Litter Act 1979

An Act to make provision for the abatement of litter, to establish, incorporate and confer powers upon the Keep Australia Beautiful Council (W.A.), and for incidental and other purposes.

Part I — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Litter Act 1979.

2. Commencement

Subject to this Act the provisions of this Act shall come into operation on such date or dates as is or are respectively fixed by proclamation.

[3. Deleted: No. 49 of 1981 s. 3.]

4. Effect of Act on other laws

- (1) The provisions of this Act are complementary to and not in derogation of the provisions of any other law of the State.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), this Act shall not be construed so as to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law of the State for an offence punishable by this Act, or from being liable under any other law of the State to any other or higher penalty or punishment than is provided for the offence by this Act.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects the operation of section 11 of the Sentencing Act 1995.
- (4) In this section law of the State means an Act or any regulations, rules, local laws, by-laws or statute having effect by virtue of an Act.

[Section 4 amended: No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 78 of 1995 s. 67.]

5. Terms used

s. 10

- (6) In this section —

Chamber of Commerce and Industry means the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Western Australia (Inc).

[Section 9 amended: No. 18 of 1986 s. 5; No. 7 of 1988 s. 21; No. 22 of 1996 s. 16(7); No. 36 of 1999 s. 247; No. 49 of 2004 s. 13; No. 28 of 2006 s. 213; No. 8 of 2009 s. 86; No. 53 of 2011 s. 59.]

10. Chairman

- (1) The Minister shall appoint a member of the Council, not being a member who is an officer in the Public Service of the State, to be the Chairman of the Council.
- (2) The office of Chairman becomes vacant if —
- (a) the person holding the office resigns the office by notice in writing to the Minister; or
 - (b) the person holding the office ceases to be a member of the Council; or
 - (c) the Minister declares the office to be vacant.
- (3) There shall be paid to the Chairman, from moneys standing to the credit of the Fund, such remuneration and allowances as the Governor determines.

[Section 10 amended: No. 49 of 1996 s. 64.]

11. Deputy Chairman

- (1) At the first meeting of the Council and thereafter at the first meeting of the Council held after 30 June in each year the members of the Council shall elect from among their number a Deputy Chairman.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) a person elected to the office of Deputy Chairman of the Council shall hold office until the next election for that office is held under subsection (1), but is eligible for re-election.

- (3) The office of Deputy Chairman of the Council becomes vacant if —
- (a) the person holding the office resigns the office by notice in writing to the Chairman;
 - (b) the person holding the office ceases to be a member of the Council;
 - (c) the person holding the office is appointed to be the Chairman.
- (4) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of Deputy Chairman the members of the Council shall elect one of their number to hold the office until the next election is held under subsection (1).

12. Members etc., application of other laws to

Acceptance of or acting in any office under section 9, 10 or 11 by any person does not of itself render the provisions of Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994, or any other Act applying to persons as officers of the Public Service of the State, applicable to that person, or affect or prejudice the application to him of those provisions if they applied to him at the time of the acceptance of or acting in that office.

[Section 12 amended: No. 32 of 1994 s. 19.]

13. Supporting members

- (1) Any person, body or organization may become affiliated with the Council as a supporting member.
- (2) The Council shall make such arrangements as are necessary —
- (a) to ensure that supporting members have the opportunity to participate in the work of the Council; and
 - (b) to enable supporting members to meet from time to time to discuss matters relating to the objects and functions of the Council and pass on their views to the Council.

14. Committees

- (1) The Council may from time to time —
 - (a) constitute committees by appointing any number of persons to be members of the committees, and abolish a committee so constituted by dismissing all the members of the committee; and
 - (b) assign names to the committees so constituted; and
 - (c) subject to the approval of the Minister, delegate to a committee such of its functions, duties, discretions, and powers, except this power of delegation, for such time and subject to such conditions as the Council determines and the committee shall exercise and perform the functions, duties, discretions, and may exercise the powers, so delegated to it; and
 - (d) dismiss any member of a committee and appoint another person to the office of the dismissed member; and
 - (e) appoint additional members to any committee.
- (2) Any member of the Council, supporting member or other person may be a member of a committee but the Council shall —
 - (a) appoint at least one member of the Council to be a member of each committee; and
 - (b) appoint as Chairman of a committee, a member of the Council appointed to that committee pursuant to paragraph (a).
- (3) The Chairman of the Council shall be ex officio a member of each committee.
- (4) Where the Chairman of the Council is unable to be present at a meeting of a committee the Deputy Chairman of the Council may attend that meeting in place of the Chairman and act for the Chairman thereat.
- (5) A delegation under subsection (1) is revocable at will and the delegation does not prevent the exercise of performance by the Council of any of its functions, duties, discretions or powers under this Act.

15. Staff

- (1) The Council may, with the approval of the Minister, appoint such officers and engage such employees as are necessary to enable it to efficiently achieve its objects and perform its functions and may supervise, control, suspend and dismiss such officers and employees.
- (2) Persons appointed or engaged under subsection (1) may be employed on a full-time or part-time basis.
- (3) Subject to any relevant award or industrial agreement the terms and conditions of employment of persons appointed or engaged under subsection (1), including the salary or wages payable, are such terms and conditions as the Council, on the recommendation of the Public Sector Commissioner and with the approval of the Minister, determines.
- (4) Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 does not apply to or in relation to persons appointed or engaged under subsection (1).
- (5) Notwithstanding anything in this section, to the extent that there is in the case of a person who is appointed under subsection (1) to be an officer and who is a member of the Senior Executive Service within the meaning of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 an inconsistency between this Act and that Act that Act shall prevail.

[Section 15 amended: No. 113 of 1987 s. 32; No. 32 of 1994 s. 19; No. 28 of 2006 s. 214; No. 39 of 2010 s. 89.]

16. Staff and facilities of departments etc., use of

- (1) The Council may by arrangement with the Minister concerned and upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually arranged with such Minister, make use, either full-time or part-time of —

- (a) the services of any officer or employee employed in the Public Service of the State or in a State instrumentality or otherwise in the service of the Crown in this State; or
 - (b) any facilities of a Department or of a State instrumentality.
- (2) An arrangement under subsection (1) with regard to the services of an officer or employee does not affect his rights under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 or any other Act applying to him as a public servant.

[Section 16 amended: No. 28 of 2006 s. 214.]

17. Professional people, engagement of

The Council may, with the approval of the Minister, engage and remunerate for their services such professional persons or agents as the Council considers may be necessary for the achievement or performance of any of its objects or functions.

 - (a) has within the district in respect of which he holds office the duties of and powers of an authorised officer under this Act, and may exercise those powers within that district;
 - (b) may exercise the powers conferred on him by this Act in relation to any person whom he has reason to believe is concerned in a contravention of this Act notwithstanding that such person is not then within the district in respect of which he holds office if that person was pursued from that district or is known to have been in that district at the time of the contravention.
- (4) A person who is appointed as an authorised officer pursuant to subsection (2) —
 - (a) has within the area of jurisdiction entrusted to him by the appointment the duties and powers of an authorised officer under this Act, and may exercise those powers within that area; and

- (b) may exercise the powers conferred upon him by this Act in relation to any person whom he has reason to believe is concerned in a contravention of this Act notwithstanding that such person is not then within the area of jurisdiction entrusted to him if that person was pursued from that area or is known to have been in that area at the time of the contravention; and
- (c) shall be issued with a certificate of his appointment as an authorised officer in the prescribed form, evidencing the area of jurisdiction entrusted to him under this Act, which he shall, on reasonable demand, produce for inspection by any person.

[Section 26 amended: No. 49 of 1981 s. 4; No. 53 of 1994 s. 264; No. 24 of 1995 s. 55; No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 28 of 2006 s. 215; No. 30 of 2012 s. 9.]

27. Authorised officers, powers of

- (1) An authorised officer may require a person whom he finds committing or whom he reasonably suspects to be committing or to have committed an offence against this Act to state his full name and usual place of residence.
- (1a) Any owner of a vehicle and any person to whom for the time being the possession or control of a vehicle may be entrusted shall, if required by an authorised officer, give any information which it is in his power to give, which may lead to the identification of any person who was driving or who was in charge or control of the vehicle at the time that, or at about the time that, an offence against this Act is alleged to have been committed.
Penalty: a fine of $1 000.
- (2) An authorised officer who finds a person contravening section 23, 24 or 24A may order that person —
 - (a) to remove the material the subject of the offence from the land or waters; or

s. 27A

- (b) to deposit the material the subject of the offence in the nearest place or receptacle set aside or provided for the deposit of litter, within such time as the authorised officer may direct.

- (3) A person shall not —
 - (a) fail to comply with a requisition directed to him under subsection (1) or (2) by an authorised officer; or
 - (b) in response to a requisition directed to him under subsection (1) by an authorised officer, give any information that is false or misleading.

Penalty: a fine of $1 000.

[Section 27 amended: No. 18 of 1986 s. 6; No. 6 of 1996 s. 9; No. 30 of 2012 s. 10.]

27A. Offences involving vehicles, presumptions as to offender etc.

- (1A) In this section —

infringement notice means an infringement notice under section 30;

prosecution notice means a prosecution notice under the Criminal Procedure Act 2004; relevant time, in relation to an offence, means the time at which the offence is alleged to have been committed;

responsible person, for a vehicle, means —

- (a) if the Road Traffic (Administration) Act 2008 section 6 is in operation — a person responsible for the vehicle under that section; or
 - (b) if the Road Traffic (Administration) Act 2008 section 6 is not in operation — a person responsible for the vehicle under the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 5A.
- (1) Where an offence against section 23 or 24 consists of the depositing of litter or causing litter to be deposited on any land or on or into any waters from a vehicle or the breaking of or causing to be broken any glass, metal or earthenware on any land or on or into any waters from a vehicle and the authorised officer investigating the offence is unable to establish who committed the offence —

- (a) the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the relevant time; or
- (b) if the authorised officer investigating the offence is unable to establish who was the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the relevant time, a responsible person for the vehicle at that time, is to be taken to have committed the offence and may be proceeded against and is punishable accordingly.

- (2) Despite subsection (1), a person is not to be taken to have committed an offence under that subsection if —
 - (a) within 14 days after the date of service of an infringement notice on the person for the offence, the person gives to the person who served the infringement notice; or
 - (b) within 14 days after the date of service of a copy of a prosecution notice on the person for the offence, the person gives to the person who commenced the prosecution, a written statement, on oath or by statutory declaration, that complies with subsection (3) or (4), as the case requires.

- (3) If the person was the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the relevant time, the statement must verify that some other person committed the offence and either —
 - (a) state the name and address of that other person; or
 - (b) if that name and address are not known to the person, verify that the person does not know and cannot by reasonable diligence find out that name and address.

s. 27A

- (4) If the person was a responsible person for the vehicle at the relevant time, the statement must verify that the person was not the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at that time and either —
- (a) state the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at that time; or
 - (b) if that name and address are not known to the person, verify that the person does not know and cannot by reasonable diligence find out that name and address.
- (5A) If an infringement notice is served on a person named in a statement given under subsection (2), a copy of the statement must be served with the infringement notice.
- (5B) If a prosecution is commenced against a person named in a statement given under subsection (2), a copy of the statement must be served, in accordance with the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 Schedule 2 clause 2, 3 or 4, with the copy of the prosecution notice.
- (5) Subject to subsections (5A) and (5B), the production of a statement given under subsection (2) is evidence of the facts stated in it and in the absence of evidence to the contrary is sufficient evidence of those facts.
- (6) Subsection (1) does not prejudice or affect the liability of a person by whom an offence was actually committed to be proceeded against and punished, except that where either that person or a person taken to have committed the offence by virtue of subsection (1) has been convicted of an offence, the other of them ceases to be liable under this Act for the offence.

[Section 27A inserted: No. 6 of 1996 s. 10; amended: No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 78; No. 30 of 2012 s. 11.]

27AA. Honorary inspectors, appointment of

A local government may appoint a person to be an honorary inspector to assist in the serving of infringement notices relating to offences prescribed for the purposes of section 30.

[Section 27AA inserted: No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; amended: No. 10 of 1998 s. 44.]

28. Court may order offender to remove litter etc.

- (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence against section 23, 24, 24A or 24B, the court may instead of or in addition to imposing any penalty order the offender —
 - (a) to clean up and remove the material the subject of the offence within a time specified in the order and under the directions and to the satisfaction of a person nominated in the order; and
 - (b) in default of his complying with the order of the court, to pay such penalty (in addition to any penalty already imposed) not exceeding $1 000 as the court thinks fit.
- (2) Where an order made under subsection (1) is complied with to the satisfaction of the person nominated in the order that person shall give or send to the offender a written statement to that effect.
- (3) Where an offender fails to comply with an order made under subsection (1) any justice may, upon application of the person nominated in the order, issue a summons requiring the offender to show cause before the court that made the order why the penalty imposed by the order should not be enforced.
- (4) Upon the hearing of a summons issued under subsection (3) the court —
 - (a) may extend the time for compliance with the order made under subsection (1) and in that event the provisions of this section shall apply as if the extended time were the time appointed by the order;

(b) may make such order as it thinks fit.

[Section 28 amended: No. 6 of 1996 s. 11.]

29. Court may order offender to pay costs of removing litter etc.

- (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence against section 23 or 24 or fails to comply with an order made under section 28(1) made in respect of a conviction for an offence against section 23 or 24, the court may instead of or in addition to imposing any penalty order the offender to pay to the owner or occupier or person or authority having control or management of the land or waters where the offence was committed such sum as it considers reasonable for the cleaning up and removal of the material the subject of the offence.
- (1a) Where a person is convicted of an offence against section 24A or 24B, or fails to comply with an order under section 28(1) made in respect of a conviction for an offence against section 24A or 24B, the court may instead of or in addition to imposing any penalty order the offender to pay to the owner or occupier or person or authority having control or management of the building, fence, furniture, pillar, post, screen, tree, structure, wall, other object or unoccupied vehicle where or on which a bill or bills were posted in consequence of the offence such sum as it considers reasonable for the cleaning up and removal of the bill or bills.
- (2) An amount ordered to be paid under subsection (1) or (1a) may be recovered as a judgment debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

[Section 29 amended: No. 92 of 1994 s. 23; No. 6 of 1996 s. 12.]

30. Infringement notices

- (1) If —
 - (a) an authorised officer has reason to believe that a person has committed a prescribed offence against this Act, the authorised officer; or

- (b) under section 27A(1) a person is to be taken to have committed a prescribed offence against this Act, an authorised officer, may serve on that person a notice, in the prescribed form (in this section called an infringement notice) informing the person that, if he does not wish to be prosecuted for the alleged offence in a court, he may pay to an officer specified in the notice, within the time therein specified, the amount of the penalty prescribed for the offence, if dealt with under this section.

- (2) An infringement notice may be served on an alleged offender personally or by posting it to him within 30 days after the occurrence giving rise to the allegation of an offence.
- (3) A person who receives an infringement notice may decline to be dealt with under the provisions of this section and, where he fails to pay the prescribed penalty within the time specified in the notice or within such further time as may, in any particular case, be allowed, he is deemed to have declined to be dealt with under those provisions.
- (4) An infringement notice may, whether or not the prescribed penalty has been paid, be withdrawn, at any time within 28 days after the service of the notice, by the sending of a notice, in the prescribed form, to the alleged offender at his last known place of residence or business, advising the alleged offender that the infringement notice has been withdrawn, and, in that event, the amount of any prescribed penalty that has been paid shall be refunded.
- (4a) A withdrawal notice sent under subsection (4) shall be signed by a person appointed in writing to withdraw infringement notices by the public authority on behalf of which the infringement notice was served.
- (4b) For the purposes of subsection (4a) an infringement notice served by an authorised officer of a class referred to in column 1 of the Third Schedule shall be regarded as having been served on behalf of the public authority referred to in column 2 of that Schedule opposite the reference to that class of authorised officers.

s. 31

- (5) Where a prescribed penalty has been paid pursuant to an infringement notice and the notice has not been withdrawn as provided by subsection (4) proceedings shall not be brought against any person with respect to the offence alleged in the notice.
- (6) The payment of a penalty pursuant to an infringement notice shall, for the purposes of this Act, constitute a conviction of an offence, but shall not be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, nor in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the occurrence by reason of which the infringement notice was given.

[Section 30 amended: No. 48 of 1981 s. 5; No. 18 of 1986 s. 7; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80; No. 30 of 2012 s. 12.]

31. Penalties, application of

- (1) Penalties for offences against this Act recovered in proceedings instituted by or on behalf of a local government shall be paid to the local government.
- (2) Penalties for offences against this Act recovered in proceedings instituted by or on behalf of a public authority that has a fund, shall be paid into that fund.
- (2a) Penalties for offences against this Act recovered in proceedings instituted by or on behalf of a public authority that does not have a fund but administers or uses any moneys paid to or collected by it, shall be paid to that authority to be administered or used by it as part of those moneys.
- (2b) For the purposes of subsections (1), (2) and (2a) proceedings instituted by an authorised officer of a class referred to in column 1 of the Third Schedule shall be regarded as having been instituted on behalf of the public authority referred to in column 2 of that Schedule opposite the reference to that class of authorised officers.
- (3) Penalties for offences against this Act recovered in proceedings other than proceedings referred to in subsection (1), (2) or (2a) shall be credited to the Fund.

- (4) Proceedings as used in this section includes proceedings by way of infringement notice under section 30.

[Section 31 amended: No. 49 of 1981 s. 6; No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 49 of 1996 s. 64.]

32. Defence of consent, proof of Where by way of defence to any prosecution for an offence under this Act it is alleged that any act was performed on private land by consent that defence shall not be taken to have been established unless —

- (a) it is shown that the land in question was —
- (i) land (not being land reserved under Part 4 of the Land Administration Act 1997, whether or not the care, control and management of the land are placed with, or the land is leased to, any person or body under that Act) which is alienated from the Crown for any estate or interest; or
 - (ii) land the subject of any conditional purchase agreement or of any lease from the Crown; or
 - (iii) land comprised in a reserve under any Act and leased for any purpose; or
 - (iv) other land, in respect of which a right of occupation or use is held by any person or body not being a right conferred principally for mining purposes, and that the act was performed in that place at the material time with the specific prior consent of a lawful occupier or the owner of that land; or

- (b) the court is otherwise satisfied that the act was performed in a place the property or use of which is vested in a person or body who or which consented to the act being performed there, not being land of the kind referred to in paragraph (a).

[Section 32 amended: No. 31 of 1997 s. 64.]

Part VI — Regulations and rules

33. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make such regulations, as are contemplated by this Act and such other regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, as he considers are necessary or expedient for the proper administration of this Act and for the control of litter generally.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) regulations may be so made —
 - (a) for the protection of litter receptacles from damage or defacement; and
 - (b) prohibiting or regulating the distribution of handbills, leaflets, vouchers, coupons, cards or other publicity material of a similar kind in any public place or on vacant land and the leaving or posting of any such material on any building, or structure on or adjacent to a public place or vacant land or on or in any vehicle in a public place; and
 - (c) regulating the disposal of —
 - (i) boxes, packets, bags, bottles, tins and other containers; and
 - (ii) papers; and
 - (iii) things of no use or no further use to their possessor, so that their disposal will not contribute to the increase of litter nor pollution or environmental harm within the meaning of the Environmental Protection Act 1986; and
 - (d) recommending types of litter receptacles for the purposes of section 25 and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, recommending —
 - (i) the capacity, shape and design of such receptacles;

- (ii) colours and distinguishing symbols or motifs for use on such receptacles;
 - (iii) materials for use in the construction or manufacture of such receptacles;
 - and
 - (e) prohibiting the deposit of litter of a specified class in litter receptacles of a specified class; and
 - (f) regulating the covering and securing of loads on vehicles; and
 - (g) prescribing offences for the purposes of section 30 by setting out the offences or by reference to the provisions creating the offences; and
 - (h) prescribing for the purposes of section 30 in respect of any offence prescribed for the purposes of that section —
 - (i) a penalty not exceeding $2 000; or
 - (ii) different penalties, none of which exceeds $2 000, according to the circumstances by which the offence is attended.
- (3) The regulations may prescribe penalties, not exceeding a fine of $5 000 in respect of a breach of any of the regulations.
- (4) Regulations may be made —
- (a) so as to apply generally or in a specified class of case, or specified classes of cases, at all times or at a specified time or specified times, or throughout the State or in a specified part or specified parts of the State; and
 - (b) so as to require a matter affected by them to be in accordance with a specified requirement, or as approved by, or to the satisfaction of, a specified person or body, or class of person or body, and so as to delegate to or confer upon a specified body a discretionary authority; and
 - (c) so as to provide that in specified cases, or a specified class of case, or specified classes of cases, whether on specified conditions or unconditionally, persons or things may be exempted from their provisions either wholly or to such extent as is specified.

- (5) Where in relation to regulations made under this Act the expression specified is used, the expression, unless the context requires otherwise, means specified in the regulations.

[Section 33 amended: No. 6 of 1996 s. 13; No. 54 of 2003 s. 68(4); No. 30 of 2012 s. 13.]

34. Rules

The Council may make rules not inconsistent with this Act or the regulations for or with respect to —

- (a) regulating the affairs, business and management of the Council;
- (b) the holding of meetings of supporting members and proceedings at the meeting;
- (c) regulating the admission, resignation and expulsion of supporting members and the types and classification of those members and the levying of subscriptions on those members;
- (d) all matters that are considered necessary or convenient by the Council to be prescribed by rules for the purpose of giving effect to this Act, not being matters for and with respect to which regulations may be made.

Part VII — Transitional
