(2) This Act does not prevent —

(a) the provision of public passenger transport services other than by the Authority or persons with whom it contracts; or

(b) the Authority from performing functions under other Acts that do not relate to, or are not limited to, public passenger transport services.

Note: The Authority also has functions under other Acts. For example, the Rail Freight System Act 2000 gives it functions associated with the rail freight network.

(3) A secondary function of the Authority is to earn revenue by engaging in commercial activities that are not inconsistent with, and do not have an adverse effect on, the performance of its other functions under this or any other Act and are —

(a) connected with the performance of the Authority’s functions under this or any other Act; or

(b) authorised by the regulations.

13. Powers generally

(g) produce and deal in any equipment, facilities or system associated with, the performance of the function;

(h) develop and turn to account any technology, software or other intellectual property that relates to the function and, for that purpose, apply for, hold, exploit and dispose of any patent, patent rights, copyright or similar rights; and

(i) promote and market the Authority and its activities.

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1) or any of the Authority’s other powers.

(4) The Authority may —

(a) make any gift for a charitable purpose or any other purpose of benefit to the community or a section of the community;

(b) make any ex gratia payment that it considers to be in the Authority’s interest;
(c) accept any gift or other payment if it is absolute, or subject to conditions that it would be able to satisfy.

(b) this Act does not authorise the Authority to do anything that would be inconsistent with the purpose for which the Authority has the care, control, and management of the land.
15. Dealing with certain Crown land

(1) The Authority may, in the name and on behalf of the State, grant a lease, licence, or easement in respect of any Crown land of which it has the care, control, and management, except to the extent that it would be inconsistent with subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6), the Government Railways Act 1904, or anything in a relevant instrument, to do so.

(2) In subsection (1) —

relevant instrument means an instrument giving the Authority the care, control, and management of the land.

(3) The Authority must obtain the Minister’s written approval before it grants a lease, licence, or easement under subsection (1) unless the lease, licence, or easement meets criteria prescribed by the regulations.

(4) Before granting a lease, licence, or easement under subsection (1) in respect of any Crown land that is in the DBNGP corridor (as defined in the Dampier to Bunbury Pipeline Act 1997 Part 4), or anything on that land, the Authority must obtain the written approval of the DBNGP Land Access Minister (as defined in that Part).

(5) The grant of a lease, licence, or easement in respect of Crown land under subsection (1), or anything on that land, is on the conditions that —

(a) the land or thing is not to be used in a way that is inconsistent with anything that is on, or is being done on, corridor land as defined in the Rail Freight System Act 2000 in accordance with rights conferred under Part 3 of that Act; and

(b) except as may be permitted by regulations under this Act, the land or thing is not to be used in a way or to an extent that could reasonably be expected to materially interfere with the exercise in the future of rights that have been, or might in the future be, conferred under Part 3 of that Act.

(6) The period for which a lease or licence is granted under subsection (1) cannot exceed 50 years.

(7) For the purposes of this section and any prescribed criteria, the period for which a lease or licence is granted includes any period for which it is renewable under an option to renew.

(8) Nothing in a provision of this Act that is not in this section authorises the Authority to dispose of an estate or interest in any Crown land of which it has the care, control, and management.

16. Restriction on certain dealings in other land

The Authority cannot dispose of any estate in land other than Crown land without the Minister’s written approval unless the regulations permit the disposal.

17. Authority may operate on corridor land under the Rail Freight System Act 2000

(2) The delegation must be in writing executed by the Authority.

(3) If a person is not employed by the Authority, a power or duty can only be delegated to the person under this section if the person has been approved for the purposes of this section by the Minister.

(4) An approval under subsection (3) may be given in respect of —

   (a) a specified person or persons of a specified class; or

   (b) the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office or class of office.

(5) A person to whom a power or duty is delegated under this section cannot delegate that power or duty.

(6) A person exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated to the person under this section is to be taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.

(7) Nothing in this section limits the ability of the Authority to perform a function through a member of its staff or an agent.
Draft operational plan to be submitted to Minister

(1) In each financial year the Authority is to prepare, and submit to the Minister for approval, a draft operational plan.

(2) The Minister may from time to time, with the concurrence of the Treasurer, by written notice to the Authority —
   (a) fix a day in each year by which a draft operational plan is to be submitted under subsection (1); or
   (b) cancel a notice given under paragraph (a).

(2a) Each draft operational plan is to be submitted not later than —

   (b) if there is for the time being no day so fixed — 2 months before the start of the next financial year (called the relevant financial year in this section and sections 21 and 22).

(3) When the Minister approves of a draft operational plan it becomes the Authority’s operational plan for the relevant financial year but the Minister must have the Treasurer’s concurrence before approving a draft operational plan.

(4) If a draft operational plan has not been approved by the Minister before the start of the relevant financial year, the latest draft plan is to be the operational plan for the Authority until a draft operational plan is approved by the Minister.

(5) In subsection (4) —
   latest draft plan means the draft operational plan submitted, or last submitted, by the Authority to the Minister before the start of the relevant financial year with any modifications made by the Authority, whether before or after that time, at the direction of the Minister.

      (a) the Minister has returned a draft operational plan to the Authority requesting it to consider, or further consider, any matter and deal with it; and
23. Modifications of operational plan

(1) An operational plan may be modified by the Authority with the approval of the Minister.

24. Duty to observe operational plan

The Authority is to perform its functions in accordance with its operational plan as existing from time to time.

25. Consultation

(1) The Authority and the Minister, at the request of either, are to consult together, either directly or through appropriate representatives, in relation to any aspect of the Authority’s operations.

(2) The Authority must consult the Minister before it enters upon a course of action that in its opinion —

(a) amounts to a major initiative; or

(b) is likely to be of significant public interest.

(3) If the Minister responsible for the administration of this Act is not the Minister responsible for the administration of each other Act under which the Authority has functions, before approving a draft operational plan or a modification of an operational plan... for the Authority the Minister is to consult with each other Minister who is responsible for the administration of any of those other Acts.

[Heading inserted: No. 77 of 2006 s. 17.]

The provisions of the Financial Management Act 2006 and the Auditor General Act 2006 regulating the financial administration, audit and reporting of statutory authorities apply to and in respect of the Authority and its operations.

[Section 38 inserted: No. 77 of 2006 s. 17.]
Part 6 — Miscellaneous

Division 1 — Protection of people dealing with Authority

39. People dealing with Authority may make assumptions

(1) A person having dealings with the Authority is entitled to make the assumptions described in section 41.

(2) In any proceedings in relation to the dealings, any assertion by the Authority that the matters that the person is entitled to assume were not correct must be disregarded.

40. Third parties may make assumptions

(1) A person (the third party) having dealings with a person (the new owner) who has acquired, or purports to have acquired, title to property from the Authority (whether directly or indirectly) is entitled to make the assumptions described in section 41.

(2) In any proceedings in relation to the dealings, any assertion by the Authority or the new owner that the matters that the third party is entitled to assume were not correct must be disregarded.

41. Matters that can be assumed

The assumptions that a person is, because of section 39 or 40, entitled to make are —

(a) that, at all relevant times, this Act has been complied with;

(b) that a person who is held out by the Authority to be the chief executive officer, another member of staff, or an agent of a particular kind —

   (i) has been properly appointed; and

   (ii) has authority to perform the functions customarily performed by the chief executive officer, another member of staff, or an agent of that kind, as the case may require;
that a member of staff or agent of the Authority who has authority to issue a document on behalf of the Authority has authority to warrant that the document is genuine;

(d) that a member of staff or agent of the Authority who has authority to issue a certified copy of a document on behalf of the Authority has authority to warrant that the copy is a true copy;

(e) that a document has been properly sealed by the Authority if —
   (i) it bears what appears to be an imprint of the Authority’s common seal; and
   (ii) the sealing of the document appears to comply with section 51;

and

(f) that the Authority’s chief executive officer, other members of staff, and agents have properly performed their duties to the Authority.

42. When those matters cannot be assumed

(1) Despite sections 39 and 40, a person is not entitled to assume a matter described in section 41 if —
   (a) the person has actual knowledge that the assumption would be incorrect; or
   (b) because of the person’s connection or relationship with the Authority, the person ought to know that the assumption would be incorrect.

(2) If, because of subsection (1), a person is not entitled to make a particular assumption in relation to dealings with the Authority, section 39(2) does not apply to any assertion by the Authority in relation to the assumption.

(3) If, because of subsection (1), a person is not entitled to make a particular assumption in relation to an acquisition or purported acquisition from the Authority of title to property, section 40(2)
does not apply to any assertion by the Authority or another person in relation to the assumption.

Division 2 — Infringement notices

43. Term used: prescribed

In this Division —

prescribed means prescribed by regulations.

44. Giving of notice

(1) An authorised person or a member of the Police Force who has reason to believe that a person has committed a prescribed offence under this Act may, at or about the time the alleged offence is believed to have been committed, give an infringement notice to the alleged offender.

(2) An offence cannot be prescribed under this section if —

(a) it is punishable by imprisonment; or

(b) the maximum penalty that could be imposed for that offence by a court would depend on any circumstance of the commission of the offence.

45. Content of notice

(1) An infringement notice is to be in the prescribed form and is to —

(a) contain a description of the alleged offence;

(b) advise that if the alleged offender does not wish to be prosecuted for the alleged offence in a court, the amount of money specified in the notice as being the modified penalty for the offence may be paid to an authorised person within a period of 28 days after the giving of the notice; and

(c) inform the alleged offender as to who are authorised persons for the purposes of receiving payment of modified penalties.
(2) In an infringement notice the amount specified as being the modified penalty for the offence referred to in the notice is to be the amount that was the prescribed modified penalty at the time the alleged offence is believed to have been committed.

(3) The modified penalty that may be prescribed for an offence is not to exceed 20% of the maximum penalty that could be imposed for that offence by a court.

[Section 45 amended: No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

46. Extension of time

An authorised person may, in a particular case, extend the period of 28 days within which the modified penalty may be paid and the extension may be allowed whether or not the period of 28 days has elapsed.

47. Withdrawal of notice

(1) An authorised person may, whether or not the modified penalty has been paid, withdraw an infringement notice by sending to the alleged offender a notice in the prescribed form stating that the infringement notice has been withdrawn.

(2) If an infringement notice is withdrawn after the modified penalty has been paid, the amount is to be refunded.

48. Benefit of paying modified penalty

(1) Subsection (2) applies if the modified penalty specified in an infringement notice has been paid within 28 days or such further time as is allowed and the notice has not been withdrawn.

(2) If this subsection applies it prevents the bringing of proceedings and the imposition of penalties to the same extent that they would be prevented if the alleged offender had been convicted by a court of, and punished for, the alleged offence.
(3) Payment of a modified penalty is not to be regarded as an admission for the purposes of any proceedings, whether civil or criminal.

49. Application of penalties collected

An amount paid as a modified penalty is, subject to section 47(2), to be dealt with as if it were a penalty imposed by a court as a penalty for an offence.

Division 3 — Other provisions

50. Authority exempt from certain rates and taxes

(1) Subject to subsection (3), the Authority is not liable to pay any local government rate or charge or water charge.

(2) In subsection (1) —

   (a) the chief executive officer; or
   (b) any other member or members of staff,

to sign documents on behalf of the Authority, either generally or subject to conditions or restrictions specified in the authorisation.

(6) A document purporting to be executed in accordance with this section is to be presumed to be duly executed unless the contrary is shown.

(7) When a document is produced bearing a seal purporting to be the common seal of the Authority, it is to be presumed that the seal is the common seal of the Authority unless the contrary is shown.

52. Contract formalities

(1) In so far as the formalities of making, varying or discharging a contract are concerned, a person acting as authorised by the Authority may make, vary or discharge a contract in the name of or on behalf of the Authority in the same manner as if that contract were made, varied or discharged by a natural person.

(2) The making, variation, or discharge of a contract in accordance with subsection (1) is effectual in law and binds the Authority and other parties to the contract.

(3) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Authority from making, varying or discharging a contract under its common seal.
53. Assignment of benefit of contract

(1) A party to a contract with the Authority cannot assign any right or other benefit under the contract unless the Authority consents to the assignment.

(2) A purported assignment contrary to subsection (1) is void.

(3) The consent may be withheld until —

54. Protection from liability for wrongdoing

(1) An action in tort does not lie against a person other than the Authority for anything that the person has done, in good faith, in the performance or purported performance of a function under this or any other Act.

(2) The protection given by subsection (1) applies even though the thing done as described in that subsection may have been capable of being done whether or not this Act had been enacted.

(3) Despite subsection (1), neither the Authority nor the State is relieved of any liability that it might have for another person having done anything as described in that subsection.

(4) In this section, a reference to the doing of anything includes a reference to an omission to do anything.
Exchange of information

(1) A person who has, or has access to, information obtained in the course of the administration of this Act may disclose that information to —
   (a) a person who is a member of the Police Force; or
   (b) a person employed in the department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of the Police Act 1892, for the purposes of the performance of an official function.

(3) A person who is an authorised person or a security officer may, in order to obtain information to facilitate the performance of the person’s functions in that capacity under this Act, request —
   (a) a person who is a member of the Police Force; or

(the person requested) to disclose to the person making the request any information of a kind described in the request that the person requested has, or has access to, in an official capacity.

(4) Information the disclosure of which is requested under subsection (3) may be, but is not required to be, disclosed in accordance with the request.

(5) This section does not authorise a person who is not an employing authority to —
   (a) disclose information, whether under subsection (1) or in response to a request under subsection (3); or
(b) under subsection (3), request the disclosure of information, except with the approval of the person’s employing authority.

(6) An employing authority’s approval under subsection (5) may apply to a particular disclosure of specified information or may apply generally as specified in the approval.

(7) Instead of the relevant employing authorities respectively approving of a person making a request under subsection (3) for the disclosure of information and approving of the disclosure of information in response to a request under that subsection, the employing authorities may approve of the disclosure of information to a person who could make the request by giving the person access, through a computer database or other collection of information, to information of the kind that could be requested.

(8) The authority given by this section to disclose, or to approve the disclosure of, information applies even though the disclosure may be contrary to any duty of confidentiality imposed by law or otherwise arising and whether or not the duty of confidentiality arose before this section commenced but, without limiting the authority given by this section to disclose information, a person to whom confidential information is disclosed under this section is bound by the same duty of confidentiality as applied to the person making the disclosure.

(9) A person making or approving a disclosure under this section incurs no civil or criminal liability as a result of doing so, and is not to be regarded for any purpose as being in breach of the duty of confidentiality because of the disclosure.

(10) In this section — employing authority has the meaning given to that term in the Public Sector Management Act 1994 section 5 except that, for the purposes of this section, the Commissioner of Police is to be regarded as the employing authority of a member of the Police Force.

56. Authorised persons and security officers

(1) The chief executive officer may, in writing, designate a person to be an authorised person for the purposes of provisions of this Act specified in the instrument of designation, but a person who is authorised to give infringement notices under section 44 is not eligible to be an authorised person for the purposes of section 45, 46, or 47.

(2) The chief executive officer may, in writing, designate a person employed by the Authority to be a security officer for the purposes of this Act.

(3) In subsection (2) —

person employed by the Authority does not include a person referred to in section 10(2) or (3).

(4) A person cannot be a security officer unless the chief executive officer is satisfied that the person is suitably trained to perform the functions that this Act gives to a security officer.

(5) A person can, at the same time, be a security officer and an authorised person.

(6) The chief executive officer is to issue to each authorised person and to each security officer a certificate of that person’s designation, and the authorised person or security officer is to produce the certificate if required to do so by a person in respect of whom a power has been or is about to be exercised.

57. Obtaining details of certain offenders

   (a) an offence against this Act; or
(b) an offence referred to in section 58(2) committed in the circumstances described in that provision, and that person’s office is prescribed for the purposes of the Criminal Investigation (Identifying People) Act 2002 and in particular the definition of public officer in section 3 of that Act.

(3) If a person continues or repeats any act or omission that is an offence under this Act after having been warned by a security officer or a member of the Police Force that to do so may result in the person being taken into custody for the offence, the security officer or member of the Police Force may, without warrant other than this section, take the offender into custody and take the offender to a police station or other place for the offender to be dealt with for the offence according to law.

(4) If a security officer or a member of the Police Force has reason to believe that a person has committed an offence under section 64B(1), the security officer or member of the Police Force may, without warrant other than this subsection, take the offender into custody and take the offender to a police station or other place for the offender to be dealt with for the offence according to law.

(2) Subsection (1) applies despite the warrant not being directed to the security officer or a class of persons that includes the security officer.

60. Searching persons taken into custody

(1) The purpose of this section is to enable a security officer to remove from the possession of a person taken into custody under section 58 or 59 anything that could cause harm to that person or any other person (a dangerous article).

(2) A security officer who takes a person into custody under section 58 or 59 may search the person and take any dangerous article found on the person, using any force that is reasonably necessary.

64. Unclaimed property

(1) A justice may, on the application of the Authority, order that unclaimed property that was seized is forfeited to the State.

(2) Unclaimed property that was not seized is forfeited to the State at the end of the prescribed period after it came into the possession of the Authority.

(5) If a person has been found guilty of or pleaded guilty to —

   (a) at least 2 relevant offences committed within a period of 12 months beginning on the day on which the first offence was committed; or

   (b) 3 or more relevant offences committed within a period of 18 months beginning on the day on which the first offence was committed,

(6) The period specified in the order —

A security officer or authorised person doing, or considering doing, anything to which the Young Offenders Act 1994 would apply were it to be done by a member of the Police Force is to comply with the obligations imposed by that Act on a member of the Police Force and, for that purpose, a reference in that Act to a member of the Police Force includes a reference to a security officer or an authorised person.
68. Proof of certain matters

In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an averment in the prosecution notice that at a particular time —

(a) whether actual, contingent or prospective, liquidated or unliquidated; or

(b) whether owed alone or jointly or jointly and severally with any other person, that arises before the transfer time in relation to the administration of the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 Part II Division 4 and exists immediately before that time;

property means property of any kind whether tangible, intangible, real, or personal and, without limiting that meaning, includes —

(a) any chose in action or goodwill; or right means any right, power, privilege or immunity whether actual, contingent or prospective;

transfer time means the time when section 195 comes into operation;

72. Minister may make transfer order

(1) To facilitate the transition from the provisions of the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 Part II Division 4 to the provisions of this Act, the Minister may make and publish in the Gazette an order that —

(a) specifies any asset or liability that, by operation of section 73, is to be assigned to the Authority;
(b) specifies proceedings relating to the administration of the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 Part II Division 4 in which the Authority is, by operation of section 73, to be substituted for a former holder as a party; and
(c) specifies any agreement or instrument relating to the administration of the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 Part II Division 4 that, by operation of section 73, is to have effect as if, unless otherwise expressly specified in the order, references to the Authority were substituted for references in it to a former holder.
(2) The transfer order may specify things by reference to schedules which —
   (a) need not be published in the Gazette; but
   (b) must be available for public inspection, and anything specified in a schedule is to be taken to be specified in the order.

(3) Anything may be specified in a transfer order by describing the class to which it belongs.

(4) Before a transfer order is made specifying anything by reference to a schedule, a copy of which will be required to be delivered to a relevant official under section 75, the Minister is to consult as to the form and content of the schedule with the relevant official (or each relevant official if there is more than one).

(5) A transfer order can only be made before the transfer time.

(6) The fact that a previous transfer order has been made does not prevent a further transfer order from being made.

(7) The transfer order, or a schedule to which it refers, may be amended by the Minister, by further order published in the Gazette, but no such amendment may be made after the transfer time.

73. Consequences of transfer order

If a transfer order is made then —

(a) at the transfer time —

   (i) every asset specified in the order is, by operation of this section, assigned to the Authority and if it was previously held on behalf of the State it is assigned to the Authority to hold in its own right;

   (ii) every liability specified in the order is, by operation of this section, assigned to and becomes a liability of the Authority; and
(iii) the Authority is, by operation of this section, substituted for a former holder as a party to any proceedings specified in the order;

(b) any agreement or instrument specified in the order has effect, by operation of this section, as if, unless otherwise expressly specified in the order, a reference to the Authority were, at the transfer time, substituted for a reference in the agreement or instrument to a former holder;

(d) anything relating to an asset or liability assigned by paragraph (a) that was done or omitted to be done by, to, or in respect of, a former holder before the assignment and is of any effect is to be taken to have been done or omitted by, to, or in respect of, the Authority.
