SCHOOL EDUCATION ACT 1999
CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENT RESIDENTIAL COLLEGES

1. Authority

The Code of Conduct (the Code) is issued and published pursuant to section 213J of the School Education Act 1999.

2. Purpose

The Boarding Agreement provides that the student must obey the Code.

The purpose of the Code is to set out the required standard of conduct to be observed by a student while boarding at a residential college.

Students who breach the Code may be subject to disciplinary action. The college manager can suspend or terminate a boarding agreement for substantial breaches of the Code.

3. Scope

This Code applies to all students who board at a residential college.

4. Conduct in Respect to Self

Students will—

- act with proper regard for their safety, education, welfare and health (mental and physical);
- conduct themselves in a respectful, responsible and lawful manner;

- behave in a way that upholds the values, integrity and reputation of the residential college; and
- accept responsibility for their actions.

5. Conduct in Respect to Other Students

Students will—

- treat other students with respect, dignity, courtesy, honesty and fairness and with proper regard for others' rights, safety and welfare;
- live in harmony with other students and respect others' views and opinions;
- respect the privacy of others; and
- report a breach of the Code to appropriate staff.

6. Conduct in Respect to Staff

Students will—

- treat staff with respect, dignity, courtesy, honesty and fairness and with proper regard for their rights, safety and welfare;
- respect their property, views and opinions; and
- comply with any reasonable request of a staff member.

7. Conduct in Respect to Property

Students will—

- treat residential college property and facilities with respect; and
- treat staff and fellow students' property with respect.
