Legal Practice Act 2003

Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court)
(Contentious Business) Determination 2006

Made by the Legal Costs Committee under section 214 of the Act.

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

- (1) This report may be cited as the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Report 2006.
- (2) The determination set out in the Schedule to this report is referred to in this report as the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2006.

Part 2 — Notice and Inquiries

2. Notice under section 213 of the Act

The Legal Costs Committee has complied with the notice provisions of section 213 of the Act.

3. Inquiries and submissions under section 213 of the Act

Before making the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2006, the Legal Costs Committee—

- (a) reviewed all submissions received as a result of the notice given under section 213 of the Act;
- (b) reviewed the operation of the time based system of calculating costs;
- (c) reviewed the impact of movements in the Consumer Price and Labour Price Indices for the financial year ending June 2005, and for the September 2005, December 2005 and March 2006 quarters;
- (d) collated and reviewed the information gained from an electronic questionnaire distributed to legal practitioners in Western Australia; and
- (e) distributed a questionnaire amongst a number of users of legal services and made that questionnaire available to the public electronically on the Committee's website.

Part 3 — Report of the Committee's conclusions

4. Maximum hourly and daily rates changed—scale of costs amended

- (1) The information gained as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3 satisfied the Legal Costs Committee that the manner in which legal services are provided made it appropriate to continue to adopt the hourly and daily rates charged by practitioners as the basis for the rates used in the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2006. There were no appropriate methodologies put to the Committee other than hourly and daily rates.
- (2) Having regard to the information gained as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3 and as a consequence of the proclamation of the Legal Practice Act 2003, the Legal Costs Committee determined it is appropriate to —
 - (a) reorder the scale to better reflect the flow of litigation and changes to appeal procedures; and
 - (b) amend terminology to reflect current practice.
- (3) It is the recommendation of the Legal Costs Committee as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3, having assessed market conditions and having considered the impact of relevant Australian Bureau of Statistics data, submissions from the legal profession, data provided by the Law Society of Western Australia, and the incidental administrative implications of the calculation of the Goods and Services Tax, that the hourly and daily rates referred to in subclause 4 (1) be varied from the hourly and daily rates used in the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2004[†]. Those rates are set out in the Table to clause 8 of the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2006.

- (4) It is the recommendation of the Legal Costs Committee as a result of the inquiries and submissions described in clause 3 that the scale of costs be varied in the manner set out in the Table to clause 9 of the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2006.
- (5) The recommendations of the Legal Costs Committee are not intended to override the entitlement of a practitioner to make a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Legal Practice Act 2003 or any successor legislation.

Schedule

Legal Practice Act 2003

*Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business)
Determination 2006*

Made by the Legal Costs Committee under section 210 of the Act.

1. Citation

This determination may be cited as the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Determination 2006.

2. Commencement

This determination comes into operation on 1 July 2006.

3. Application

- (1) This determination applies to the remuneration of practitioners in respect of contentious business carried out by practitioners in or for the purposes of proceedings before —
 - (a) the Supreme Court; and
 - (b) the District Court other than contentious business to which the Legal Practitioners (District Court Appeals) (Contentious Business) Determination 2004 or any successive determination of that scale applies.
- (2) This determination does not apply to the remuneration of practitioners based on a written agreement as to costs under the Legal Practice Act 2003 or any successor legislation.
- (3) This determination does not apply to the remuneration of practitioners based on costs incurred before 1 July 2006.

4. Application of O.66, r11(3), r12, r13, r18, r19, r20(3), r21 and r23 of the Rules of the Supreme Court

In the circumstances set out in Order 66, rules 11(3), 12, 13, 18, 19, 20(3), 21 and 23 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, the Committee determines that the Court or the Taxing Officer, as the case may be, has the power to make the orders and allowances referred to in those rules.

5. Substantive changes to the Scale

- (1) The practice of certification for second counsel or for Senior Counsel is no longer required by the Scale, which brings the practice in this State into line with other Australian jurisdictions. However, where fees are claimed for second counsel or for Senior Counsel, it is anticipated that the Taxing Officer shall consider whether the briefing of second counsel, or Senior Counsel, was reasonably necessary in the circumstances.
- (2) When the only issue to be tried is assessment of damages, the Scale no longer provides for a maximum 75% of the Scale. The former practice was considered to have resulted in some inconsistencies and anomalies in application.

6. Single Judge Appeals and Appeals to the Court of Appeal

Item 22 of the Table to clause 9 is intended to apply to appeals to a single judge and to appeals to the Court of Appeal.

7. Proceedings by way of prerogative writ

Item 27 of the Table to clause 9 is intended to cover all necessary procedural steps involved in the handling of prerogative writs, both in respect of an application for a motion to show cause and return before the Court of Appeal.

8. Maximum hourly and daily rates

- (1) The hourly and daily rates set out in the Table to this clause are the maximum hourly and daily rates, inclusive of GST, which the Legal Costs Committee determines shall be used to calculate the dollar amounts in the scale of costs set out in the Table to clause 9. Each item in the scale of costs specifies a dollar amount with reference to the fee earner.
- (2) The rates referred to in subclause (1) were ascertained in the manner set out in clause 4 of the Legal Practitioners (Supreme Court) (Contentious Business) Report 2006.
