SANDALWOOD ACT 1929
SANDALWOOD REGULATIONS 1993

Made by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council.

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Sandalwood Regulations 1993.

Interpretation

2. In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears —
“alienated land” has the same meaning as in the Sandalwood Act 1929;

"conservation and land management officer" has the same meaning as in the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984;

"Crown land" has the same meaning as in the Sandalwood Act 1929;

"Executive Director" has the same meaning as in the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984;

"forest officer" has the same meaning as in the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984;

"licence" means —

(a) in relation to alienated land, a licence referred to in section 3 (1) (b) of the Sandalwood Act 1929; or

(b) in relation to Crown land, a licence granted by the Executive Director under section 88 (1) (a) of the Conservation and Land Management Act 1984, to pull or remove sandalwood on or from that land;

"pull", in relation to sandalwood, includes strip the bark from sandalwood;

"sandalwood" has the same meaning as in the Sandalwood Act 1929.

Application for a licence

3. (1) An application for a licence to pull or remove sandalwood from alienated land or Crown land shall be made to the Executive Director in writing in a form approved by the Executive Director.

(2) An applicant shall provide the Executive Director with such further information as the Executive Director requires in any particular case.

(3) Without limiting the generality of subregulation (2), the Executive Director may require an application for a licence to pull or remove sandalwood on or from alienated land to be accompanied by written authorization from the owner or occupier of the alienated land authorizing the applicant to pull or remove sandalwood on or from that land.

Scope of licence

4. (1) The Executive Director shall specify in a licence —

(a) the quantity of sandalwood that may be pulled or removed;

(b) the area of land from which sandalwood may be pulled or removed; and

(c) the period during which sandalwood may be pulled or removed,

under the licence.

(2) The Executive Director shall not grant a licence for a period exceeding 12 months.

(3) A licence shall expire at the end of the period specified in the licence notwithstanding the fact that the quantity of sandalwood authorized to be pulled or removed under the licence has not been pulled or removed.

Production of licence

5. The holder of a licence shall —

(a) carry the licence or a copy of the licence at all times while pulling or removing sandalwood pursuant to that licence; and

- (b) when required to do so by a forest officer or a conservation and land management officer, produce for inspection the licence or copy of the licence to the officer.

Penalty: $2 000.

False statements

6. A person shall not make any statement in an application for a licence that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty: $2 000.
