(a) means an event of a sporting or entertainment nature (whether it takes place wholly or partly in a public place or on private property), where —

(2) The amount that the Commissioner may charge is to be determined in accordance with regulations made under section 138A.
(3) For the avoidance of doubt —

(a) this Part does not impose an obligation on the Commissioner of Police to provide police services for a major event; and

(b) the Commissioner is the final judge of the number of police officers required to provide police services for an event, but that does not lessen or limit any obligation that the Commissioner has —

(i) to consult on the matter with the promoter or organiser of the event; and

(ii) to have regard to the current charging policy published under section 39L; and

(c) the fact that the Commissioner has agreed to provide police services for a major event does not limit the ability of the Commissioner to redeploy any police officer for another purpose that the Commissioner considers has a higher operational priority (of which the Commissioner is the sole judge).

(4) If the Commissioner decides to charge a person for providing police services for an event, that person may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision on the ground that what the person is promoting or organising is not an event as defined in section 39E.

[Section 39H inserted: No. 12 of 2011 s. 4.]

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the costs that may be recovered include the following —
   (a) the personnel costs associated with the time spent by a police officer in planning the deployment of police officers for an event;
   (b) the personnel costs associated with the police officers who attend an event to provide police services;
   (c) the overhead expenses associated with the provision of police services for an event.

(4) For the purpose of determining the personnel costs of police officers attending an event, the regulations may prescribe or provide for —
   (a) different hourly rates for police officers of different ranks; or
(b) a standard hourly rate for a police officer regardless of rank, and (without limitation) the standard hourly rate may be an average of the hourly rates of the police officers of various ranks who would normally be required to attend a major event.

(5) The regulations may specify or provide for the payment of a minimum amount to recover costs unavoidably incurred by the Police Force or the Department where —

(a) an event is cancelled or postponed or runs for a shorter period than expected; or

(b) the number of police officers assigned to provide police services for an event is reduced at short notice at the request of the promoter or organiser of the event, and in that case the minimum amount applies even though the number of police officers who attend the event is fewer than the minimum number referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of major event in section 39F.

[Section 39I inserted: No. 12 of 2011 s. 4.]

39J. Recovery of amounts payable

Police Act 1892

Division 2 — How members can be retired on medical grounds

33ZC. Examination of member by medical board

(1) Subsection (2) applies if the Police Commissioner reasonably suspects that a member is medically unfit.

(2) The Police Commissioner may direct the member to submit to an examination by a medical board consisting of at least 3 medical practitioners.

(3) The direction may also impose requirements on the member —
(a) in relation to the conduct of the examination; or
(b) otherwise for the purpose of facilitating the examination.

(4) The direction must be given in writing.

(5) The member commits an offence against the discipline of the Police Force if the member, without good and sufficient cause, fails to comply with the direction.

(6) The medical board must give a report on the examination to the Police Commissioner.

(7) Regulations under section 138A may (without limitation) make provision about medical boards, including (without limitation) provision about 1 or more of the following matters —
   (a) the appointment of medical practitioners, or of other persons in addition to medical practitioners, to them (including how, when or by whom appointments are to be made);
   (b) their governance and procedures;
   (c) their examinations of members;
   (d) their reports to the Police Commissioner;
   (e) the payment of their costs or costs otherwise associated with them (including remuneration and expenses of persons appointed to them).

33ZD. Notice that Police Commissioner is of opinion that member is medically unfit

(1) This section applies if —
   (a) the Police Commissioner receives a report from a medical board under section 33ZC(6); and
   (b) having taken into account the report, the Police Commissioner is of the opinion that the member is medically unfit.

(2) The Police Commissioner may give written notice to the member stating that the Police Commissioner —
   (a) is of the opinion that the member is medically unfit; and
   (b) is in the process of deciding whether the member should be retired on medical grounds.

(3) If notice is given, the member may, during the period referred to in subsection (4) —
   (a) make written submissions to the Police Commissioner; and
   (b) give the Police Commissioner any written report or other document.
(4) The period is —
   (a) the period of 28 days after the day on which the notice is given; or
   (b) a longer period allowed by the Police Commissioner.

33ZE. Power to retire member on medical grounds

(1) After the period referred to in section 33ZD(4) has ended, the Police Commissioner must —
   (a) decide whether the member should be retired on medical grounds; and
   (b) give the member written notice of the decision.

(2) The Police Commissioner must not decide that the member should be retired on medical grounds unless the Police Commissioner —
   (a) has taken into account everything received from the member under section 33ZD(3) during the period referred to in section 33ZD(4); and
   (b) is still of the opinion that the member is medically unfit.

(3) Subsections (4) to (10) apply if the Police Commissioner decides that the member should be retired on medical grounds.

(4) The notice under subsection (1)(b) must give the Police Commissioner’s reasons for the decision.

(5) Except to the extent that regulations otherwise provide, the Police Commissioner must, within 7 days of giving the notice under subsection (1)(b), give the member a copy of any documents, and make available to the member for inspection any other materials, that were examined and taken into account by the Police Commissioner in making the decision.

(6) If the member is a commissioned officer —
   (a) the Police Commissioner may recommend to the Minister that the Minister advise the Governor to retire the member on medical grounds; and
   (b) the Governor may, on the Minister’s advice given in accordance with the Police Commissioner’s recommendation, retire the member on medical grounds.

(7) If the member is a non-commissioned officer or a constable, the Police Commissioner may, with the Minister’s approval, retire the member on medical grounds.

(8) If the member is an Aboriginal police liaison officer or a police auxiliary officer, the Police Commissioner may retire the member on medical grounds.
(9) A power of the Police Commissioner under subsection (6), (7) or (8) may be exercised when, or at any time after, the notice under subsection (1)(b) is given.

(10) If the member is retired on medical grounds —

(a) the Police Commissioner must give the member written notice that the member has been retired on medical grounds; and

(b) the retirement takes effect, and the member ceases to hold the office to which the member is appointed under this Act accordingly, at the end of the day on which the member receives the Police Commissioner’s notice.

(11) Subsections (4) to (10) cease to apply if the Police Commissioner’s decision that the member should be retired on medical grounds is revoked under section 33ZG(2).

(12) Regulations under section 138A may (without limitation) make provision for determining when a member is taken to receive a notice for the purposes of subsection (10)(b).

33ZF. Maintenance payment

(1) This section applies if a member’s retirement on medical grounds has taken effect.

(2) The member is entitled to receive a maintenance payment for the period of 28 days after the retirement day.

(3) In exceptional circumstances, the Minister may direct that a maintenance payment be paid to the member for a further period of up to 6 months specified by the Minister starting when the period referred to in subsection (2) ends.

(4) However, the further period ends (if it has not already ended) on the day on which any appeal instituted under section 33ZI is determined by the WAIRC.

(5) A maintenance payment must be calculated on the basis of the member’s salary on the retirement day.

33ZG. Revocation of decision that member should be retired

(1) This section applies if the Police Commissioner decides under section 33ZE(1)(a) that a member should be retired on medical grounds.

(2) At any time on or before the retirement day, the Police Commissioner may, by written notice to the Minister, revoke the Police Commissioner’s decision.
(3) At any time after the retirement day, the Police Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, revoke the Police Commissioner’s decision.

(4) A notice under subsection (3) requires the Minister’s approval if the member was a commissioned officer.

(5) Subsection (3) applies even if an appeal has been instituted under section 33ZI.

(6) Despite any other enactment, if the Police Commissioner’s decision is revoked under subsection (3), the member’s retirement is taken to be of no effect and to have never had any effect.

(7) If the Police Commissioner’s decision is revoked under subsection (3), the member is not entitled to be paid the member’s salary for any period for which the member received a maintenance payment under section 33ZF.

33ZH. Resignation of member who has been retired on medical grounds

(1) A member may resign at any time during the period of 28 days after the retirement day, despite the member’s retirement on medical grounds having taken effect.

(2) The resignation takes effect at the end of that period of 28 days.

(3) However, the member cannot resign if an appeal has been instituted under section 33ZI.

(4) Despite any other enactment, if the member resigns, the member’s retirement is taken to be of no effect and to have never had any effect.

Division 3 — Appeal against decision that member should be retired on medical grounds

33ZI. Appeal right

(1) This section applies if a member’s retirement on medical grounds has taken effect.

(2) The member may appeal to the WAIRC on the ground that the Police Commissioner’s decision under section 33ZE(1)(a) that the member should be retired on medical grounds (the disputed decision) was harsh, oppressive or unfair.

(3) The member must institute the appeal by a notice to the Police Commissioner stating —

(a) why the disputed decision was harsh, oppressive or unfair; and

(b) the nature of the relief sought.
(4) The appeal cannot be instituted —
   (a) later than 28 days after the retirement day; or
   (b) if the member has resigned under section 33ZH.
(5) For the purposes of proceedings relating to the appeal, the WAIRC is to be constituted by not less than 3 industrial Commissioners, at least 1 of whom is the Chief Commissioner or the Senior Commissioner.
(6) The parties to the appeal are the appellant and the Police Commissioner.
(7) No other person may be a party to the appeal.

33ZJ. Proceedings on appeal
(1) On the hearing of the appeal, the WAIRC must proceed as follows —
   (a) first, it must consider the Police Commissioner’s reasons for making the disputed decision;
   (b) secondly, it must consider the case presented by the appellant as to why the disputed decision was harsh, oppressive or unfair;
   (c) thirdly, it must consider the case presented by the Police Commissioner in answer to the appellant’s case.
(2) The appellant has at all times the burden of establishing that the disputed decision was harsh, oppressive or unfair.
(3) Subsection (2) has effect despite any law or practice to the contrary.
(4) Without limiting the matters to which the WAIRC is otherwise required or permitted to have regard in determining the appeal, it must have regard to —
   (a) the interests of the appellant; and
   (b) the public interest which is taken to include —
      (i) the importance of maintaining public confidence in members of the Police Force; and
      (ii) the special nature of the relationship between the Police Commissioner and members of the Police Force.
33ZK. New evidence on appeal

(1) In this section — new evidence means evidence other than evidence of —

(a) any document or other material that was examined and taken into account by the Police Commissioner in making the disputed decision; or

(b) the notice given under section 33ZD(2); or

(c) a written submission, report or other document given to the Police Commissioner by the appellant under section 33ZD(3); or

(d) the notice given under section 33ZE(1)(b) or (10)(a).

(2) New evidence must not be tendered to the WAIRC during the hearing of the appeal unless the WAIRC grants leave under subsection (3) or (4).

(3) The WAIRC may grant the Police Commissioner leave to tender new evidence if —

(a) the appellant consents; or

(b) the WAIRC is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice to grant leave.

(4) The WAIRC may grant the appellant leave to tender new evidence if —

(a) the Police Commissioner consents; or

(b) the WAIRC is satisfied that —

(i) the appellant is likely to be able to show that the Police Commissioner has acted upon wrong or mistaken information; or

(ii) the new evidence might materially have affected the Police Commissioner’s decision that the member should be retired on medical grounds; or

(iii) it is in the interests of justice to grant leave.

(5) In the exercise of its discretion under subsection (4), the WAIRC must have regard to the following —

(a) whether the appellant was aware of the substance of the new evidence before the end of the retirement day;

(b) whether the new evidence was contained in a document to which the appellant had reasonable access before the end of the retirement day.

(6) If the Police Commissioner is given leave to tender new evidence —
(a) the WAIRC must give the appellant a reasonable opportunity to consider the new evidence; and
(b) the appellant may tender new evidence without the leave of the WAIRC in response to the new evidence tendered by the Police Commissioner.

(7) If the appellant is given leave to tender new evidence, the WAIRC must give the Police Commissioner a reasonable opportunity to consider the new evidence.

(8) If, having considered any new evidence, the Police Commissioner revokes the disputed decision under section 33ZG(3) —
(a) the Police Commissioner must give the WAIRC notice of the revocation; and
(b) the hearing of the appeal is discontinued when the WAIRC receives the notice.

(9) If the Police Commissioner does not give notice under subsection (8), the hearing of the appeal must continue but the Police Commissioner may —
(a) reformulate the Police Commissioner’s reasons for making the disputed decision; and
(b) tender new evidence without the leave of the WAIRC in response to the new evidence tendered by the appellant.

(10) Reasons reformulated under subsection (9)(a) may differ from, or be additional to, the reasons given to the appellant under section 33ZE(4).

(11) If the Police Commissioner reformulates reasons under subsection (9)(a) —
(a) the Police Commissioner must give the WAIRC and the appellant written notice of the reasons before the resumption of the hearing of the appeal; and
(b) the WAIRC must consider the reasons as if they had been reasons given to the appellant under section 33ZE(4).

33ZL. Application of Industrial Relations Act 1979 to the appeal

The provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 1979 listed in the Table to this section apply, subject to this Part, any necessary modifications, and any specific modifications set out in that Table, to and in relation to the appeal and the determination of the appeal.

Table

s. 26(1)(a) and (b)
s. 26(3)

An order under section 27(1)(o) may be made by any one of the industrial Commissioners constituting the WAIRC to hear the appeal.

s. 27(1a)

But only in relation to powers conferred by section 27 listed in this Table.

s. 28

Paragraphs (b) and (c) do not apply but the subsection is to be read as if it contained the following paragraphs —

“ (b) with the leave of the Commission, by an agent; or

(c) by a legal practitioner. ”.

s. 31(3)

s. 31(5)

s. 32

Section 32(1) is to be read as if a reference to “Where an industrial matter has been referred to the Commission the Commission shall” were a reference to “If the Commission is dealing with an appeal instituted under the Police Act 1892 section 33ZI, the Commission may recommend that the parties to the appeal”.

References to “the matter” and “an industrial matter” are to be read as if they were references to “the appeal”.

For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), Commission does not include an industrial Commissioner constituting the WAIRC to hear the appeal.

Subsections (4), (6), (7) and (8) do not apply.
s. 33 A summons may not be issued under section 33(1)(a) to the Governor.

A summons may be issued to the Police Commissioner or the Minister but only at the direction of an industrial Commissioner if that industrial Commissioner is satisfied that there are extraordinary grounds for doing so.

A summons may not be issued to any other person except at the direction of an industrial Commissioner.

s. 34 A reference in subsection (1) to “an award, order or declaration” is to be read as if it were a reference to “an order”.

A reference in subsection (4) to “no award, order, declaration, finding, or proceeding” is to be read as if it were a reference to “no decision, order, finding or proceeding”.

33ZM. Decision by the WAIRC

(1) This section applies if the WAIRC decides on the appeal that the disputed decision was harsh, oppressive or unfair.

(2) Unless an order is made under subsection (3), the WAIRC may order that the appellant’s retirement on medical grounds is, and is to be taken to have always been, of no effect.

(3) If, and only if, the WAIRC considers that it is impracticable for it to be taken that the appellant’s retirement on medical grounds is, and has always been, of no effect, the WAIRC may instead of making an order under subsection (2), subject to subsections (5) and (6), order the Police Commissioner to pay the appellant an amount of compensation for loss or injury caused by the retirement.

(4) In considering whether it is impracticable for it to be taken that the appellant’s retirement is, and has always been, of no effect it is relevant to consider —
   (a) whether the position occupied by the appellant on the retirement day is vacant; and
   (b) whether there is another suitable vacant position.

(5) In deciding the amount of compensation for the purpose of making an order under subsection (3), the WAIRC must have regard to —
   (a) the efforts, if any, of the Police Commissioner and the appellant to mitigate the loss suffered by the appellant as a result of the retirement; and
   (b) any maintenance payment received by the appellant under section 33ZF; and
   (c) any redress the appellant has obtained under another enactment where the evidence necessary to establish that redress is also the evidence necessary to establish on the appeal that the disputed decision was harsh, oppressive or unfair; and
   (d) any other matter that the WAIRC considers relevant.

(6) The amount ordered to be paid under subsection (3) must not exceed 12 months’ remuneration as a member.

(7) For the purpose of subsection (5), the WAIRC may calculate the amount on the basis of the average rate of remuneration as a member received by the appellant during any relevant period of service.

(8) If the WAIRC makes an order under subsection (2), the appellant is not entitled to be paid the appellant’s remuneration as a member for any period the appellant received a maintenance payment under section 33ZF.

(9) An order under this section may require that it be complied with within a specified time.

33ZN. Restriction on publication

(1) If the WAIRC is satisfied that it is in the public interest, it may direct that either or both of the following must not be published or must not be published except in the manner, and to the persons, the WAIRC specifies —
   (a) any evidence given before the WAIRC on the appeal;
   (b) the contents of any document produced to the WAIRC on the appeal.
(2) A person must not make a publication in contravention of a direction given under this section.
Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 12 months and a fine of $4 000.

Division 4 — General

33ZO. Failure to comply with procedure
An act or omission of the Governor, the Minister or the Police Commissioner is not invalid, and must not be called into question, on the ground of a failure to comply with any procedure prescribed under Division 2, or under regulations relating to Division 2, if the failure is not substantive.

33ZP. Transfer, standing down and leave of member
(1) Nothing in this Part derogates from the Police Commissioner’s power to —
   (a) transfer a member; or
   (b) stand a member down from performing that member’s usual duties on full pay until the member is directed by the Police Commissioner to return to those duties; or
   (c) allocate duties to a member other than the member’s usual duties.

(2) If the Police Commissioner stands down a member who is being dealt with under this Part, the Police Commissioner must review the decision to stand the member down every 60 days and advise the member in writing of the result of the review.
