6. Contents of application

 - (a) the applicant's full name, residential address and telephone number;

(including a person involved in the conduct constituting the offence) about the matters about which the CEO must be satisfied under section 10(1).

7. Providing further information

- (1) If an application does not contain the information required in section 6 the CEO may give notice to the applicant requiring the applicant to provide the information required to the CEO within 28 days, or such longer period as is specified by the CEO in the notice.
- (2) The applicant may submit to the CEO statements or evidence of a kind referred to in section 6(3) at any time after making the application and before it has been determined by the CEO.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents the CEO from considering an application that does not include all the information required in section 6 if the CEO chooses to do so, but the CEO may treat an application as having been withdrawn if the applicant does not comply with a requirement under subsection (1) to provide information.
- (4) An applicant is taken to have complied with a requirement under subsection (1) to provide information if the applicant satisfies the CEO that the applicant is unable to comply with the requirement.

8. Withdrawal of application

Division 2 — Determination of applications

9. Investigation of application

- (1) In considering an application, the CEO may take all steps and make all inquiries that are reasonable and appropriate to consider the application properly.

- (2) However, the CEO must not hold an oral hearing for the purpose of determining the application.
- (3) The CEO may give notice to an applicant requiring the applicant to provide additional information or additional documents that the CEO considers necessary to determine the application to the CEO within 28 days, or such longer period as is specified by the CEO in the notice.
- (4) The CEO may, by notice given to a person who may be able to provide information relevant to an application, require the person to answer specified questions or to provide other information or documents within the period, and in the manner, specified in the notice.
- (5) A person must not fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice under subsection (4).
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $2 000.
- (6) If any information or document is obtained by the CEO under this Part, evidence of that information or document, or evidence of the obtaining of that information or document, may be used only for the administration of this Act.

10. Matters to be considered in determining application

- (1) The CEO must not approve an application unless satisfied —
 - (a) that the offence is a historical homosexual offence; and
 - (b) that, on the balance of probabilities, both of the following tests are satisfied in relation to the eligible person —
 - (i) the eligible person would not have been charged with the historical homosexual offence but for the fact that the eligible person was suspected of having engaged in the conduct constituting the offence for the purposes of, or in connection with, sexual activity of a homosexual nature;
 - (ii) the conduct constituting the historical homosexual offence, if engaged in by the eligible person at the time of the making of the application, would not constitute an offence under the law of this State.
- (2) In considering whether the test set out in subsection (1)(b)(ii) is satisfied, the CEO must have regard to —
 - (a) whether any person involved in the conduct constituting the historical homosexual offence, including the eligible person, consented to the conduct; and

- (b) the ages, or respective ages, of any such persons at the time of that conduct.
- (3) If the consent of a person is an issue in considering an application, the CEO may only be satisfied on written evidence on that issue —
 - (a) from the available official criminal records; or
 - (b) from a person, other than the eligible person, who was involved in the conduct constituting the historical homosexual offence; or
 - (c) if no person referred to in paragraph (b) can be found after reasonable enquiries are made by the applicant, from a person (other than the applicant) with knowledge of the circumstances in which that conduct occurred.
- (4) In considering an application the CEO may have regard to any matter the CEO reasonably considers relevant in the circumstances.

11. Determination of application

- (1) The CEO must determine an application as soon as practicable after it is received.
- (2) The CEO is to determine an application by —
 - (a) approving the application; or
 - (b) refusing the application.
- (3) If the application is approved, the conviction for the historical homosexual offence is expunged.
- (4) The CEO must not refuse an application unless the CEO has —
 - (a) given notice to the applicant and, if the applicant is not the eligible person and it is practicable to do so, to the eligible person stating that —
 - (i) the CEO proposes to refuse the application; and
 - (ii) further written information or documents that show cause why the application should not be refused may be submitted to the CEO within 14 days after the day on which the notice is given;
 - and
 - (b) provided to the person, or persons, to whom the notice is given, at the time that the notice is given, copies of all official criminal records in the possession of the CEO relating to the conviction for the historical homosexual offence; and

- (c) taken into account any further written information or documents submitted by that person, or persons, within the period specified in the notice.
- (5) The CEO must ensure that personal information (other than personal information about the eligible person) is withheld from official criminal records provided under subsection (4)(b).
- (6) The CEO must, as soon as possible after a determination under this section is made, give the applicant and, if the applicant is not the eligible person and it is practicable to do so, the eligible person, written notice of the determination and, if the application is refused, that notice is to —
 - (a) set out the reasons for the refusal; and
 - (b) give information about the right to have the determination reviewed.

Division 3 — Determination that conviction is no longer expunged

12. Determination that conviction is no longer expunged

- (1) If the CEO is satisfied that a conviction became an expunged conviction by reason of an application that included false or misleading information, or documents that are false or misleading, the CEO may determine that the conviction is no longer an expunged conviction.
- (2) The CEO must not make a determination that a conviction is no longer an expunged conviction unless the CEO has —
 - (a) given notice to the applicant and, if the applicant is not the eligible person and it is practicable to do so, to the eligible person stating that —
 - (i) the CEO proposes to make a determination that the conviction is no longer an expunged conviction; and
 - (ii) further written information or documents that show cause why the determination should not be made may be submitted to the CEO within 14 days after the day on which the notice is given;
 - and
 - (b) provided to the person, or persons, to whom the notice is given, at the time that the notice is given, copies of any documents or information (including official criminal records) in the possession of the CEO relating to the proposed determination; and

- (c) taken into account any further written information or documents submitted by that person, or persons, within the period specified in the notice.
- (3) The CEO must ensure that personal information (other than personal information about the eligible person) is withheld from any documents and information provided under subsection (2)(b).
- (4) A conviction ceases to be an expunged conviction on and from the date of a determination under this section.
- (5) The CEO must, as soon as possible after a determination under this section is made, give the applicant and, if the applicant is not the eligible person and it is practicable to do so, the eligible person, written notice of the determination that —
 - (a) sets out the reasons for the determination; and
 - (b) gives information about the right to have the determination reviewed.
- (6) The CEO must, within 28 days after making a determination under this section, notify any relevant data controller in writing that the conviction is no longer an expunged conviction.
- (7) On receipt of a notification under subsection (6), the relevant data controller must, within 28 days, annotate any entry contained in any official criminal records under the management or control of the data controller that was annotated under section 13(2) with a statement to the effect that the entry relates to a conviction that was an expunged conviction but is no longer an expunged conviction.

Part 3 — Consequences of convictions being expunged

13. Annotation of official criminal records

- (1) On approving an application under section 11(2)(a), the CEO must, within 28 days, notify any relevant data controller in writing of that determination.
- (2) On receipt of a notification under subsection (1), the relevant data controller must, within 28 days, annotate any entry relating to the expunged conviction contained in any official criminal records under the management or control of the data controller with a statement to the effect that the entry relates to an expunged conviction.

- (3) A data controller must notify the CEO in writing, as soon as is reasonably practicable —
 - (a) that subsection (2) has been complied with in relation to official criminal records under the management or control of the data controller; or
 - (b) that subsection (2) has not been complied with due to a failure to locate any official criminal records under the management or control of the data controller relating to the expunged conviction.
- (4) As soon as is reasonably practicable after the CEO is satisfied that all necessary action has been taken in relation to entries in official criminal records, the CEO must give written notice of that fact to the applicant and, if the applicant is not the eligible person and it is practicable to do so, to the eligible person.

14. Effect of expunging

If an eligible person's conviction is expunged under section 11(3) —

- (a) the person is not required to disclose the expunged conviction to any other person, including when giving evidence under oath in legal proceedings; and
 - (b) the expunged conviction is taken not to form part of the person's official criminal record; and
 - (c) a question about the person's criminal history, including a question in legal proceedings required to be answered under oath, is taken not to refer to the expunged conviction; and
 - (d) in applying a provision of any legislation, agreement or arrangement to the person —
 - (i) a reference to a conviction, however expressed, is taken not to refer to the expunged conviction; and
 - (ii) a reference, however expressed, to the person's character is not to be taken to allow or require anyone to take account of the expunged conviction;
- and
- (e) the expunged conviction, or the non-disclosure of the expunged conviction, is not a proper ground for —
 - (i) refusing the person any appointment, office, status or privilege; or

- (ii) revoking any appointment, status or privilege held by the person or dismissing the person from any office.

15. Disclosure of expunged records

- (1) A person with access to official criminal records must not directly or indirectly, without lawful authority, disclose any information about another person's expunged conviction held in those records without the consent of that other person.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $10 000.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to —
 - (a) an archive or library, or an authorised officer of an archive or library, that makes available to a member of the public, or to another archive or library, under the normal procedures of the archive or library, material that is normally available for public use and that contains information about an expunged conviction; or

 - (a) the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Western Australia) sections 77(4), 79(3) and 135(3); or

16. Improperly obtained information about expunged convictions

A person must not fraudulently or dishonestly obtain, or attempt to obtain, information about another person's expunged conviction from an official criminal record.

Penalty: a fine of $10 000.

17. Discrimination on grounds of expunged conviction

- (1) The Spent Convictions Act 1988 Part 3 Division 3 applies to and in respect of expunged convictions in the same manner as it applies to and in respect of spent convictions and, for that purpose, a reference in that Division to a spent conviction is to be taken to be a reference to an expunged conviction.

- (2) Without limiting the application of the provisions of the Spent Convictions Act 1988 under subsection (1), for the purposes of those provisions —
- (a) in relation to discrimination on the ground of an expunged conviction or the charge to which it relates —
 - (i) the Minister has the powers conferred by the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 sections 81 and 107(1) on the Minister to whom the administration of that Act is committed; and
 - (ii) the Commissioner under that Act has the functions set out in sections 80(a), (b)(i), (c), (e) and (h), 81 and 95 of that Act;
 - and

- (3) The document must be presumed in any proceedings, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to have been given by the CEO or a person who was, at that time, a delegate of the CEO, as the case requires.

- (2) The protection given by subsection (1) applies even though the thing done as described in that provision may have been capable of being done whether or not this Act had been enacted.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), the State is not relieved of any liability that it might have for an act done by a person against whom this section provides that an action does not lie.

27. Delegation

- (3) A person to whom a function is delegated under this section cannot delegate that function.
- (4) A person exercising or performing a function that has been delegated to the person under this section is to be taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.
