Spear-guns Control Act 1955

An Act to control the use of spear guns.

1. Short title

   This Act may be cited as the Spear-guns Control Act 1955.

2. Commencement

   This Act shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3. Interpretation

   In this Act unless the context requires otherwise —

   Inspector means any member of the Police Force of the State and any fisheries officer referred to in the Fish Resources Management Act 1994, and in the application of this Act in a prohibited area that comprises an area vested in or under the care, control and management of a local government, includes any person appointed by that local government as an inspector;

   prohibited area means an area proclaimed as an area in which the use of spear-guns is prohibited;

   spear means a spear or similar instrument or thing capable of being discharged or propelled from a spear-gun;

   spear-gun means any mechanism or instrument from which a spear can be discharged or propelled and includes the spear;

   to load means to fit a spear to a spear-gun, and inflections and derivatives of the verb, to load, have correlative meanings.

   [Section 3 amended by No. 11 of 1965 s. 2; No. 53 of 1994 s. 264; No. 14 of 1996 s. 4.]
4. Offences

(1) Each of the matters stated in the first column of the following table is an offence against this Act and is punishable on conviction of the offender by a penalty not exceeding that set out in the second column of the table opposite the statement of the offence.

2. The Court may, in addition to inflicting a penalty for an offence against this Act, make such order as to the disposal of any spear-gun to which the offence is related, as the Court thinks fit.

[Section 4 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s. 8; No. 94 of 1972 s. 4.]

5. Power to proclaim prohibited areas

From time to time the Governor may by proclamation declare areas to be prohibited areas and may from time to time by subsequent proclamation cancel in whole or part absolutely a declaration so made or substitute another declaration for the whole or part cancelled.

6. Presumption of proof of prohibited area

Where in a charge of an offence against this Act there is an averment that an act or omission occurred, within a prohibited area, courts and persons acting judicially shall, on the act or omission being proved, presume, in absence of proof to the contrary, that it occurred within the prohibited area as averred.

[Section 6 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

7. Powers of inspectors

Any inspector may, without the necessity of any warrant other than this section —

(a) question any person whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of having information relating to any offence or suspected offence against this Act;

(b) arrest any person whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of having committed an offence against this Act, and who refuses to state his correct name and address and have him dealt with according to law;

(c) examine any spear-gun with a view to ascertaining whether it is safe or fit for use;
(d) seize and take possession of any spear-gun or spear which appears to the inspector to be unsafe and prohibit its further use until it has been rendered safe; and

(e) seize any spear-gun or spear as to which there are reasonable grounds for believing that it will afford evidence as to the commission of an offence against this Act and deal with it according to law.

[Section 7 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141.]

8. Regulations

(1) The Governor may make regulations which appear to him to be necessary or convenient for effecting the operation and purposes of this Act.

(2) The regulations may prescribe a penalty not exceeding $40 for a breach of the regulations.

[Section 8 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s. 8.]
