A summons must be served on the person to whom it is addressed by personal service.
- (3) The party who requested the issue of a summons to produce a document or thing must serve a copy of the summons on each other party as soon as practicable after the summons has been served on the person to whom it is addressed.
- (4) When a summons to a witness is served, a sufficient sum must be provided as conduct money.

Division 3 — Service

26. Giving copy of application

- (1) Subject to these rules or a decision of the Tribunal, a copy of an application must be given under the Act section 45(1) or (2)(a) immediately after it is filed but in any event not more than 7 days after the day on which the application is accepted by the executive officer.
- (2) Subject to a decision of the Tribunal, a referring person is to give a copy of an application to the applicant within one day of the day on which the application is accepted by the executive officer.
- (3) Subject to these rules or a decision of the Tribunal, a copy of an application may be given —
 - (a) by personal service; or

(b) by ordinary service; or

(c) by pre-paid post.

[(4), (5) deleted]

[Rule 26 amended in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 570.]

27. Exemption: section 45(2)(c) of Act

A person is exempt under the Act section 45(2)(c) from the requirement to give a copy of the application to a notifiable person if the notifiable person is the decision-maker and is a referring person in respect of the decision the subject of the application.

28. Giving other documents

Subject to a practice note or direction, if a document, other than an application or a summons, is required to or may be given to a person, the document must be given —

(a) by ordinary service; or

(b) by pre-paid post; or

(c) in the case of a company, as defined in the Corporations Act section 9, in a way permitted in the Corporations Act section 109X; or

(d) in the case of an incorporated association, as defined in the Associations Incorporation Act 1987 section 3(1), in accordance with section 41 of that Act; or

(e) in the case of an unincorporated association, by delivering it personally to the president, secretary or other similar officer of the association.

29. Giving documents by Tribunal or executive officer

If a document, other than an application or summons, is required to or may be given to a person by the Tribunal or the executive officer, the document, unless the rules otherwise provide or the Tribunal otherwise orders, is sufficiently given if it is given by ordinary service or pre-paid post.

30. Giving application to decision-maker

If a copy of an application must be given to a decision-maker, it may be given —

- (a) if the decision-maker is not a public sector body, to the chief executive officer of the Department administered by the Minister to whom the administration of the enabling Act under which the decision concerned is given; or
- (b) if these rules or an enabling Act prescribes the holder of a particular office as a person to whom the copy may be given, to the holder of that office.

[Rule 30 amended in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 571.]

31. Personal service: how effected

(1) If a document is required to or may be given by personal service, it is given to —

- (a) a natural person, by leaving a copy of the document with him or her;
- (b) a corporation, by leaving a copy of the document —
 - (i) at the registered office of the corporation; or
 - (ii) at the principal place of business, or the principal office, of the corporation in the State,with some person apparently an officer of or in the service of the corporation and apparently a person who has reached 16 years of age;
- (c) an unincorporated association, by leaving a copy of the document at the principal place of business or the principal office of the association with some person apparently an officer of or in the service of the association and apparently a person who has reached 16 years of age, or as the Tribunal or a judicial member or non-judicial member may order.

- (2) If a person refuses to accept a document, it may be given to him or her by putting the document down in his or her presence and telling him or her the nature of it.
- (3) It is not necessary in order to effect personal service that the original document be shown.
- (4) Despite subrule (1)(a), personal service on a natural person who is not of full legal capacity is effected by leaving a copy of the document with —
 - (a) the person's litigation guardian appointed under the Act section 40(2) or guardian ad litem;
 - (b) if the person does not have a litigation guardian or guardian ad litem, an administrator of the person's estate appointed under the Guardianship and Administration Act 1990 or the person's guardian appointed under a law of a State or Territory;
 - (c) if the person does not have a litigation guardian, a guardian ad litem, an administrator or a guardian, an adult person who apparently has the care of the person, including the person in charge of a hospital, nursing home or other care facility at which the person is a patient or resident.
- (5) A document given by personal service is to be taken to have been given to a person at the time the document is left with a person or at a place in accordance with this rule.

[Rule 31 amended in Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 571.]

32. Pre-paid post: how effected

- (1) If a document is required to or may be given by pre-paid post, it is given by sending a copy of the document by pre-paid post addressed to the person to be served at —

- (a) the address for service in the proceedings of that person; or
 - (b) the address of that person's legal practitioner, litigation guardian, guardian ad litem or agent; or
 - (c) if, at the time when the copy is to be posted, the person has no address for service in the proceedings, the person's usual or last known place of business or residence.
- (2) A document given by pre-paid post is to be taken to have been given to a person 2 business days after the day on which the document was posted.

33. Ordinary service: how effected

- (1) For the purposes of subrule (2), the proper address of a person is —
- (a) the address for service in the proceedings of that person; or
 - (b) the address of that person's legal practitioner, litigation guardian, guardian ad litem or agent; or
 - (c) if, at the time when the copy is to be left or posted under that subrule, the person has no address for service in the proceedings, the person's usual or last known place of business or residence.
- (2A) A document given by ordinary service must comply with any requirements under these rules, a practice note or a direction.
- (2) If a document is required to or may be given by ordinary service, it is given —
- (a) by leaving a copy of the document at the proper address of the person to be served between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on a business day; or
 - (b) by giving a copy of the document in accordance with the Interpretation Act 1984 section 76(d); or

- (c) if the person to be given the document has specified or authorised a number for service by fax transmission, by sending the document to that fax number; or
- (d) if the person to be given the document has specified or authorised an address for service by email, by sending the document to that email address; or
- (e) if the person to be given the document is a public sector body, by sending the document to the body's address for service in the proceedings.

[(3)-(5) deleted]

- (6) The time of giving any document is, where the document or copy of the document —
 - (a) is sent by post under subrule (2)(b), 2 business days after the day on which the document was posted; or
 - (b) is sent by fax transmission or email under subrule (2)(c), (d) or (e), at the time the fax or email is received.

- (7) If a fax or an email is received after 4.00 p.m. on any day, it is to be taken to have been received on the next business day.

[Rule 33 amended in Gazette 14 May 2013 p. 1970; 6 Feb 2015 p. 571.]

34. Address for service

- (1) The address of a place for service in the proceedings must be an address within this State at which documents may, during ordinary business hours —
 - (a) be left for the person whose address for service it is; and
 - (b) to which documents may be posted to that person.
- (2) If a person is represented by a legal practitioner, the address for service in the proceedings must be the address of that legal practitioner or of the legal practitioner's agent located within this State.

- (3) If a person is represented by an agent, the address for service in the proceedings must be the address of that agent located within this State.
- (4) A public sector body may by written notice —
- (a) give the executive officer a fax number or an address for service by email; or
 - (b) change or withdraw that number or address for service.
- (5) The executive officer is to keep in a register an accurate record of a fax number or an email address of a public sector body.
- (6) If a party to a proceeding is represented by a legal practitioner or an agent and the name and address of the legal practitioner or agent is not provided in the application, the legal practitioner or agent must within 7 days of receiving instructions to represent the party —
- (a) file with the executive officer a notice of representation in an approved form duly completed; and
 - (b) give a copy of the notice to each other party to the proceeding or, if a party is represented by a legal practitioner or agent, that legal practitioner or agent.
- (7) If —
- (a) a party to a proceeding is represented by a legal practitioner or an agent; and
 - (b) the name and address of the legal practitioner or agent is not provided in the application; and
 - (c) the legal practitioner or agent has not complied with subrule (6),
- the legal practitioner or agent may not appear in or file any document with the Tribunal or executive officer in relation to the proceeding.
- (8) If a legal practitioner or agent ceases to represent a party in proceedings, the legal practitioner or agent must within 7 days of ceasing to represent the party —

- (a) file with the executive officer a notice of representation in an approved form duly completed stating —
 - (i) the legal practitioner or agent has ceased to represent the party; and
 - (ii) the party's address for service in the proceedings;and
- (b) give a copy of the notice to each other party in the proceeding or, if a party is represented by a legal practitioner or agent, that legal practitioner or agent.

[Rule 34 amended in Gazette 13 Apr 2007 p. 1684; 6 Feb 2015 p. 571.]

35. Acceptance by legal practitioner or agent

- (1) This rule applies to —
 - (a) an application; or
 - (b) any document required or permitted to be given in any proceeding, that is required to be given by personal service.

- (2) If a legal practitioner or an agent representing a person in accordance with the Act, an enabling Act or these rules (the representative) makes on a copy of a document to which this rule applies a note that he or she accepts the document on behalf of a person, the document is to be taken, unless the representative is shown not to have had authority to represent the person, to have been duly given to that person on the date on which the representative makes the note or on such earlier date as may be proved.

36. Substituted service

- (1) If for any reason it is impractical to give a document in the manner set out in the rules, the Tribunal may order that, instead of using such a manner, such steps be taken as are specified in

- (c) can fairly and competently conduct the proceedings for the person needing the litigation guardian; and
 - (d) has consented to act as the litigation guardian.
- (2) A person may apply for the appointment, replacement or removal of a person as a litigation guardian of a party or potential party.
- (3) A person appointed as a litigation guardian of a party or potential party must give written notice of the appointment to an applicant or a notifiable person.
- (4) A person appointed as a litigation guardian of a party or potential party —
 - (a) is bound by these rules; and
 - (b) must do anything required by these rules to be done by the party or potential party; and
 - (c) may, for the benefit of the party or potential party, do anything permitted by these rules to be done by the party or potential party.
- (5) Subject to the Act Part 4 Division 5, the Tribunal may order the costs of a litigation guardian to be paid —
 - (a) by a party; or
 - (b) from the income or property of the person for whom the litigation guardian is appointed.

Division 5 — Settlements

40. Settlement offers

- (1) An offer to settle a proceeding that is before the Tribunal may be made —
 - (a) with prejudice, meaning that any party may refer to the offer, or to any terms of the offer, at any time during the proceeding; or
 - (b) without prejudice, meaning that the Tribunal is not able to be told of the making of the offer until after it has made its decision in respect of the matters in dispute in the proceeding (other than in relation to the making of orders in respect of costs).

- (2) If an offer does not specify whether it is made with or without prejudice, it is to be treated as if it had been made without prejudice.
- (3) A party may make more than one offer.
- (4) If an offer provides for the payment of money, the offer must specify the amount of money to be paid and when and how that money is to be paid.

41. Acceptance of settlement offers

- (1) An offer may be open for acceptance for any period. However, an offer must be open for acceptance until the commencement of the hearing or until the expiry of a specified period after the offer is made, whichever is the shorter period.
- (2) The minimum period that can be specified is 14 days.
- (3) An offer cannot be withdrawn while it is open for acceptance without the permission of the Tribunal.
- (4) In deciding whether to give permission, the Tribunal may examine the offer, even if it was made without prejudice.
- (5) If the offer was made without prejudice, a member of the Tribunal who examines it for the purposes of subrule (4) must take no further part in the proceeding after determining whether or not to give permission.
- (6) A party can only accept an offer by giving the party who made it a signed notice of acceptance.
- (7) A party may accept an offer even though the party has made a counter-offer.

[Rule 41 amended in Gazette 13 Apr 2006 p. 1558.]

Division 6 — Costs

42A. Time within which costs application may be made

Subject to these rules, an application to the Tribunal for costs under this Division can be made within 21 days of the orders to which the application relates being made by the Tribunal.

[Rule 42A inserted in Gazette 14 May 2013 p. 1970.]

42. Order for costs if settlement offer is rejected

- (1) This rule applies if —
 - (a) a party to a proceeding (other than a proceeding in the Tribunal’s review jurisdiction) gives another party to the proceeding an offer in writing to settle the proceeding; and
 - (b) the other party does not accept the offer within the time the offer is open; and
 - (c) the offer complies with rules 40 and 41; and
 - (d) in the opinion of the Tribunal, the orders made by the Tribunal in the proceeding are not more favourable to the other party than the offer.
- (2) If this rule applies, the Tribunal is to, in determining the costs that may be awarded, take into account that the party did not accept an offer more favourable than the Tribunal’s order.
- (3) In determining whether its orders are or are not more favourable to a party than an offer, the Tribunal —
 - (a) must take into account any costs it would have ordered on the date the offer was made; and
 - (b) must disregard any costs it ordered in respect of any period after the date the offer was received.

43. Amount of costs

- (1) If the Tribunal makes an order under the Act Part 4 Division 5 for the payment of costs and does not fix the amount of costs,

State Administrative Tribunal Rules 2004

Part 2 General

Division 7 Miscellaneous

r. 47

- (2) An approved form must be completed in accordance with these rules and any instructions on or attached to the form.
- (3) A form may be accepted by the executive officer or dealt with by the Tribunal if it is substantially in the approved form and, subject to rule 7(2), has been substantially completed.
- (4) The executive officer is to make the approved forms available to persons requiring them.

Part 3 — Special rules

48. Animal Welfare Act 2002

For the purposes of the Act section 75(1)(c), the following persons are prescribed —

- (a) the Minister of the Crown to whom the administration of the Animal Welfare Act 2002 is committed; and
- (b) the Director General as defined in the Animal Welfare Act 2002 section 5(1); and
- (c) if the original decision-maker was an inspector, as defined in the Animal Welfare Act 2002 section 5(1), that inspector.
